Ref: SB-17-0006-SI

Attached please find the Miami-Dade County Public Schools (M-DCPS) Office of the Inspector General (OIG) Final Report of Investigation concerning Chabad Chayil and its free use of school facilities to operate its after-school care program. The investigation concerned allegations of misrepresentations made by Chabad Chayil that allowed it to use the facilities free of charge for the past decade. The complaint received by the OIG also alleged that a School Board member's office aided the organization. Our review took into account the School District's process for selecting and approving after-school care programs, and by what means child care providers should utilize in order to operate their programs on school property. This investigation also examined Chabad Chayil's child care licensure status, its background screening of staff, and the School District's identification badging protocols. The investigation found deficiencies in the process and the report provides recommendations for heightened future scrutiny.

This report, as a draft, was provided to all the affected parties of the OIG's investigation, including M-DCPS staff who were interviewed in the course of this investigation. Written responses were received from, or on behalf of, all parties (one response was received from the Administration) and are incorporated into this final report as Appendices A – D. These responses are also summarized in the Final Report beginning on page 34.

Last, while we acknowledge that the Administration's response indicates that it will be taking corrective action as a result of this investigation, the report does contain a few OIG recommendations. As such, the OIG is requesting to be provided with a status report, on or before January 25, 2020.

The OIG would like to thank all parties involved for their cooperation and for the courtesies extended to the OIG during this investigation.

Chabad Chayil After-School Care Program

I. INTRODUCTION & SYNOPSIS

The Miami-Dade County Public Schools (M-DCPS) Office of the Inspector General (OIG) received an anonymous complaint alleging that M-DCPS School Board Member, Dr. Martin Karp, and his Chief of Staff, Jerold Blumstein, aided a religious organization named Chabad Chayil, “which they are friendly with,” gain free use of school property to run an after-school<sup>1</sup> care program at various school sites throughout the north end of Miami-Dade County. The allegations include that Dr. Karp and Mr. Blumstein used their positions to coerce school officials to accept Chabad Chayil at their respective campuses. The complaint further states that this practice has been in place for years and anyone who handles the building rentals in the School District has knowledge of Dr. Karp and Mr. Blumstein’s efforts to help this organization because of their affiliation and friendship with Chabad Chayil. The complaint also alleges that Chabad Chayil has been submitting fraudulent documentation to the School Board in order to qualify for free space and this has been going on for years. According to the complaint, Chabad Chayil represents that it does not collect fees for its services when in fact it does. (EXHIBIT 1 Complaint)

The OIG investigation substantiated the allegation that Chabad Chayil submitted fraudulent documentation to M-DCPS for almost a decade thus receiving free space for the operation of its after-school care program. For an organization to gain free use of school facilities, the meetings or use of the facilities must be open to the public and free of charge. Chabad Chayil, through its President Rabbi Moishe Kievman, misrepresented on its application for Temporary Use Agreement that Chabad Chayil’s “meetings” were free of charge and open to the public, and no admission or collection would be taken. The investigation determined that Chabad Chayil had been charging fees all along. Chabad Chayil’s misrepresentations, over the past nine years, allowed them to gain access to school facilities for free to operate its fee-based Community Hebrew Afterschool Care Program a/k/a CHAP at Aventura Waterways K-8 Center (Aventura Waterways) since 2008 and Virginia A. Boone/Highland Oaks Elementary School (VABHOE) since 2016. These misrepresentations resulted in facility fee waivers estimated at $1.3 million.

The OIG investigation also substantiated the allegation that School Board Member Karp’s office aided Chabad Chayil in gaining free use of school facilities to operate its after-school care program at Aventura Waterways (since 2008) and at VABHOE (since 2016). The OIG investigation found no evidence that Dr. Karp coerced the principals of the schools or M-DCPS administrators, as alleged, however, Mr. Blumstein, Dr. Karp’s Chief of Staff, aggressively worked to make sure that the Temporary Use Agreements and fee waivers were approved every year. One School principal stated that although Dr. Karp did not openly “twist his arm” he believed that approving the Temporary Use Agreement and fee waiver was something he was “expected” to do, and something “desired” by the School Board Member. Another administrator stated that Mr. Blumstein threatened to go to her boss when she questioned Chabad Chayil’s eligibility for a fee waiver.

Notwithstanding the allegations in this complaint, this investigation has revealed even more troubling areas of concern. First, Chabad Chayil gained access to school facilities by filling out a Temporary Use Agreement application. This allowed Chabad Chayil to operate its after-school care programs in a manner that completely bypassed the District’s established protocols for outside agencies operating after-school care programs. Outside agencies are required to be preapproved by the School Board after being selected via a Request for Proposal (RFP) process prior to entering into an Affiliating Agreement for the provision of after-school care services. The School District issued an RFP for not-for-profit after-school care program providers in 2007, and again in 2010. The RFPs contained the minimum requirements for providers to operate an after-school care program. The selected providers are closely supervised by the Office of Community Education and Before/After School Care Programs.

Second, after-school care programs are regulated by Florida Statutes and Florida Administrative Rules, which are enforced by the Florida Department of Children and Families (DCF). By circumventing the RFPs and using the Temporary Use Agreement—which is not the proper vehicle for implementing after-school care programs—Chabad Chayil was able to operate its after-school care program for years without the required license under Florida Statutes, a misdemeanor in the first degree. Chabad Chayil operated without a license at Aventura Waterways beginning in 2008 until 2015, and at VABHOE beginning in 2016 until 2018. By using the Temporary Use Agreement, Chabad Chayil went unnoticed for years operating after-school care programs in public schools without a license, in violation of Florida Statutes.

Third, Chabad Chayil violated the Jessica Lunsford Act and the School District’s vendor identification badge requirements for years without anyone at M-DCPS noticing or putting a stop to it. The OIG investigation revealed that no one at the schools or M-DCPS administration asked Chabad Chayil for a list of employees, proof of Level 2 Background clearance for the employees operating the after-school care on school property, or asked for M-DCPS identification badges.

There are serious implications as a result of allowing Chabad Chayil use of school facilities, on a daily basis, for years merely by filling out a Temporary Use Agreement application and accepting it at face value without any sort of vetting and/or verification of the information. There was also a huge disconnect between the various departments and administrators during the approval process. Although numerous administrators were interviewed, most assumed—including the principals—that because the Office of Budget Management, Maintenance and District Facility Rentals processed the Temporary Use Agreement and facility fee waivers all these years, everything was in order. Some opined that the principals were responsible, as they are responsible for their schools and can reject the use of their school facilities by any organization. But while everyone was assuming someone else was responsible, Chabad Chayil operated its after-school care program without the required DCF license for seven years at Aventura Waterways and two years at VABHOE. Additionally, Chabad Chayil operated without M-DCPS requiring a list of employees working directly with students; without proof of Level 2 Screening of employees—or, for that matter, without Level 2 Screening through DCF of employees at all—as required by law—until they applied for a license with DCF. Furthermore, Chabad Chayil operated without certified instructors or activity leaders, without school badges, and without any supervision whatsoever. This conduct could have had serious repercussions.

In summary, this investigation revealed serious non-compliance issues surrounding the required approval process for outside entities seeking to provide private programming on public school property. The report, as a draft, was provided to all the affected parties of the OIG’s investigation, including M-DCPS staff who are involved in the aforementioned approval process. Written responses were received, and our comments thereon, are found in Section VII. Notably, the Administration, in its response to the OIG, stated that it will be taking corrective action by requiring outside organizations to execute affidavits attesting to their eligibility. Additionally, the OIG provides several recommendations to bolster oversight and compliance in this area, including increased guidance for all principals and assistant principals when approving Temporary Use Agreements for outside entities wishing to have access to their schools. Moreover, we recommend that the Office of Community and Before/After School Care have greater oversight in the approval and supervision of all after-school care programs, and enrichment and supplemental programs, to ensure that these outside entities are duly licensed. Last, the OIG is requesting to be provided with a status report, on or before January 25, 2020.

II. OIG JURISDICTION AND AUTHORITY

The OIG provides inspector general services to M-DCPS pursuant to an Interlocal Agreement (ILA) between Miami-Dade County and the School Board of Miami-Dade County. The ILA governs the scope and jurisdiction of the OIG’s activities. Among the authority, jurisdiction, responsibilities and functions conferred upon the OIG through the ILA is the authority and jurisdiction to investigate M-DCPS affairs, including the power to review past, present, and proposed programs, accounts, records, contracts and transactions. The OIG shall have the power to require reports and the production of records from the M-DCPS Superintendent, School Board members, School District departments and allied organizations, and School District officers and employees, regarding any matter within the jurisdiction of the OIG.

III. BACKGROUND

Temporary Use Agreement & Fee Waiver, Forms FM-0117 and FM-5576

District grounds and facilities are available for community purposes if the use does not infringe on the original and necessary purpose of the property or interfere with educational programs. Under School Board Policy 7510 (effective July 2011) and former School Board Rule 6Gx13-1D-1.01, School Board school administrators may approve the temporary use of school facilities for non-school educational, civic, cultural, recreational, artistic, or charitable programs. The renter must submit an Application for Temporary Use of School Building Facilities of The Miami-Dade County Public Schools – Temporary Use Agreement<sup>3</sup> (Form #FM-0117), which must be signed by the principal and approved by the Superintendent.<sup>4</sup> The renter must prepay rental charges unless the fee is waived by the Region Superintendent and Deputy Superintendent of School Operations. The fee is waived only if the meeting or program is open to the public and free of charge. The use of the facilities is “temporary,” and the policy specifically states that the “School Board does not provide facilities for individuals or organizations over extended periods of time. Rentals are on a temporary basis only.” If the use of the facilities is “short term” or “long term,” then a written contract must be executed.

The Office of Budget Management, Maintenance and District Facility Rentals (Budget/Facility Rentals), has developed a fee structure to ensure proper remuneration to the School District for use of District Facilities. The School Board recognizes that there are certain organizations that may be unable to pay those fees and as such are permitted free use of the facilities if the meeting or program is open to the public and free of charge. As a result, M-DCPS developed the Miami-Dade County Public Schools Request for Fee Waiver for Utilization of School Facilities (Form FM-5576) (fee waiver). This request must be initiated and completed by the principal and submitted to Budget/Facility Rentals with the application, certificate of insurance, Jessica Lunsford Affidavit and a $25 cashier’s check or money order processing fee. Budget/Facility Rentals staff will forward form FM-5576 accompanied by form FM-0117 to the appropriate Region for approval. Once approved by the Region, it is returned to the Budget/Facility Rentals. Budget/Facility Rentals’ staff will then forward all corresponding documents to School Operations, the Deputy Superintendent’s Office, for final approval.

<sup>3</sup> Throughout this report, we will refer to this application form as the “Temporary Use Agreement.”

<sup>4</sup> The Deputy Superintendent/Chief Operating Officer, School Operations approves the Temporary Use Agreement. Between 2009 and 2010, Temporary Use Agreements were received and processed by Plant Operations. Once the Temporary Use Agreement and fee waivers were complete, they would forward to Facility Rentals. Facility Rentals focused on billing and collecting. In 2012, Facility Rentals assumed the processing of the Temporary Use Agreements, when it was merged with the Office of Budget Management.

M-DCPS Before and/or After-School Care Program

M-DCPS operates before and after-school care programs as part of community education services and through cooperative agreements with outside agencies. The after-school care programs are staffed with state certified instructors, state certified program managers, or state certified activity leaders. These after-school care programs are offered in elementary, K-8 Centers, middle, and special education centers during regular school days throughout the School District.<sup>5</sup>

There are currently five delivery systems for before/after-school care programs. They are (1) community school-operated sites supervised by the assistant principal for community education, and under the direction of the site principal; (2) principal-operated program; (3) agency-operated programs; (4) after care programs that are part of a city compact; and (5) after care programs that are free and part of a grant. Delivery systems 4 and 5 were added in 2012.

In the agency-operated delivery system, the District enters into an affiliating agreement with outside agencies that are approved by the School Board to operate before and/or after-school programs. These outside agencies were selected and approved via an RFP process where the outside agencies had to demonstrate that they met certain minimum qualifications, including state licensing and certifications. By virtue of this process and the resulting affiliating agreement, the outside agency is required to adhere to all M-DCPS policies and procedures. Only those agencies that were selected via the RFP, and approved by the School Board, may provide agency-operated programs regardless of whether or not a student fee is charged. Section VI of this report explains the RFPs that were issued in 2007 and 2010.

requirements are met. In Miami-Dade County, child care programs are licensed by DCF.<sup>9</sup>

Florida Statutes defines Child Care as “the care, protection, and supervision of a child, for a period of less than 24 hours a day on a regular basis, which supplements parental care, enrichment, and health supervision for the child, in accordance with his or her individual needs, and for which a payment, fee, or grant is made for care.”<sup>10</sup>

DCF further defines a Before-School and After-School Site as “a program, regardless of location, that provides child care for children who are at least five years old and are enrolled in and attend a kindergarten program or grades one and above during a school district’s academic calendar year. This is limited to programs that provide care only before and after the recognized hours of a district’s school day and on teacher planning days, holidays, and intercessions that occur during the school district’s official academic calendar year.”<sup>11</sup>

The Jessica Lunsford Act of 2005 imposed a Level 2 Background Screening requirement on contractors who perform work on Florida public school property. A Level 2 Background Screening involves a fingerprint-based, national criminal history check. (See Section 1012.32(2)(d), Fla. Stat.). Sections 1012.465 – 1012.468 describes which contracted personnel require background screenings, and under what circumstances background screenings may be exempt.

of the School Board, Dr. Karp sets School District policy and votes on the appointment of a Superintendent, who in turn selects administrators to head the administrative divisions and carry out School Board Policies. Other Key M-DCPS Administrators

In the course of this investigation, the OIG interviewed several M-DCPS administrators whose job responsibilities included the processing, review, and approval (or supervision thereof) of the aforementioned Temporary Use Agreements and fee waivers. These individuals included: Jose Bueno, North Region Superintendent; Luis E. Diaz, Assistant Superintendent, School Operations; Sally J. Alayon, former Administrative Director, North Region Office;<sup>15</sup> Ron Steiger, Chief Financial Officer; and Keisha Johnson Cabrera, Director of Office of Budget Maintenance, Maintenance and District Facility Rentals. In relation to the M-DCPS Before and After-School Care Program, the OIG interviewed Victor Ferrante, Executive Director, Office of Community Education and Before/After School Programs. Mr. Ferrante has been responsible for these programs since 2007.

V. INVESTIGATIVE METHODOLOGY

During the course of the investigation, the OIG interviewed M-DCPS school site administrators and other M-DCPS officials, as identified above. The OIG also interviewed the President of Chabad Chayil; Administrators at The Children's Trust; and the Southern Regional Safety Program Manager, DCF. The OIG reviewed M-DCPS documents including the Temporary Use Agreements and Fee Waivers that are described throughout this report, M-DCPS email correspondence, and documents related to the annual selection of Before and After-School Care Providers. The OIG also reviewed applications and contracts between The Children's Trust and Chabad Chayil, DCF licensure applications and facility inspection reports, and background screening verifications received from DCF and Chabad Chayil. Additionally, after receiving the responses, the OIG re-interviewed DCF employees, The Children's Trust staff, and spoke with staff at the Florida Department of Law Enforcement.

Chabad Chayil After-School Care Program

---

This investigation was conducted in accordance with the Principles and Standards of Offices of Inspector General, Quality Standards for Investigation, as promulgated by the Association of Inspectors General.

VI. INVESTIGATIVE FINDINGS

The OIG investigative findings in this case are presented as five distinct issues. The first two involve allegations contained in the complaint: Chabad Chayil's misrepresentations that no funds were collected, which resulted in facility fee waivers, and staff being pressured into approving the Temporary Use Agreements and fee waivers. Three additional issues came to our attention during the course of this investigation. These three matters involved the inappropriate use and approval of the Temporary Use Agreement that allowed Chabad Chayil to gain access to school facilities to operate its after-school care program; Chabad Chayil's operation of its after-school care programs without the state required license; and Chabad Chayil's failure to obtain the required identification badges and background screenings for its employees in compliance with the Jessica Lunsford Act.

A. Initial Allegation: Chabad Chayil's misrepresentations resulted in free use of school facilities.

The OIG investigation substantiated the allegations that Chabad Chayil—through its President, Rabbi Moishe Kievman—misrepresented on its application for Temporary Use Agreement that the “meetings” were free of charge and open to the public, and no admission or collection would be taken. The investigation determined that Chabad Chayil had been charging fees all along. Chabad Chayil's misrepresentations, over the past nine years, allowed them to gain access to school facilities for free to operate its fee-based Community Hebrew Afterschool Care Program a/k/a CHAP at Aventura Waterways since 2008 and VABHOE since 2016. These misrepresentations resulted in facility fee waivers totaling approximately $1.3 million.

Since 2008, Chabad Chayil has been submitting, on an annual basis, a formal application for Temporary Use Agreement for Aventura Waterways, and since 2016 for VABHOE. The application asks whether the “meeting is free and open to the public.” Each application was answered in the affirmative. In addition each application asks whether “an admission/collection will be collected.” Each application was answered in the negative.

These Temporary Use Agreements were approved by Mr. Bello, the former principal of Aventura Waterways, and Mr. Saperstein, the former principal of VABHOE, as well as the Superintendent, through his designee. Along with the Temporary Use Agreements, Mr. Bello and Mr. Saperstein annually approved and submitted a request for fee waiver, on behalf of Chabad Chayil. These fee waivers were all ultimately approved by the Region Superintendent and by the Deputy Superintendent for School Operations.

However, Chabad Chayil did not qualify for fee waivers because it charged the public for its services. School administrators confirmed that fee waivers are only approved if an organization is not charging any fees to the public when using school facilities under a Temporary Use Agreement. The OIG investigation revealed that year after year, even as recently as July 2018, Chabad Chayil did charge registration fees, monthly fees, and other ancillary fees for its after-school care programs.<sup>17</sup> The OIG investigation found credible evidence from numerous sources all demonstrating that Chabad Chayil's program was not free of charge. These sources include Chabad Chayil's own statements submitted to other public agencies that it charges program fees, registration forms posted on its own website, and testimonials from parents.

The most blatant evidence the OIG obtained showing Rabbi Kievman's misrepresentations is Chabad Chayil's grant application and contracts with The Children's Trust. In Chabad Chayil's initial application in 2014 followed by three subsequent contracts, Rabbi Kievman asserted that Chabad Chayil charges registration fees of $100 and weekly fees per child beginning at $0 up to $159. OIG Special Agents compared The Children's Trust Application and contracts to the Temporary Use Agreement applications. The Children's Trust application and contracts for fiscal years 2014-15, 2015-16, 2016-17, and 2017-18 all indicate registration fees and weekly fees, while the Temporary Use Agreement consistently indicates "free of charge." (See attached OIG SCHEDULE B - Comparison of Information Chabad Chayil Provided to The Children's Trust and M-DCPS.)

In an interview with OIG Special Agents, Rabbi Kievman insisted that Chabad Chayil did not charge any fees for the after-school care program itself and the program was funded through member donations and a grant from The Children's Trust.<sup>18</sup> He stated that the only charge to program participants is for snacks and religious books. When confronted with the fees displayed in The Children's Trust application and contracts, Rabbi Kievman stated that The Children's Trust required him to use the terms "fees" and "tuition." He claimed he used it solely to satisfy the grant application process but that they did not charge to participate in the after-school programs.

The OIG interviewed The Children's Trust Contract Manager in response to Rabbi Kievman's statement. He was asked if anyone at The Children's Trust had instructed Rabbi Kievman or any representative of Chabad Chayil to use the words "fees" or

<sup>17</sup> Beginning in 2017-18 School Year, Budget/Facility Rentals denied the fee waivers and invoiced Chabad Chayil for use of Aventura Waterways and VABHOE facilities, however, shortly thereafter the invoices were suspended and the fee waivers for 2018-19 were approved pending the OIG investigation. At the beginning of School Year 2019-20, Chabad Chayil did not receive approval from the School District to operate its after-school care program at Aventura Waterways and VABHOE.

<sup>18</sup> It should be noted that Chabad Chayil did not have any grants from The Children's Trust prior to 2014.

“tuition” on the application. The Contract Manager stated that these terms are not required, and The Children’s Trust does not dictate words to be used for submission of an application. Applicants are free to write down whatever they choose, and they do not have to charge anything or can just use “$0” entry on the application.

Beyond The Children’s Trust grant applications, the OIG obtained various articles and testimonials on the internet that conclusively show that Chabad Chayil’s after-school care program is not free of charge. First, in an article in Miami’s Community Newspapers posted on March 31, 2011, the last sentence of the second paragraph of the article states Chabad Chayil charges a “nominal fee.” (See Figure 1 below and EXHIBIT 3 for the complete article.)

Chabad is now running the program for the third year out of the Aventura Waterways K-8 Center in Highland Lakes, Monday-Friday from 3:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Pre- and after-Hebrew school programs including homework help, tutoring and music are available from 1:30 to 3:00 & 4:30-6:00 p.m. for a nominal fee.

"The program provides a variety of educational activities in a fun environment and it is very affordable. My child is enjoying learning Hebrew, arts and crafts, games, martial arts, and listening to Jewish stories during story time. This program is a great asset to our child's Jewish enrichment as well as education."

In addition to this publication and the testimonials, OIG Special Agents obtained copies of an email from Rabbi Kievman to M-DCPS Budget/Facility Rentals staff. At the bottom of the Rabbi’s email, it states that CHAP, the after-school program, is “as low as $39 per month.” (See Figure 3 on the next page.)

OMG> Community Hebrew After-school Program As low as $39 per month! HebrewSchool.info
Leave a Jewish Legacy! Please remember Chabad Chayil in your will.

In a Child Care Licensure Questionnaire completed by a Chabad Chayil employee, dated October 7, 2014, and submitted to DCF on or shortly thereafter, there are indications that Chabad Chayil charged fees and tuition. In that Questionnaire, in the response to question number 8, which asks how the program is funded, both “Grant” and “Receipt of fee or tuition” are checked off. (EXHIBIT 4)

The OIG also obtained different versions of Chabad Chayil's own Registration Forms including the 2008-09, 2009-10, 2014-15 and 2018-19 School Year versions. (See COMPOSITE EXHIBIT 5 for a compilation of Registration Forms.) In 2008-09, per its Registration Form, Chabad Chayil charged $695 a year, including snacks and drinks, with a 10% discount ($625) for an additional sibling. For 2009-10, the Registration Form shows Chabad Chayil increased the fees by adding a $70 registration and book fee. The annual tuition for both one child and additional sibling remained the same as the previous year. For the 2014-15 School Year, see Figure 4 on the next page, the Registration Form shows Chabad Chayil raised its registration and book fees to $100, Security and snacks $39 a month, Story Hour for K-1 $100 a month, and Extended After-Care (Homework) for K-8 $120 a month.

Further, Chabad Chayil’s website contained a Projected Operational Budget for “Fiscal Year 2017.” The budget shows a projected income of $377,312 for CHAP. The details for CHAP shows a line item for income in the amount of $20,000 for “Registration Fee.” (EXHIBIT 6)

It should be noted that after the OIG investigation began, the Registration Form on Chabad Chayil’s website was changed—it no longer shows monthly tuition or registration fees. On March 11, 2019, the OIG obtained the Registration Form from the website for the 2018-19 School Year. In this Registration Form the “Registration Fee” has been removed and replaced with “Books & Supplies” and increased from $100 to $125. It now includes a “Suggested Monthly Donation,” $10 for “Late Pickup,” and $130 for transportation instead of the monthly tuition and extras.

Every School District Administrator interviewed by the OIG, stated that if the organization charges anything, it would be required to pay for the use of the facilities. Accordingly, the OIG Special Agents asked why Chabad Chayil was approved for fee waivers when it clearly charged fees for students attending its after-school care program. Mr. Bello, principal of Aventura Waterways during the period covered under this investigation, stated that he was not aware that Chabad Chayil charged any fees; he always thought that the program was free. Additionally, Mr. Bello stated he relied on the budget office’s “approval.” Mr. Saperstein, the principal of VABHOE during the period covered by this investigation, also believed Chabad Chayil was free of charge, but he also relied on the fact that it had been approved at Aventura Waterways for many years.

OIG FINAL REPORT OF INVESTIGATION

Chabad Chayil After-School Care Program

Keisha Johnson Cabrera, Director, Budget/Facility Rentals and her former direct supervisor, Ron Steiger, as well as other School District administrators, all stated that they rely on the applicants' self-reported information to approve fee waivers.<sup>20</sup> Ms. Cabrera and Mr. Steiger stated that they do not have enough staff to verify all the forms submitted to their department. If the applicant states in the application that they do not charge fees, they take it at face value; no one verifies whether it is true or not. Mr. Steiger stated that if they later find out that the organization lied, staff will no longer allow the organization to use school facilities.

The OIG requested an estimated value for the facilities used by Chabad Chayil to operate its after-school care program at Aventura Waterways and VABHOE. Table 1 below shows the value of the fee waivers (as estimated by M-DCPS Office of Budget Management, Maintenance and District Facility Rentals), which totals approximately $1.3 million over nine years.

Year after year, Rabbi Kievman, on behalf of Chabad Chayil, made false representations on the Temporary Use Agreements provided to M-DCPS claiming that it did not charge any fees for its after-school care program, when in reality it did.<sup>21</sup> These misrepresentations started in 2008—and continued every school year thereafter to the present—resulting in fee waivers estimated at over $1.3 million.

<sup>20</sup> The previous Director, Cheryl Nasai, was also interviewed and stated they always relied on the applicants self-reporting. Only if they received a “tip” did they question the applications.

Chabad Chayil After-School Care Program

B. Initial Allegation: Staff felt pressure to approve the Temporary Use Agreements and Fee Waivers.

The OIG investigation also substantiated the allegation that School Board Member Karp's Office aided Chabad Chayil in gaining free use of school facilities to operate its after-school care program at Aventura Waterways (since 2008) and at VABHOE (since 2016). The OIG investigation revealed that Dr. Karp did not directly coerce the principals of the schools or M-DCPS administrators, as alleged, however, Mr. Blumstein, Dr. Karp's Chief of Staff, aggressively worked to make sure that the Temporary Use Agreements and fee waivers were approved annually.

Interview of Luis Bello, Former Principal of Aventura Waterways

Mr. Bello was the inaugural principal of Aventura Waterways when the school opened in 2008. In 2018, he was promoted to Region Administrative Director of the North Region. Mr. Bello stated that although he ran a Principal-Operated After-School Care Program, he allowed Chabad Chayil to use Aventura Waterways' facilities for free to house its after-school care program. It was his understanding that Chabad Chayil did not charge anything for the program and he approved the Temporary Use Agreements and fee waivers for approximately nine years. Mr. Bello admitted to the OIG that he felt pressured by Mr. Blumstein on numerous occasions.

Mr. Bello initially met Rabbi Kievman and his wife during the summer of 2008, prior to the commencement of Aventura Waterways' 2008-09 inaugural school year. That initial meeting took place at the behest of Dr. Karp. Dr. Karp told Mr. Bello that Chabad Chayil was an organization that "provided a service to the community," and he requested that Mr. Bello meet with Rabbi Kievman. Mr. Bello further stated that although Dr. Karp did not openly "twist his arm" to accept Chabad Chayil, he felt he was expected to make it happen. It was his understanding that it was something desired by the School Board Member.

Mr. Bello stated that after the initial meeting with Dr. Karp, the bulk of his contact throughout the years took place directly with Mr. Blumstein, who would personally deliver Chabad Chayil's Temporary Use Agreements and fee waivers for Mr. Bello to sign. Mr. Bello stated that Mr. Blumstein would occasionally call him to check on the status of the approvals. Mr. Bello explained to the OIG that his approving the Temporary Use Agreement and fee waivers annually was something that just "needed to happen." He did not question Mr. Blumstein's motives or actions, because he felt there was "no point to do so." He then added that he felt "it was something that they [Dr. Karp and Mr. Blumstein] wanted and more than likely it was going to happen no matter what."

Chabad Chayil After-School Care Program

Mr. Bello admitted there were instances when he felt reluctant to approve the Temporary Use Agreement and fee waivers submitted on behalf of Chabad Chayil. Mr. Bello said that on several occasions he informed Rabbi Kievman and members of his staff that they were leaving classrooms in a messy condition including disarranging teacher's supplies and class documents, eating in classrooms, playing with classroom computers and destroying classroom items. According to Mr. Bello, Chabad Chayil's staff members were not responsive to his requests and as a result he would hesitate to approve the Temporary Use Agreement and fee waiver. No sooner did he air his grievances he received a telephone call from Mr. Blumstein telling him "this organization has been here for a while so look at it and approve it."

Interviews of Keisha Johnson Cabrera, Director of Budget/Facility Rentals

Ms. Cabrera assumed the position of Director of Budget/Facility Rentals in 2015.<sup>22</sup> Her job responsibilities include receipt and processing of all requests to rent M-DCPS facilities by outside organizations. According to Ms. Cabrera, her responsibilities do not include approval of the fee waivers, only concurrence between her office, the School Principal, Region Superintendent and School Operations.<sup>23</sup>

Ms. Cabrera confirmed that Chabad Chayil has received fee waivers for all the years that they have been at Aventura Waterways and VABHOE. The only fee paid by Chabad Chayil has been the $25 processing fee for each application. Ms. Cabrera also stated that she received the fee waiver forms directly from Mr. Blumstein, until the OIG investigation commenced. Ms. Cabrera stated in her first interview that she felt pressured when meeting Mr. Blumstein because he represented a School Board Member, but he never specifically told her that it had to be approved. In a subsequent interview, she admitted to OIG Special Agents that Mr. Blumstein threatened to go to her boss after she questioned Rabbi Kievman about Chabad Chayil charging program fees and thus not qualifying for a waiver of the facilities fee. Ms. Cabrera expressed to the OIG that she is fearful of losing her job for having admitted that she felt threatened and pressured by Mr. Blumstein.

The OIG reviewed email correspondence with Ms. Cabrera that indicated her office was aware that Chabad Chayil charged attendance fees for its after-school program. Ms. Cabrera then produced additional documentation between her office and Chabad <sup>22</sup> During the course of this investigation, the OIG also interviewed Cheryl Nasai, former Director of Facility Rentals, who was replaced by Ms. Cabrera when Ms. Nasai retired in 2015. Ms. Nasai could not recall any organization by the name Chabad Chayil, let alone whether it received a fee waiver. Ms. Nasai, additionally, stated that she was never pressured by Dr. Karp or Mr. Blumstein to approve any organization.

<sup>23</sup> Mr. Steiger when asked what "concurrence" means, stated that his office basically has veto powers over the fee waivers.

Chayil, concerning the approval of Temporary Use Agreements and fee waivers.<sup>24</sup> Emails from Rabbi Kievman included an automatic advertisement published at the bottom of each message (see Figure 3 on page 12) that proclaimed that the after-school care program started “as low as $39 per month.” Ms. Cabrera recalled her staff bringing the emails to her attention declaring “how could they submit a request for fee waiver when they were charging a $39 fee?” She and her staff then went on to the Chabad Chayil website and found a copy of an application for after-school care, which clearly identified the existence of a fee. She then called Rabbi Kievman requesting he explain the program’s fee structure. Rabbi Kievman became upset and told her they did not charge everyone, before terminating their conversation.

Ms. Cabrera stated that the day after her conversation with Rabbi Kievman, Mr. Blumstein came to see her. Mr. Blumstein asked her, “what is it you need,” “why are you giving them a hard time; they’ve been there all this time and there has never been a problem before, why is it now?” She felt Mr. Blumstein was implying she was not doing her job correctly. She stated that during the conversation Mr. Blumstein reminded her several times that Rabbi Kievman was a constituent of Dr. Karp and Dr. Karp would not be happy. When she informed Mr. Blumstein of her findings, he abruptly informed her he would go over her head to her boss, Ron Steiger.

When asked by the OIG if she discussed this matter with Mr. Steiger, she stated yes. While not recalling specifically what Mr. Steiger told her, she explained to the OIG that Mr. Steiger must have instructed her to continue accepting the fee waiver forms on behalf of Chabad Chayil because at that point, she “would not” have done it on her own. She then clarified that if an organization does not meet the criteria for a fee waiver then she would “stop” it right then and there. But because Chabad Chayil continued receiving the fee waivers, it meant that she was instructed by her superiors not to object. Ms. Cabrera stated that when Mr. Blumstein did not agree with her, he would routinely go over her head and meet with Mr. Steiger. She stated she was not privy to any conversations that might have taken place between them, but Mr. Blumstein was the catalyst in this entire process as it related to Chabad Chayil.

She also recalled having conversations with Mr. Bello, who informed her he was not happy with the way Chabad Chayil would leave their classrooms. Mr. Bello informed her that his teachers were constantly complaining about Chabad Chayil students leaving garbage all over the classrooms. She said Mr. Bello told her that even if he wanted to deny Chabad Chayil use of his facility, he felt pressured to allow them continued use, because Mr. Blumstein would bring him the documents and tell him to sign them.

Ms. Cabrera was shown an email from Mr. Blumstein, dated June 20, 2016, and asked if she considered the email a request that could be rejected or an order. Ms. Cabrera responded that she considered it a “direct order.” (See Figure 5, below, Figure 6, on the next page, which are excerpts of the email thread and see EXHIBIT 7 for the entire email thread.) This email thread coincidentally contains a communication from Mr. Blumstein to Mr. Bello and Sally Alayon, the former Administrative Director, North Region Office, instructing Ms. Alayon that if Mr. Bello is not available to sign the fee waiver “the region can sign off for him.” It should be noted that this email was also sent to Dr. Karp’s Administrative Assistant, Administrative Assistant to Cabinet Member School Operations, and the Secretary/Treasurer of Aventura Waterways.

Ms. Cabrera stated that everyone felt pressured regarding Chabad Chayil fee waivers. She clarified that although Mr. Blumstein always used Dr. Karp's name, she never spoke to Dr. Karp.

Interview of Ron Steiger

Mr. Steiger could not recall having a conversation with Ms. Cabrera, sometime in 2015, about Chabad Chayil charging program fees or whether it was entitled to an M-DCPS facilities fee waiver. Mr. Steiger states that the first time he heard of Chabad Chayil was shortly prior to his initial interview with OIG Special Agents. Furthermore, Mr. Steiger stated that although he has met with Mr. Blumstein on a host of issues over the years, he could not recall meeting with him regarding Chabad Chayil.

While not recalling a specific conversation about Chabad Chayil, Mr. Steiger did tell the OIG that Ms. Cabrera has come to see him several times about Mr. Blumstein's aggressive approach with her and her discomfort with him trying to make her do things. Mr. Steiger told the OIG that he made it clear to Ms. Cabrera that Mr. Blumstein could not make her do anything and that she should instruct Mr. Blumstein to go see him (Steiger) if he had a problem. Mr. Steiger also instructed Ms. Cabrera not to do anything she didn't think was right and to inform Mr. Blumstein that she was responding under Mr. Steiger's authority.

Mr. Steiger did recall that at some point he had a conversation with Mr. Blumstein and told him not to go to Ms. Cabrera any longer on rental issues. Mr. Steiger also recalled telling Mr. Blumstein that he could help his constituents, but he should not be the one coming in and doing things on their behalf.

Interview of Mr. Saperstein, Former Principal of VABHOE and Former Assistant Principal of Aventura Waterways.

Mr. Saperstein stated that while he was at Aventura Waterways, Mr. Blumstein would come by and he would “communicate” with him when Mr. Bello was not on campus. He does not recall if Mr. Blumstein ever dropped off the Temporary Use Agreements and fee waivers. However, he acknowledged that he met privately with Mr. Bello and brought up his concern that Chabad Chayil was not assessed facility charges. Mr. Saperstein stated that Mr. Bello told him that it was “something that was approved through the powers that be.” He did not recall Mr. Bello providing him with specific names and assumed Mr. Bello meant the individuals that had approved the Temporary Use Agreement and fee waivers.

Mr. Saperstein stated that when he became the principal at VABHOE, Rabbi Kievman periodically reached out to him and made a pitch for VABHOE classrooms; however, for the first several years he turned him down because of his prior experience and frustrations during his tenure at Aventura Waterways. He explained that he only approved Chabad Chayil’s after-school program beginning in the 2016-17 School Year, because parents started requesting the program. Prior to approving Chabad Chayil, he received verbal approval from Sally J. Alayon, the North Region Administrative Director.<sup>25</sup> Mr. Saperstein stated that Mr. Blumstein visited VABHOE on occasion, but neither he nor Dr. Karp ever directed him (Saperstein) to approve Chabad Chayil’s Temporary Use Agreement or fee waivers.<sup>26</sup>

Interview of Jerold Blumstein

Mr. Blumstein was informed by the OIG about the complaint received. Mr. Blumstein stated to the OIG that among his duties as Board Member Karp’s Chief of Staff, he fields inquiries from constituents regarding the use of M-DCPS facilities and provides them with M-DCPS contact information. He would then inform school site administrators about the inquiry. Mr. Blumstein stated he was familiar with Chabad <sup>25</sup> Mr. Bello and Mr. Saperstein reported directly to Ms. Alayon when she served as Administrative Director from April 2013 through July 2018. She was promoted in July 2018 to Assistant Superintendent.

<sup>26</sup> The OIG interviewed various other M-DCPS administrators whose responsibilities included approval of the Temporary Use Agreements and fee waivers. These administrators also stated that that they had never been approached or pressured by either Dr. Karp or Mr. Blumstein about the fee waivers or Temporary Use Agreements.

Chayil but other than assisting Rabbi Kievman with the applications for facility access, he had no affiliation with Chabad Chayil, was not a member of the Temple, and was not familiar with its operations.

Mr. Blumstein stated that he met with the principal of Aventura Waterways several years ago but did not recall specifics about the conversation. He felt it was simply a “heads-up” conversation to let them know about Chabad Chayil. He also mentioned the organization to the principal of VABHOE, but again only as a heads-up. Mr. Blumstein added that he always tries to assist everyone, but only with follow-up information.

Mr. Blumstein stated that he may have dropped off the forms for the use of school facilities at Budget/Facility Rentals on behalf of Chabad Chayil as he does for other organizations.<sup>27</sup> He went on to state it was not unusual for him to drop off forms or other items, but he would also inform those organizations of the proper channels for future submissions.

Mr. Blumstein stated that he was aware that Chabad Chayil received fee waivers for use of the facilities, but he was not familiar with any of the documentation. According to Mr. Blumstein, he would inform applicants that they could request a fee waiver, but only if they did not charge for their services. He was then asked to elaborate on his position if an applicant was denied a fee waiver request. Contrary to Ms. Cabrera’s statement, Mr. Blumstein stated that if an applicant was denied, he would not intervene on their behalf. If an applicant called him after being denied, he would suggest that they follow up to obtain an explanation. According to Mr. Blumstein, he would only get involved when an applicant/constituent was not getting an answer. In those cases, he would contact the deciding authorities and request they contact the applicant.

Interview of Dr. Martin Karp

Dr. Karp was informed of the complaint received by the OIG and promptly stated he was aware of the ongoing investigation and had spoken with Rabbi Kievman by telephone. Dr. Karp explained that he was not personally familiar with any of the forms and/or documents associated with gaining access to school facilities and/or receiving a fee waiver; any specific issues with documentation would be handled by Mr. Blumstein. Dr. Karp stated that his goal has always been to allow the community the opportunity to utilize M-DCPS facilities for activities if they did not conflict with the school day. He added he never discussed fees only the possibility of using the facilities. He reiterated he was not aware of M-DCPS’ facility rental fee structure, so he never broached the subject.

Dr. Karp stated that the extent of contact he had with school site administrators concerning requests from his constituents was limited to a simple “heads-up” telephone call. He said he might call a school principal and let them know he was approached by an organization and that he had provided their name (school administrator) and contact information for follow-up purposes. He was then asked if he had ever asked a principal to accept an organization at their facility. He stated he recognized how it could be misinterpreted as perceived pressure, but he wanted to make it clear that he operated with integrity. He said the extent of his calls were simply to relay contact information.

Dr. Karp was asked if it was possible that a staff member might misinterpret his comments concerning a constituent request and take it upon themselves to contact a school principal and ask them to accept an organization. He responded that he was hopeful that no one on his staff had ever done anything like that. He always tries to have staff members follow proper channels.

Specifically, as to Chabad Chayil, Dr. Karp stated that he was familiar with the organization because his children had participated in its after-school care program. He currently has one child participating in the program offered at VABHOE. He said his child was receiving tutoring with Spanish, Hebrew, Judaic studies and piano. Other than his children attending the after-school care program, Dr. Karp stated that he was neither a member nor affiliated with Chabad Chayil.

Dr. Karp was under the impression he paid fees for his son to attend the program but was not sure. He explained his wife might be better prepared to answer that question, and offered to call her. Dr. Karp then placed a telephone call to his wife, and the OIG was able to speak to her regarding this issue. Mrs. Karp told OIG Special Agents that payment for the program was donation based, but there were specific amounts requested for snacks. She believed they did charge a registration fee but could not remember the amount. Mrs. Karp was asked if there was a suggested donation amount. She said she registered her child in person but could not recall if there was a suggested donation amount. She did say they were set up to make monthly donations. She further advised there was a bus fee to transfer students from VABHOE to Aventura Waterways but was charged through a third-party transportation vendor.

Dr. Karp was asked if at any time he had ever met with School Administrators at Aventura Waterways, VABHOE or Dr. Michael M. Krop High School on behalf of Chabad Chayil and specifically requested they allow the use of their facilities for Chabad Chayil’s after-school care programs. He promptly replied he would never make that type of request. He did recall speaking with Mr. Bello of Aventura Waterways shortly after the school opened. He did not remember if he simply made an introduction or if he mentioned the organization to Mr. Bello. He said the program just recently started at VABHOE and is currently in its second year. Prior to that, Chabad Chayil was very active at school activities including their annual carnival.

Dr. Karp was asked if Chabad Chayil had ever requested he submit fee waiver forms to Budget/Facility Rentals. He reiterated he was not familiar with the forms utilized for this purpose and if asked he would not have done so; however, his assistant, Mr. Blumstein, has on occasion delivered these types of forms on behalf of many organizations within his district. He added that Mr. Blumstein performed this function as a service to his (District 3's) constituents.

C. OIG Identified Concern: Temporary Use Agreements should not have been used to authorize any organization to operate an after-school care program, as this circumvented established School Board-approved procedures.

For the past decade, school administrators have been approving Chabad Chayil's use of school facilities to run its after-school care program at Aventura Waterways and VABHOE even though the Temporary Use Agreement is not the right vehicle to allow an organization to gain access to those facilities for this purpose. The School District has an established process to vet organizations wishing to provide after-school care programs. That process—a Request for Proposals for eligible outside-agencies—was ignored by all parties. Instead, Chabad Chayil approached school administrators annually requesting daily access to school facilities by submitting an application for a Temporary Use Agreement. School administrators allowed Chabad Chayil to annually circumvent the District's established process and gave Chabad Chayil access to operate on school grounds using nothing but the Temporary Use Agreement, thereby allowing an unauthorized, unlicensed, and unsupervised entity, to provide its CHAP program to children for years. This could have been avoided if this matter had been directed, from the beginning, to M-DCPS' established Office of Community Education and Before/After School Programs, as it was supposed to be.

Victor Ferrante has been the Executive Director of the Office of Community Education and Before/After School Programs since 2007. His responsibilities include ensuring that M-DCPS provides appropriate before and after-school programs and making sure that the providers are appropriately licensed and certified. When asked about the Temporary Use Agreement and its appropriateness as a means to provide after-school care program services, Mr. Ferrante stated that the Agreement should only be used for individuals and entities seeking access to a facility for a day, a weekend or mix use during a week but not for an extended period of time—and definitely not for daily use, Monday through Friday during the school year.<sup>28</sup>

In fact, on July 24, 2008, Mr. Ferrante sent a Weekly Briefing (Briefing ID#:4468) to all Principals and Assistant Principals on this issue.<sup>29</sup> (EXHIBIT 8) This briefing specifically “cautioned” all, that the Temporary Use Agreement “is not designed for after-school programs that come in direct contact with M-DCPS students.” The Temporary Use Agreement “does not comply with the background screening requirements that are mandatory when exposing our students to outside organizations whose members are in direct contact with M-DCPS students and are on School Board property.”

On the other hand, the Briefing instructed that Affiliating Agreement Form 6103 (Addendum Form 6918) is the correct form that should be utilized by principals for choosing Community Based Organizations and other outside entities to provide (or enhance) after-school care programs. The Briefing went on to explain that these processes enforce District compliance with the Jessica Lunsford Act. Last, the Briefing named the five program providers that were recently approved by the School Board to operate after-school care program services at the schools.

Mr. Ferrante explained that in 2007, and again in 2010, M-DCPS initiated an RFP to qualify and select providers to operate after-school care program services. Mr. Ferrante told the OIG that he was involved in drafting the RFPs and was a member of the selection committees. Chabad Chayil did not respond to either RFP and, as such, was not eligible to provide after-school care programs. Each RFP was clear as to the requirements each provider must meet in order to provide services and interact with children.

RFP No. 024-GG10 (2007) – *Eligibility for Offering Before and/or After-School Childcare Onsite Services for Elementary Schools and Exceptional School Children Center

The RFP, in essence, established a prequalification pool of organizations desiring to provide before and after-school care services. Page two of the RFP states that “...multiple award[s] [to five entities] will be made in order to provide a pool of qualified providers. All student fees are to be collected and paid directly to the provider by the parent or guardian. Only providers approved as a qualified provider will be authorized to offer services.”

During the RFP process two questions were asked by potential proposers that are extremely relevant to the issues of this case. In response to both questions, the answer was quite clear. Only before/after-school care providers authorized by the School Board pursuant to this RFP may operate programs regardless of whether they charge a fee. The text of the questions and answers follow below:<sup>30</sup>

QUESTION: Our agency is currently providing grant-funded after-school programs at two M-DCPS elementary schools, where no fees are charged to parents, and has provided after-school services at a number of M-DCPS schools over the past decade. Are we still permitted to offer such services at MDCPS schools if we are not selected as one of the top five rated proposers to the above referenced RFP?

RESPONSE: Only providers approved as a qualified provider by the Selection Committee will be authorized to offer services to the School Board. The primary Before/After School Care provider must be one of the five selected.

QUESTION: Will other agencies, besides the top 5 rated proposers selected in relation to the above referenced RFP, continue to be able to provide after-school services at M-DCPS elementary schools at the discretion of the principal?

RESPONSE: No. The primary Before/After School Care provider must be one of the five selected.

The RFP contained minimum criteria that each organization had to meet in order to be prequalified and approved.<sup>31</sup> The organization was required to have “at least three years within the past five years of experience operating as a provider of school-aged childcare for programs with a minimum of five sites and a minimum total enrollment of 500 students.” The proposer was also required to provide a copy of the lease agreement contract or proof of ownership for each program site they claimed.

Individual school principals (K-8) could select from the providers that had been approved by the School Board. Upon selection by a school principal, the organization would be required to enter into an Affiliating Agreement for that particular school and the providers’ staff would be required to obtain “Level 2 Screening clearance through M-DCPS, before the employee is to provide any service at a school site.” Another important condition included in the RFP, is that all instructors and activity leaders be state certified, or “show evidence of being enrolled in a 45 hour child care certification program within the first 90 days of being hired and completion of the program within the first year of employment.” Finally, all providers must obtain a Florida Department of Children and Families (DCF), Child Day Care Facility License for each school site where it operates.

This RFP solicitation generated six proposers; five organizations were selected and recommended for approval.<sup>32</sup> The School Board unanimously approved the five organizations in July 2007.<sup>33</sup> Chabad Chayil did not participate in the RFP and, as such, was not an authorized provider of before/after-school care program services.

RFP No. 050-KK10 (2010) – *Eligibility for Offering On-Site and Fee-Based Before and/or After School Child-Care Services for Elementary Schools, Middle Schools, and Centers for Special Education

Before the expiration of RFP 024-GG10, in order to continue a successful transition and encourage additional community participation, the School Board initiated a new RFP process to establish a new pool of eligible after-school care program providers. As in the previous RFP, all proposers were expected to meet “Minimum Eligibility Requirements” in order to be considered for award, and, once selected, comply with the “Scope of Service,” and special conditions. These requirements, scope of service, and special conditions—including licensing and state certification requirements—were the same as in the first RFP.

Of the eleven proposers responding to the RFP, only seven met the minimum eligibility requirements and were recommended for approval.<sup>34</sup> On August 4, 2010, the School Board approved the award of contracts to the seven recommended proposers.<sup>35</sup> These seven providers have been providing before and/or after school care services to M-DCPS since 2010 to the present<sup>36</sup> and, on an annual basis, they sign an Affiliating Agreement with M-DCPS for each school site where services are provided. Chabad Chayil did not participate in the RFP and, as such, was not an authorized provider of before and/or after-school care program services.

Shortly after the selection of the service providers under the first RFP, Freddie Woodson, Associate Superintendent of School Operations, sent an official memorandum dated July 17, 2007, to all Elementary School Principals, all K-8 Center Principals, all Regional Superintendents, Assistant Principals for Community Education, and program staff.<sup>37</sup> (EXHIBIT 10) This memorandum explained the “program delivery systems for before and after-school programs.” Furthermore, it instructed all principals who have before and/or after-school programs to choose a delivery system, and, most importantly, it instructed them to call Mr. Ferrante with any questions. In 2010, after the conclusion of the successor RFP, a similar memorandum was distributed to principals by Mr. Ferrante. (EXHIBIT 11)

Beginning with the 2007-2008 school year, Mr. Ferrante’s office has been providing all elementary school principals, all K-8 Centers, and middle school principals with a Principal Selection Form annually, prior to the start of the school year. This form instructs the principals to choose a delivery system that best meets their needs for their school site. The three delivery systems available, until 2012, were:

1. Community School-Operated After School Care Program
2. Principal-Operated After School Care Program
3. Agency-Operated After School Care Program

Beginning in the 2012-2013 School Year, Mr. Ferrante added two more options for principals to select:

4. An after-school care program that is free and part of a grant funded program
5. An after-school care program that is part of a city compact

Not only was the Principal Selection Form supplied to all elementary school, K-8 Center, and middle school principals annually, Mr. Ferrante required that the principals provide a response. Mr. Ferrante told the OIG that he had no idea that Chabad Chayil was operating after-school care programs at Aventura Waterways and VABHOE, let alone that it had gained access to the facilities via a Temporary Use Agreement. It should be noted that Principal Bello responded to the Principal Selection Form every year and selected the Principal-Operated After-School Care Program for Aventura Waterways. Nowhere on the returned form did he disclose that Chabad Chayil was also operating an after-school care program at Aventura Waterways. Likewise, for the years in question, Principals Saperstein and Fong responded to this form selecting the Principal-Operated After-School Care Program for VABHOE. They too neglected to disclose that Chabad Chayil was also operating an after-school care program at their school. (COMPOSITE EXHIBIT 12)

During the OIG interview of Mr. Bello, he claimed he was not aware of the existence of the RFPs or that there were only five School Board approved outside agencies authorized to provide after-school care programs in or around 2008 when Chabad Chayil first began operating its CHAP program at Aventura Waterways. According to Mr. Bello, he thought any organization could come in and use the facilities so long as the Temporary Use Agreement was approved. He compared Chabad Chayil's use of the facilities to other organizations that used the school facilities for periods of six to eight weeks. Mr. Bello was reminded that the Temporary Use Agreement was intended for periods not exceeding six to eight weeks and asked why he used it for 9 years. Mr. Bello responded that he believed that because they applied every year it "constituted temporary use."

Mr. Bello was shown a copy of the July 2007 memorandum with the attached Before and After-School Provider Selection Sheet. Mr. Bello was further provided with a copy of a second memorandum dated August 5, 2010, associated with the approval of RFP 050-KK10. Similar to the 2007 memorandum, it identified the Board approved providers and included the 2010-2011 Principal Selection Form.<sup>38</sup> Mr. Bello explained to the OIG that notwithstanding those memoranda and the accompanying selection forms, he did not feel that Chabad Chayil was "in the same ballpark" as the other approved providers of before/after-school care services. To him, the RFP authorized providers were approved for use districtwide, whereas he saw Chabad Chayil as a "mom and pop" organization that was just renting a facility—of course, rent free. Mr. Bello admitted never contacting Mr. Ferrante for guidance or clarification concerning the RFPs or the use of his facilities by Chabad Chayil.

Mr. Bello stated to OIG Special Agents that not once in the ten years did anyone from the Budget/Facility Rentals Office ever question the continual use of the Temporary Use Agreement. Additionally, according to Mr. Bello, no one informed him that Chabad Chayil was not properly licensed. Mr. Bello stated that he felt it was the responsibility of Budget/Facility Rentals to follow up on this document and verify their eligibility. Mr. Bello also opined that it should have been made clear that only Board approved outside agencies (approved as part of the RFP process) could provide before and after-school care services.

The OIG Special Agents also interviewed Mr. Saperstein regarding the after-school care programs at VABHOE. Mr. Saperstein noted that VABHOE has its own Principal-Operated After-School Program. When he was approached about Chabad Chayil gaining access to VABHOE's classrooms to operate its program via annual application using the Temporary Use Agreement, he didn't think anything of it as Chabad Chayil was already at Aventura Waterways. Mr. Saperstein stated that because the form and facilities fee waiver were annually approved by his higher-ups, he did not question the validity of the arrangement. He stated that their approval reassured him everything was properly completed.

Mr. Diaz, the Assistant Superintendent for Operations who signed off on the Temporary Use Agreements for Aventura Waterways and VABHOE, was also asked by the OIG about the continual use of this application. He acknowledged that this had been an ongoing request year after year but stated that he was not aware of any other mechanism available for this type of request. He also opined that there should have been a better way to address this matter. When interviewed a second time concerning the RFPs for after-school care programs, Mr. Diaz acknowledged that after-school care programs fall under the immediate supervision of Victor Ferrante, but he had not consulted Mr. Ferrante on Chabad Chayil's annual applications.

Finally, the OIG Special Agents interviewed Mr. Steiger on the continued use of the Temporary Use Agreement by Chabad Chayil to operate its after-school programs. Mr. Steiger acknowledged that it should not have been allowed—regardless of whether the facilities use fee was waived. Mr. Steiger stated that he was not around when this originally took place, but, if he had to guess, Chabad Chayil possibly started with one classroom at one school and it eventually grew. But as an organization, M-DCPS should have recognized, as soon as they started to expand, that the Temporary Use Agreement was no longer appropriate or legitimate.

As previously mentioned, Chabad Chayil did not participate in either the 2007 or 2010 RFP. In fact, Chabad Chayil, at the time of the first and second solicitation, did not even meet the minimum criteria required to be selected as a provider of after-school care programs. First, Chabad Chayil did not have the required “three years within the past five years of experience operating as a provider of school aged childcare programs...” Chabad Chayil first came into existence in August 2006. Second, it did not operate a child care program in a “minimum of five sites with a minimum total enrollment of 500 students.” To this date, Chabad Chayil still does not meet the criteria required under the RFPs. Lastly—and most alarming—Chabad Chayil did not meet the licensing requirements under the RFP and State of Florida or the state certification of employees dealing with children. Had Principal Bello and other school administrators gone through the proper channels, i.e. the Office of Community Education and Before/After School Programs, Chabad Chayil would not have been allowed to bypass the District's established protocols and operate an unlicensed child care program.

D. OIG Identified Concern: Chabad Chayil operated its after-school care program from 2008 to 2018, without the state license required to operate a child care facility, in violation of Florida Statutes.

In Florida, every child care facility is required to have a state license that must be renewed annually. An after-school care program falls within the definition of a child care facility, and requires a license. Operating an after-school care program without a DCF license is a misdemeanor in the first degree.<sup>39</sup> Chabad Chayil operated its after-school care program at Aventura Waterways for over seven years without the required DCF license (from 2008 until August 27, 2015). Moreover, Chabad Chayil's after-school care program at VABHOE was also unlicensed from August 2016 to June 27, 2018, even though Rabbi Kievman was well aware that a license was required.

OIG Special Agents contacted DCF related to this line of inquiry. We learned that Chabad Chayil submitted a Child Care Licensure Questionnaire to DCF on October 7, 2014. (See EXHIBIT 4 referenced on page 12.) DCF reviewed and responded to the Questionnaire in a letter dated October 15, 2014, informing Chabad Chayil that its after-school care program met the definition of child care and required licensing. (EXHIBIT 13) Although Chabad Chayil was officially informed in October 2014 that a license was required, it continued to operate its after-school care program at Aventura Waterways (for the 2014-15 school year) without a license.

Almost a year later, on or about August 6, 2015, Chabad Chayil submitted an Application for a License to Operate a Child Care Facility to DCF. (EXHIBIT 14) Several days later, on August 12, 2015, Chabad Chayil had its initial DCF inspection, which it failed. The DCF inspection cited the following areas of noncompliance: (1) Chabad Chayil had previously failed a fire safety inspection by the local fire authority, which reflected outstanding fire safety violations, i.e. fire drills and emergency preparedness; (2) Chabad Chayil lacked the required staff credentials required under Florida Statutes; (3) none of Chabad Chayil's staff members possessed a current and valid certificate of course completion for infant and child cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR); and (4) Chabad Chayil had an expired first aid kit. (EXHIBIT 15)

Approximately two weeks later, Chabad Chayil's program at Aventura Waterways received a provisional license, and later passed its re-inspection in December 2015.<sup>40</sup> (EXHIBIT 16) Chabad Chayil is currently licensed to operate its after-school care program at Aventura Waterways through May 31, 2019.

Having been put on notice about DCF's licensure requirements, Chabad Chayil operated at VABHOE during the 2016-17 and 2017-18 school years without a license. Chabad Chayil filed its license application on February 5, 2018. Registered with DCF as "CHAP VABHOE," Chabad Chayil was initially inspected on April 17, 2018 and received its license on June 27, 2018. The CHAP VABHOE program was re-inspected on October 16, 2018. (EXHIBIT 17)

Being properly licensed was one of the "minimum requirements" of the RFPs. Since the RFPs issued by the Office of Community Education and Before/After School Programs were bypassed, Chabad Chayil's licensure status was never verified. And even though the Temporary Use Agreements disclosed that Chabad Chayil would be operating an after-school program, no one bothered to verify whether the organization met the State's requirements to actually do so.

<sup>40</sup> Chabad Chayil's provisional license authorized Chabad Chayil to operate Monday through Friday from 3:00pm to 6:00 pm. It is the OIG's understanding that Chabad Chayil operated from 1:30pm to 6pm at Aventura Waterways, in violation of its provisional license.

Mr. Bello, when asked, stated he had no idea that Chabad Chayil was not appropriately licensed by DCF and stated that no one ever informed him that they were not properly licensed. He admitted that he never bothered to check or inquire before approving the Temporary Use Agreements and fee waivers through the years. According to Mr. Bello, he never asked Chabad Chayil if they were properly licensed or certified, by DCF, to run an after-school care program. He stated that five or six years after Chabad Chayil had already been using the facilities, Rabbi Kievman informed him they were seeking DCF certification. He recalled Rabbi Kievman providing him with some forms to sign, but he never questioned him as to why they were seeking certification. He assumed it was something new. Mr. Bello never checked with DCF nor did he verify any of this information with Mr. Ferrante or anyone else in the Administration.

Similarly, when asked by the OIG, Mr. Saperstein also admitted that he never asked for proof from Chabad Chayil showing they were properly licensed through DCF. He stated that he had already established a relationship with Chabad Chayil while at Aventura Waterways, so he felt comfortable allowing them at VABHOE. According to Mr. Saperstein, he assumed Chabad Chayil had been cleared by the School District to operate on School Board property. It should be noted that Mr. Saperstein acknowledged that as the Assistant Principal he was responsible for the safety and security of the children while at Aventura Waterways so, according to him, he ensured Rabbi Kievman was following the necessary guidelines. However, when asked if he would be surprised to learn that Chabad Chayil had not obtained a DCF license until 2015 at Aventura Waterways and 2018 at VABHOE, his response was "it would not surprise me."

For almost a decade, Chabad Chayil operated programs on school facilities in violation of Florida Statutes. That Chabad Chayil continued its operation unlicensed after being placed affirmatively on notice of the requirement—for one year at Aventura Waterways and almost two years at VABHOE—is outrageous. Ultimately, Mr. Bello and Mr. Saperstein, as principals, were responsible for making sure that Chabad Chayil was in compliance with Florida laws before approving the Temporary Use Agreement and allowing them access to school facilities with daily contact with children.

In 2005, the Florida Legislature passed the Jessica Lunsford Act (JLA) requiring all contractual personnel, vendors, individuals or entities, who are permitted access on school grounds when students are present, who have direct contact with students or who have access to or control of school funds, to undergo a Level 2 Background Screening. In 2013, the Florida Legislature passed House Bill 21, and made it mandatory for contractors, vendors or individuals to obtain a statewide photo identification badge to be worn at all times when on school grounds.<sup>41</sup> House Bill 21 became effective July 1, 2013. The statewide photo identification badge serves as proof that the person has met the Level 2 Background requirement.

Even before House Bill 21 became effective, both RFPs for the after-school care program required that all individuals undergo a Level 2 Background Screening, and obtain a School Board issued photo identification badge, which must be worn at all times while on M-DCPS property when students are present. Furthermore, the RFPs required that the selected outside agencies provide the School Board with a list of all its employees who have completed Level 2 Background Screening, as required by the Jessica Lunsford Act. But because Chabad Chayil's after-school care program bypassed the RFP process and was never vetted by the before and after-school care program office, Chabad Chayil never provided a list of its employees to anyone in the School District, not even the principals of Aventura Waterways or VABHOE.

The OIG Special Agents asked Mr. Bello if Chabad Chayil employees had undergone Level 2 Background Screening or been issued an M-DCPS identification badge. Mr. Bello admitted that he did not know, nor did he ever bother to check or ask about it, before approving the Temporary Use Agreement, in his nine years as the principal of Aventura Waterways. On the other hand, as it related to the Principal-Operated After-School Care Program at Aventura Waterways, he made it clear to the OIG that all of the employees were in compliance with the requirements, which indicated he was familiar with the requirements.

Mr. Saperstein was also asked by the OIG if he ever verified that Chabad Chayil employees with access to children had undergone a Level 2 Background Screening and obtained M-DCPS identification badges. Mr. Saperstein stated that he asked Rabbi Kievman and his wife about the background checks and was informed "verbally" that all Chabad Chayil employees had been properly screened. At no time did he request or view any documented proof or verify the existence of the Level 2 Background Screening. He stated that he was under the impression that Chabad Chayil employees wore a Chabad Chayil ID badge to identify themselves as being affiliated with the "Hebrew After School Program."

The OIG obtained a list of Chabad Chayil employees from The Children's Trust. This list, which it received from Chabad Chayil in 2014 as part of its grant application, contained the names of 22 employees identified as instructors and security personnel of the after-school care program at Aventura Waterways.<sup>42</sup> The OIG provided the list to the M-DCPS Office of Human Capital Management (Human Resources) for verification of Level 2 Background Screening and issuance of M-DCPS identification badges. Human Resources was unable to verify any of the names through its tracking system as having been properly vetted by M-DCPS and/or having been issued an M-DCPS identification badge.<sup>43</sup> Human Resources was able, however, to produce one document for Chabad Chayil. That document reflected that only two Chabad Chayil employees (Devorah Kievman and Morris Kievman) had been properly vetted and issued an M-DCPS identification badge.<sup>44</sup> (EXHIBIT 18)

The OIG requested from Chabad Chayil a list of all employees that have provided and continue to provide after-school care at Aventura Waterways beginning in 2008 to the present, and at VABHOE beginning in 2016. The OIG also requested proof of Level 2 Background Screening clearance and rescreening clearance for the employees named. The OIG received a list of 52 employees from Chabad Chayil with Level 2 Background Screening results from DCF. Of the 52 names, only 9 employees appeared on the list of employees from The Children's Trust. Of the 52 employees none appear to have had a Level 2 Background Screening prior to 2015.<sup>45</sup>

The OIG provided the list of the 52 employees, including the last four digits of the Social Security Number and date of birth, to the District Director Human Resources to verify whether or not they had a record of these employees. As recent as May 14, 2019, none of the 52 employees have ever been issued a school identification badge as required by Florida Statutes. Furthermore, M-DCPS has no verification that any of the employees have ever had a Level 2 Background Screening, other than Rabbi Kievman and Devorah L. Kievman.

Jessica Lunsford Affidavits on file with the Office of Facility Rentals show that Rabbi Kievman attested that all of his employees had undergone and passed the Level 2

<sup>42</sup> In addition to the Level 2 Background Screening and M-DCPS identification badge requirements, instructors and activity leaders working with children must obtain a state certification or show proof of enrollment in a 45-hour childcare certification program (see page 25 of this report wherein this is described as an RFP requirement). It should also be noted that none of the employees listed in The Children's Trust application were state certified as required by law when working in an after-school care program with access to children. Only one employee had ever been state certified but the certification had expired.

<sup>43</sup> OIG Special Agents were unable to provide Social Security numbers for these employees, but none appeared under the organization or under their names.

<sup>44</sup> It should be noted that both Rabbi Kievman and his wife Devorah Kievman's fingerprints on file with M-DCPS have expired and must be resubmitted. Vendors are required to update their records with M-DCPS and obtain a new identification badge every five years.

<sup>45</sup> This comports with information obtained from DCF showing that other than Rabbi Kievman and his wife, Chabad Chayil employees did not receive Level 2 Background Screening until the year 2015—after it applied for the DCF license. Of the 22 employee names obtained from The Children's Trust list, only 11 names were on DCF's list of employees that were screened.

Background Screening within the last five years. There were three affidavits on file: 2012, 2013, and 2017. (COMPOSITE EXHIBIT 19) Based on the documents provided by Chabad Chayil, corroborated by DCF's records, none of Chabad Chayil's 52 employees (except for Rabbi Kievman and Devorah L. Kievman) underwent the Level 2 Background Screening prior to 2015. It would appear that the sworn affidavits submitted in 2012 and 2013 are contradicted by Chabad Chayil's own documents that were provided to the OIG.

Every year, a Weekly Briefing is sent out reminding all principals and assistant principals of the photo identification badge requirement for non-instructional contractors/vendors when on school grounds. As to Chabad Chayil's presence at Aventura Waterways and VABHOE, this requirement was ignored. No one at M-DCPS, including the principals of Aventura Waterways and VABHOE, has ever received a list of Chabad Chayil employees providing after-school care services. Moreover, these principals were completely unaware of whether these employees had undergone the Level 2 Background Screening required to enter school premises while students are present. To this date, it appears that Chabad Chayil employees remain without the appropriate school credentials, required under Florida Statutes, while operating its after-school care program at both Aventura Waterways and VABHOE. As recently as April 2019, both principals at Aventura Waterways and VABHOE have informed the OIG that they have never received a list of employees providing after-school care to their students.

VII. RESPONSES TO THE DRAFT REPORT & OIG COMMENTS

This report as a draft, was provided to Superintendent Alberto Carvalho and other members of his staff, including former principals Luis A. Bello and Scott Saperstein, for their review and submission of discretionary written responses. One response was received from the Superintendent's Office, which is incorporated herein as Appendix A. The draft report was also provided to Dr. Martin Karp c/o Attorney Isaac J. Mitrani; Jerold Blumstein; and Rabbi Kievman c/o Attorney Robert Stok. The OIG also received responses from Mr. Mitrani on behalf of Dr. Karp; Attorney J. Joseph Givern on behalf of Mr. Blumstein; and Mr. Stok on behalf of Rabbi Kievman and Chabad Chayil. These responses are incorporated herein in as Appendixes B, C and D, respectively. We appreciate receiving the responses.

A. Response from the M-DCPS Administration & OIG Comments

The OIG received a 5-page response on behalf of the Administration from the Superintendent's Chief of Staff. It is attached as Appendix A. The response tracks the five investigative findings as laid out in the OIG's report and is summarized below following this format. OIG Comments to the Administration's response follow after each section.

OIG FINAL REPORT OF INVESTIGATION
Chabad Chayil After-School Care Program

Initial Allegation: *Chabad Chayil's misrepresentations resulted in free use of facilities.

The Administration agrees with the OIG's findings that Chabad Chayil misrepresented that its after-school programs were free of charge. Moreover, the response notes that, even after being pointedly questioned by District staff about charging fees, Chabad Chayil repeatedly "asserted that its events were free of charge." As a result of this investigation, the Administration is requiring that participating organizations sign an affidavit confirming its continued eligibility to ensure that there are no other ineligible organizations using District facilities free of charge. The Administration has also moved to strengthen the fee waiver request process by requiring an affidavit of eligibility to be executed by all future organizations seeking fee waivers for facility rentals.

The OIG is encouraged by the new processes being put into place. The affidavit requirement should serve as a deterrent to future misrepresentations.

Initial Allegation: *Staff felt pressure to approve the Temporary Use Agreements and Fee Waivers

The Administration's response does not directly address the OIG's findings that School Board Member Karp's office aided Chabad Chayil in gaining free use of school facilities to operate its after-school care program or that Mr. Blumstein aggressively worked to make sure that the Temporary Use Agreements and fee waivers were approved every year. Instead the response points out that Mr. Steiger, in his interview with the OIG, stated he never felt personally pressured by Mr. Blumstein or Dr. Karp on any facility rental issue.

While Mr. Steiger did not personally feel pressure, he did confirm—in that same interview—that Ms. Cabrera came to him multiple times complaining that Mr. Blumstein was being aggressive with her with respect to her handling of Chabad Chayil's fee waiver paperwork. Mr. Steiger in turn told her not to do anything she did not feel comfortable doing and if Mr. Blumstein had a problem, he should come see him. Mr. Steiger also stated that Mr. Blumstein made threats about coming to him more than he actually did.

Further, Mr. Steiger, in that same interview with the OIG, described a new process being implemented, using the District's website, to streamline the submission process for organizations seeking access to facility space. He explained that using this new web-based process, there should be no need for anyone, including Board Member staff to handle and shuttle paperwork for the necessary approvals. The OIG hopes that this new process will limit interference on the part of individuals outside of the administration and will offer more freedom to the principals and others that are in the chain of approval to make the appropriate decision.

OIG FINAL REPORT OF INVESTIGATION

Chabad Chayil After-School Care Program

OIG Identified Concern: *Temporary Use Agreements should not have been used . . .

The Administration agrees with “the OIG’s conclusion that a Temporary Use Agreement is not the appropriate document to rent a District facility to an organization running a daily after school care program on an ongoing basis.” The response also acknowledges that “Unlike outside agency enhancement program providers, Board approved before and after school-care providers are distinctively vetted through the Request for Proposals (RFP) selection process.” These providers are required to complete an annual affiliating agreement with the District, and the Office of Community Education and Before/After School Programs would verify their compliance with the Florida Statutes and Administrative Rules requirements.

The OIG is pleased that the Administration concurs with the premise that any program utilizing school facilities on a daily basis, throughout the school year, should not be allowed to gain access to those facilities using a Temporary use Agreement. The word “Temporary” in the title of the document says it all. The use should be of limited duration. The OIG is also pleased that the Administration acknowledges the role of the Office of Community Education and Before and After School Programs. As mentioned in the body of the report, this Office issued a comprehensive Weekly Briefing<sup>46</sup> that provides clear guidance on this issue. In fact, this Weekly Briefing should be the standard by which all principals and assistant principals operate when approving a Temporary Use Agreement on behalf of any community-based organization or selecting an after-school care program coming in direct contact with M-DCPS students. Even though it was first issued in 2008 and may need some procedural updating, the instructions provided in this Weekly Briefing are as valid today as they were in 2008. The OIG is recommending that this document be redistributed annually (see Section VIII Recommendations).

OIG Identified Concern: *Chabad Chayil operated its after-school care program from 2008-2018 without the state license required . . .

The Administration states that “Doing business as a Child Care provider is the sole responsibility of the owner of the organization that provides Child Care programming services.” In other words, all responsibility laid with Chabad Chayil, as “[p]rincipals historically have not been privy to any of the comprehensive licensing requirements for Board approved, not-for-profit, fee-based outside agency before and after school providers.” As such, compliance with all laws, rules, regulations and licensing “rests with the entity providing the service,” not with the principal.

Leaving it solely up to the organization is nonsensical as demonstrated by Chabad Chayil, which operated ten years without a child-care license and without oversight by DCF or anyone at the District. While the OIG acknowledges that primary responsibility lay with the provider, when principals elect to allow non-School Board approved outside agencies onto their premises, we believe there is some responsibility to ensure that the outside agency providers are licensed to carry out the program services that they are providing. As such, the OIG strongly encourages more oversight by the Office of Community Education and Before and After School Programs regardless of whether the program services are fee-based or free.

The Administration acknowledges that, in the past, organizations renting District facilities and entering the premises while students are on campus just signed and notarized an affidavit affirming Level 2 Background Screening of all individuals that entered school premises while students were on campus. However, the District's current Level 2 Background Screening requires that organizations applying to rent District facilities must pay to have every individual fingerprinted through the District office, on an annual basis. The District will then issue a photo ID badge to the cleared individuals, which they must present at the school in order to access the premises.

While the OIG welcomes the new procedures put in place, we cannot stress strongly enough that all M-DCPS staff (principals, assistant principals, and other school employees) must be vigilant that no one gets on campus, when students are present, without the proper photo ID badge.

B. Responses from Dr. Karp and Mr. Blumstein & OIG Comments

Dr. Karp through his attorney submitted an 11-page response, which is incorporated herein as Appendix B. Mr. Blumstein submitted an 11-page response with 391 pages of attachments (Blumstein's exhibits 1 – 8), which is incorporated as Appendix C.

Dr. Karp's and Mr. Blumstein's responses are organized and formatted differently, but there is much overlap in the positions taken and the substance of the responses. As such, the OIG is jointly summarizing them as labeled under the headings found below. The OIG's comments to the responses directly follow each summary.

Dr. Karp's role as School Board Member and Mr. Blumstein's role as Chief of Staff

Dr. Karp describes his role as an elected School Board member as a "liaison between the community stakeholders and the school administrators," introducing his constituents to school administrators based on their requests. Mr. Blumstein, in his response, makes clear that as Dr. Karp's Chief of Staff, he is the liaison between Dr. Karp's

Chabad Chayil After-School Care Program

constituents and school staff, and that he “is charged with carrying out these duties on behalf of Dr. Karp.”

The OIG does not disagree with Dr. Karp’s and Mr. Blumstein’s characterization of their roles as liaisons between their constituents and school administrators. That is not, and has never been, the issue. The issue has been whether Chabad Chayil has been inappropriately aided to the extent that standard protocols were side-stepped, including undue pressure obtaining staff approvals. As Dr. Karp’s Chief of Staff, Mr. Blumstein acted on behalf of Dr. Karp, thus, the OIG is obligated to include Dr. Karp’s office in its findings.

Dr. Karp and Mr. Blumstein deny any wrongdoing

Dr. Karp and Mr. Blumstein in their responses, adamantly deny that Dr. Karp’s office or Mr. Blumstein aided Chabad Chayil in gaining free use of school facilities or pressured anyone into deciding or approving the use of school facilities or fee waivers. Both allege that the two administrators, who are charged with implementing School Board policies and rules, made false accusations in order to cover up and blame others for their “misfeasance.” Dr. Karp claims that all he did was introduce Rabbi Kievman to Mr. Bello. Both take the position that Dr. Karp’s office, only facilitates communications, including the paper flow between constituents and administrators, to ensure timely and accurate transmission of such paper, including applications.

Both also take the position that Mr. Blumstein’s involvement with Chabad Chayil’s applications and fee waivers was to simply deliver them from time to time and then follow up on the status of the application with staff. Both responses explain that the reason for this is that M-DCPS is a “large and complicated bureaucracy and at times, things tend to move slowly.” Additionally, both state in their responses that they did not draft the applications, sign them, or approve the applications for use of school facilities or any fee waivers. That power rested solely and exclusively with school administrators, which included principals.

The OIG disagrees with Dr. Karp’s and Mr. Blumstein’s allegations that Mr. Bello and Ms. Cabrera made false accusations in order to cover up and blame others for their misfeasance. While Mr. Bello should not have approved the Temporary Use Agreements or the fee waivers annually, and should have referred Rabbi Kievman to the Office of Community Education and Before/After School Programs, the OIG found his testimony credible—he truly believed approving the Temporary Use Agreement and fee waivers annually was something that “needed to happen.” He did not question Mr. Blumstein’s motives or actions because he felt there was “no point to do so.” Mr. Blumstein personally delivered Chabad Chayil’s Temporary Use Agreements and fee waivers for him to sign every year and would call him to check on the status of the approvals if they had not been signed. When Mr. Bello hesitated in approving the

Temporary Use Agreement and fee waiver and aired his grievances, he received a telephone call from Mr. Blumstein requesting that he approve it.

As to Ms. Cabrera, the OIG also found Ms. Cabrera credible in her statement that Mr. Blumstein threatened to go to her boss when she questioned whether Chabad Chayil was entitled to a fee waiver. According to Mr. Steiger, Ms. Cabrera came to him multiple times complaining that Mr. Blumstein was being aggressive with her. Mr. Steiger also stated that Mr. Blumstein made threats about coming to him more than he actually did. Although, as both Dr. Karp and Mr. Blumstein point out, Mr. Steiger told her not to do anything she did not feel comfortable doing, one can sympathize with the position Ms. Cabrera was put in—a School Board member’s Chief of Staff threatened to go to your boss for your failure to follow his instructions. When Ms. Cabrera questioned Rabbi Kievman, Mr. Blumstein paid her a visit the next day.

Dr. Karp, in his statement to the OIG, when asked if he had ever requested a principal to accept an organization at their facility, stated that he recognized how it could be misinterpreted as perceived pressure. He explained that his involvement was limited to contacting school site administrators to give them a “heads-up” about an organization that he was approached by. Dr. Karp stated that the extent of his communications with school site administrators would simply be to relay contact information. In this case, however, Mr. Blumstein directly served as the liaison between Chabad Chayil and the schools. He personally hand delivered Chabad’s paperwork, sought the necessary approvals, and forwarded it to the next person required to approve them. This was done annually (sometime bi-annually for summer access) for over a decade. Once the introduction was made, Mr. Blumstein and Dr. Karp should have left it up to the administrators that typically handle these approvals.

Dr. Karp and Mr. Blumstein both contend that the report misconstrues the emails shown in Figures 5 and 6 because it is missing the entire thread of email communications. Mr. Blumstein, in his Exhibit 5, includes two additional conversations taking place after the conversations shown in OIG Figures 5 and 6. Both Dr. Karp’s and Mr. Blumstein’s responses point to the fact that the Temporary Use Agreement had already been approved by Mr. Bello on June 16, 2016, and that the purpose of the emails was to have the fee waiver approved so Chabad Chayil could have access to the school site the next day, June 21st. Mr. Blumstein’s response also highlights the fact that four minutes after sending his email to Mr. Bello and Ms. Alayon, Ms. Alayon “approved the fee waiver” and asked “Principal Bello to sign off as well.” Additionally, Dr. Karp, in his response to the OIG, states that he was not copied on any of the emails.

First, as to Dr. Karp’s statement that he was not copied on the aforementioned emails, we observe that his Administrative Assistant, Maria E. Delgado, was. Next, the fact that the Temporary Use Agreement had already been approved four days earlier does not make this an already approved transaction. The Temporary Use Agreement and the fee waiver are two separate approvals, requiring separate evaluations.

Mr. Blumstein's Exhibit 5 contains two emails that were sent directly after the emails shown in OIG Figures 5 and 6. The Blumstein-supplied emails speak for themselves—they reinforce the notion that School Board member Karp's office was actively involved in ensuring Chabad Chayil's continued free use of the school facilities.

Dr. Karp is an active proponent of after-school programs

Both Dr. Karp and Mr. Blumstein emphasize in their responses that Dr. Karp is “an active proponent of after-school programs and constituent's lawful utilization of school facilities and Mr. Blumstein is charged with implementing Dr. Karp's vision.” Both state that Dr. Karp often allocates money to after-school programs from his office budget. Dr. Karp's response goes further and states that the “irony is that Chabad Chayil is one of the after-school programs in his district for which Dr. Karp did not contribute funding from his budget.”

This investigation does not discount Dr. Karp's support for after-school programs, especially those that provide services in his district. The issue is whether Chabad Chayil was inappropriately aided to the extent that standard protocols were side-stepped, including undue pressure obtaining staff approvals. The OIG stands firm in its finding that Dr. Karp's office aided Chabad Chayil in gaining free use of school facilities and Mr. Blumstein, on behalf of Dr. Karp, aggressively worked to make sure that the Temporary Use Agreements and fee waivers were approved annually.

Last, as to the statement in Dr. Karp's response that he did not allocate any funding from his office budget to Chabad Chayil, we believe that it would have been problematic as his children were attending Chabad Chayil. Contributing funds from his budget would have been a conflict of interest for him or, at the very least, the appearance of a conflict.

Mr. Bello had a duty to report any inappropriate actions under DCSAA–
Dade County School Administrator's Association Union Contract

Both Dr. Karp and Mr. Blumstein take the position that Mr. Bello had a duty to file a complaint with the DCSAA, which would have afforded him “robust protections” for any actions that he might have considered inappropriate.

While the OIG agrees that Mr. Bello should have brought this matter to his superiors, and should have refused to sign the Temporary Use Agreements and fee waivers,

MIAMI-DADE COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL

OIG FINAL REPORT OF INVESTIGATION

school principals are not covered under the DCSAA contract referenced by Dr. Karp and Mr. Blumstein. Principals are exempt from the collective bargaining process, as are assistant principals, and designated region and district office administrators.<sup>47</sup> Accordingly, Mr. Bello and Ms. Cabrera were not covered by the DCSAA's agreement.

The OIG Report misconstrues the methods organizations could use in running after-school care programs

Mr. Blumstein's response alleges that School Board Rule 6Gx13-1D-1.05 (in effect until July 1, 2011) expressly provided for the use of school facilities to organizations that are School Allied. Mr. Blumstein also refutes that the Temporary Use Agreement is not the correct vehicle to allow an organization to operate an after-school care program.

School Board Rule 6Gx13-1D-1.05, specifically lists those organizations that have been classified as School Allied organizations. Chabad Chayil is not one of them and neither is any other after-school care program as defined by Florida Statutes.

The Temporary Use Agreement is not the appropriate vehicle to allow an organization daily use of a school facility for an after-school care program. And the Administration's response to the OIG confirms that.

C. Response from Chabad Chayil and Rabbi Kievman & OIG Comments

Rabbi Kievman, President of Chabad Chayil, through his attorney, submitted a 30-page response with 354 pages of attachments (Chabad's exhibits 1 – 14), which is incorporated herein as Appendix D. The 30-page response is organized into three sections: an Introduction, the Response to the Draft Report, and a Conclusion. The middle section is further separated into five arguments, tracking the findings as laid out in the OIG report, each with its own heading title. The below summary of Chabad Chayil's response to the draft report (the middle section), and our comments thereon, follow the response's format and section heading titles.

Alleged Misrepresentations by Chabad Chayil "result[ing] in free use of school facilities"

Chabad Chayil's response to this finding is generally made up of three arguments. First, there is no "formal policy" that requires M-DCPS to "charge usage fees." Second, "[b]ecause there is no policy, rule, or regulation allowing fee waivers only if an organization charges no fees and is open to the public, the idea that Chabad Chayil made any misrepresentation to use MDCPS facilities is false and libelous." Third, Chabad does not charge any fees when using school facilities.

OIG FINAL REPORT OF INVESTIGATION
Chabad Chayil After-School Care Program

The balance of its response in this section distinguishes Chabad Chayil's fees associated with select programs, such as Story Hour and homework help, both which Chabad Chayil states is exclusively held at Chabad Chayil's own facilities not on M-DCPS school facilities. The response also notes that that M-DCPS employees specifically requested that Chabad Chayil charge for Story Hour to avoid a "business conflict" with Aventura Waterways' Story Hour Program.

The response attempts to clarify what it wrote on The Children's Trust Application, stating that it has a "Registration and book fee of $0-100, and a monthly charge of $0-$159 per month based on what parents can afford." Furthermore, according to the response, "[m]ost parents pay in the $50.00 range." The response alleges that the "OIG Report misrepresents that the program fee is a weekly fee, as opposed to a monthly fee." At the same time, Chabad Chayil claims any student could attend all the programs free of charge. The response also maintains that the "only reason why fees were listed on its form in the first place is that Chabad Chayil believed that The Children's Trust required it to list fees on its application."

The response points out that the OIG Draft Report "infers that Chabad Chayil was lying about its funding for the CHAP program because it did not have any Children's Trust grants before 2015." It attacks the OIG's investigation because the OIG failed to uncover that from 2008 through 2014 Chabad Chayil was a sub-contractor for Neytz haChochma School, which contracted with The Children's Trust.

Lastly, the response criticizes the estimate M-DCPS Office of Budget Management, Maintenance, and District Facility Rentals provided to the OIG as vastly overestimated and alleges that the "Estimate fails to reflect that Chabad Chayil paid an M-DCPS custodian for several hours of work for about 180 school-days per year, which amount should have been deducted from the Estimate."

Chabad Chayil's first argument concerning the lack of School Board policy on charging for use of school facilities and, in relation, the policy on fee waivers fails to recognize the School Board policies cited by the OIG throughout this report (see III Background and Schedule A).<sup>48</sup> But more importantly, Mr. Blumstein stated in his response and in his statement to the OIG, that he "made clear to any applicant for a fee waiver that such a request may only be made where no fee was charged."<sup>49</sup>

Chabad Chayil's argument as to The Children's Trust Application does not make any sense. The fact that Rabbi Kievman listed fees on The Children's Trust Application because he "believed" The Children's Trust required it, leads us to question the genuineness of any application filled out by the organization. Moreover, in its own response, Chabad Chayil admits that most parents pay $50 a month. (See also page 39 of The Children's Trust Contract attached hereto as EXHIBIT 20.) Last, even Dr. Karp stated to the OIG that he paid registration fees and monthly donations for his children to attend the program.

Chabad Chayil states that the children attend Chabad Chayil's facilities for Story Hour and homework and the rest of the program is held at Aventura Waterways and VABHOE. It states that there is a charge for Story Hour and homework at its facilities but then its free of charge at Aventura Waterways and VABHOE. The OIG would point out that when OIG Special Agents interviewed Rabbi Kievman and later received documents from his attorney, Rabbi Kievman insisted that the program was totally free of charge and never mentioned anything about Story Hour and homework fees. Furthermore, the response includes 38 letters from parents. While many of the letters say that kids who cannot afford the program get in anyways, none of the letters say the program is free of charge.

After receiving Chabad Chayil's response, the OIG interviewed The Children's Trust Contract Manager, Josefina Greene; Contract Manager, Cravel Holmes; Chief Programs Officer and CIO, Stephanie Sylvestre; and the Director of Programs, Juliette Fabien. All of them deny that anyone instructed Chabad Chayil to list any type of fees on its application or that an applicant was required to charge any fees. If fees are charged, then they should be disclosed. Further, grant recipients are required to register their organization on different websites and list the fees they charge. Accordingly, Chabad Chayil registered with SwitchBoard of Miami. Chabad Chayil registered its after school program at Aventura Waterways, 21101 NE 26 Avenue, and listed a registration fee of $125 plus a monthly fee donation. For Chabad Chayil's own facility located at 2601 NE 211 Terrace, it listed "offers sliding scale" under program fees. (EXHIBIT 21)

The OIG concedes that it was unfamiliar with Chabad Chayil's relationship to The Children's Trust grant recipient Neytz haChochma School (Neytz). However, Chabad Chayil attempts, in its response, to mislead the OIG by claiming that it was a sub-contractor under The Children's Trust grant agreement to Neytz from 2008 to 2014. While The Children's Trust staff was aware of Chabad Chayil's relationship with Neytz, they deny they were an approved sub-contractor under the grant. The Contract Manager describes Neytz as a private school with two sites: one at its private location off 163rd Street and the other location at Aventura Waterways. Chabad Chayil was not listed or recognized by The Children's Trust as a sub-contractor of Neytz, instead Chabad Chayil was considered a "site." The Director of Programs explained that Chabad Chayil provided the site and/or students, and Neytz provided the service. All the employees providing the after-school care at Aventura Waterways during 2008 – 2014, belonged to Neytz not Chabad Chayil, including Rabbi Kievman's wife. They were not considered “professional services” but “direct employees of Neytz.” All grant payments were made to Neytz. The Children’s Trust made no payments to Chabad Chayil. According to the Director of Programs, if Chabad Chayil had a different relationship with Neytz, it was not reflected in their contract. The fees paid, if any, to Chabad Chayil by Neytz for this arrangement is unknown.

Based on this additional information gathered by the OIG, it appears that Chabad Chayil may have been subletting the premises to Neytz in violation of its Temporary Use Agreement and School Board Policy 7510. Chabad Chayil should have disclosed to Messrs. Bello and Blumstein, and on the Temporary Use Agreement application, that its after school care program was really that of Neytz, including all of the employees. It was only after Neytz lost its grant with The Children’s Trust for legal reasons in 2013, that Chabad Chayil became its own after school care program.

This relationship is even more disconcerting as it relates to the OIG’s fifth finding concerning the Level 2 Background Screenings (or lack thereof) of those individuals actually on M-DCPS school grounds. As the relationship between Chabad Chayil and Neytz was never disclosed on any M-DCPS paperwork and none of the staff had acquired M-DCPS identification badges, their physical presence on M-DCPS school grounds for over a decade begs the question as to how this arrangement was allowed to fly under the radar for so many years.

Lastly, as to Chabad Chayil’s claim that the M-DCPS monetary estimate fails to include payments it made to the Aventura Waterways custodian—an M-DCPS employee—for several hours work each day during the regular school year, the OIG notes that these payments were in violation of School Board policies, and likely in violation of federal labor laws. School Board Rule 6Gx13-1D-1.01 (in effect until 2011), and School Board Policy 7510, specifically state that custodians are not to be paid “by non-school organizations.” “All payments to custodians are to be made on an approved overtime roster processed through the Payroll Department.”<sup>50</sup> Depending on the regular work shift of the custodian, extra hours performed for the benefit of an after-school care program could trigger overtime compensation performed for the same work and, as such, require overtime pay. Again, this just reinforces the fact that the access to school facilities for use throughout the entire school year was never meant to be obtained through the Temporary Use Agreement application, as presented in Section VI.C. of this report.

Alleged Pressure to Approve Waivers

The response states that it was unaware of any pressure on staff to approve the Temporary Use Agreements. According to Chabad Chayil, Mr. Blumstein was just providing constituent services, as Chabad Chayil was not familiar with what forms were required for renting M-DCPS facilities. Furthermore, the response alleges that it was Mr. Bello who pressured Chabad Chayil. It was Mr. Bello who required new Temporary Use Agreements at different times throughout the year, sometimes requiring Chabad Chayil to execute new ones every few months. The response also alleges that Mr. Bello threatened to withhold approval unless “Chabad Chayil changed in a particular way, or, on occasion, paid for advertising or for staff breakfasts and t-shirts for the staff league.” The response attaches a statement from an individual by the name of Shmuel Ben Yaeesh (Chabad’s Exhibit 9) as proof of these threats and extortion. The response further claims that Mr. Bello routinely changed Chabad Chayil’s assigned classrooms and would remind Chabad Chayil’s staff that they were guests at the school. Last, the response states that Rabbi Kievman denies terminating any phone call with Ms. Cabrera and does not recall her calling to ask for an explanation of Chabad Chayil’s fees.

Chabad Chayil’s response is the first time that the OIG has been apprised of any allegation against Mr. Bello. In the course of their decade long relationship, Rabbi Kievman could have filed a complaint against Mr. Bello, if he was indeed behaving inappropriately.

The OIG reviewed the exhibit supplied by Chabad Chayil to support its allegation of extortion. The letter was written after Chabad Chayil received the OIG’s Draft Report. Mr. Yaeesh, the author of the letter, stated that he recalled a phone conversation with Rabbi Kievman concerning an urgent request to customize t-shirts. According to Mr. Yaeesh, the Rabbi explained that the principal [not identified in the letter] called him stating “Rabbi I know it’s last minute but with your contacts I’m sure you can get it done.” The letter does not prove Chabad Chayil’s allegation against Mr. Bello.

Alleged Circumvention of School Board Procedures by Use of Temporary Use Agreements

Chabad Chayil states that the RFPs were solely for fee-based before and after school programs and not for free programs such as CHAP. It further claims that “MDCPS executive personnel” advised Chabad Chayil to apply for a Temporary Use Agreement so in essence it could not have been using the Temporary Use Agreement to “circumvent” the RFP process it was not aware of. Chabad Chayil also responds by saying that in addition to the Temporary Use Agreement, it had executed Affiliating Agreements for the 2008-2009 and 2009-2010 school years.

Chabad Chayil also contends that since it is not providing services to the School Board per se, the RFP process did not apply to them. In other words the RFP process was meant for those organizations that wanted to be a Board-approved provider. Chabad Chayil states that it was not the primary after-school care provider at the school, and compares its CHAP program to the Thomas Armour Youth Ballet. The response states R.R. Moton Elementary School has an official after-school care provider, yet it also has the Thomas Armour Youth Ballet providing dance classes after school, for which it charges a registration fee “just like CHAP.”

The OIG stands by its finding that the Temporary Use Agreement should not have been used to authorize Chabad Chayil, or any other organization, to operate an after-school care program. The Administration’s response concurs with the OIG. Moreover, even if the RFP applied only to fee-based after-school care programs, as Chabad Chayil asserts, the OIG has sufficiently shown that Chabad Chayil was a fee-based after-school care program and therefore it should have been selected and approved through the RFP. Regardless of Chabad Chayil’s Affiliating Agreements, the fact remains, Chabad Chayil did not go through the proper channels to be vetted and approved as an after-school care program provider.

As to Thomas Armour Youth Ballet, unlike Chabad Chayil, it is an M-DCPS approved vendor and School Board approved organization.

Alleged Operating Without a License

Chabad Chayil’s response claims that from 2008 through 2013, Chabad Chayil operated as a sub-contractor for a private school called Neytz haChochma, and that Chabad Chayil and Neytz had a DCF licensing exemption for each year they operated until October 2014. It attaches an undated exemption letter (Chabad’s Exhibit 11) that makes reference to a licensure survey submitted by Chabad Chayil to DCF. The response fails to include a copy of the licensure survey, which is the basis for the exemption letter. [The licensure survey questionnaire is filled out by the organization seeking licensure information from DCF.] The response further states that the reason Chabad Chayil operated without a license at Aventura Waterways during the 2014-15 School Year was because The Children’s Trust led them to believe that it did not need to get a license until the 2015-16 school year. The response further claims that Chabad Chayil operated under the DCF exemption through the 2014-15 school year. It also contends that the contract manager at The Children’s Trust informed Chabad Chayil of “a rumor that DCF was going to start requiring previously exempt Children’s Trust afterschool programs to get a DCF license.” Chabad Chayil further claims that DCF was requiring its CHAP program to be licensed because of its Children’s Trust grant agreement. But because it did not have a grant for its program at VABHOE, it did not need a DCF license for that site.

The OIG stands by its findings that Chabad Chayil operated its after-school care program at Aventura Waterways and VABHOE from 2008 to 2018—albeit with Neytz employees—without the state license required to operate a child care facility, in violation of Florida Statutes. Chabad Chayil's exemption letter from DCF does not apply to the program operated at Aventura Waterways or VABHOE.

The OIG met with Ian Fleary, DCF Family Services Counselor Licensing Supervisor, the author of the letter, who confirmed that it was unrelated to the program at Aventura Waterways, as claimed by Chabad Chayil in the response. Instead, the letter's second paragraph demonstrates that the exemption granted by this letter applied to a non-public school. Last, Mr. Fleary stated that the Chabad Chayil after-school program at Aventura Waterways and VABHOE would have never qualified for an exemption from licensing because both programs were operated at a public school by an outside organization.

Chabad Chayil attempts to link the licensure requirement to The Children's Trust contracts. The licensure requirement is not predicated on receiving public subsidies. We learned through interviews with Children's Trust personnel that in 2014, at the request of DCF, it was requested to formalize its process for verifying licensure status of its grant recipients. While The Children's Trust instituted new verification measures, the requirement of being licensed with DCF was not new. It has always been the responsibility of the organization to acquire the necessary licenses for its operation. Additionally, during our subsequent interviews with Children's Trust staff, the OIG learned that Chabad Chayil never disclosed to them that it had received a letter from DCF dated October 15, 2014, (OIG Exhibit 13) informing Chabad Chayil that it was required to obtain a DCF license for the program at Aventura Waterways.<sup>51</sup> Thus, The Children's Trust staff remained under the false impression that Chabad Chayil was exempt from DCF licensure.

Alleged Failure to Conduct Background Checks

Chabad Chayil contends that from 2008 through 2015, it ran its background checks through the VECHS system. Specifically, Chabad Chayil states (in footnote 32 of its response) that the South Florida Academy of Learning "an affiliated entity" ran background checks through the VECHS system for Chabad Chayil. Moreover, Chabad Chayil contends that since 2008, "The Children's Trust inspected and verified Chabad Chayil for compliance with its contractual requirements, which included a requirement that Chabad Chayil complies with all statutes and regulations. Year after year, Chabad Chayil passed The Children's Trust's audits and inspections."

Chabad Chayil's response is problematic in many ways. First, as noted earlier, Chabad Chayil did not have a contract with The Children's Trust until December 1, 2013, thus its statement that The Children's Trust has verified its compliance since 2008 could not have occurred. While Chabad Chayil has claimed throughout its response that it was a sub-contractor to Neytz, it was not under The Children's Trust grant agreement. As such, the personnel that staffed the CHAP program at Aventura Waterways were really Neytz employees, including Mrs. Kievman (Rabbi Kievman's wife). Neither Chabad Chayil nor Neytz were licensed through DCF, and because the services took place in a public school, the required Level 2 Background Screening had to be conducted by DCF.<sup>52</sup> Regardless of whether a criminal background screening was obtained through VECHS, it was not done through DCF. Moreover, as the OIG has pointed out in the report, the school sites failed to obtain proof of the required Level 2 screening and failed to require that these individuals obtain duly issued M-DCPS identification badges.

<sup>51</sup> The letter, dated October 15, 2014, was a result of a licensure questionnaire submitted by Chabad Chayil to DCF, a week earlier, on October 7th. This questionnaire was a required element of The Children's Trust grant application process.

Last, as to this issue, Chabad Chayil claims in its response that South Florida Academy of Learning, an affiliated entity, ran the VECHS background checks for them; however, the response does not state how they are affiliated. The only affiliation the OIG could find is that Mrs. Kievman is listed on its corporate records as a Director. Regardless of any affiliation, the South Florida Academy of Learning under its FDLE VECHS User Agreement may only "[s]hare criminal history information with other qualified entities only after confirming with FDLE that the requesting entity has been designated a qualified entity and has signed a user agreement...."<sup>53</sup> Chabad Chayil was not a qualified entity and was not an FDLE VECHS approved user. If the South Florida Academy of Learning shared criminal background information with Chabad Chayil, it did so in violation of its user agreement with the FDLE.

In sum, the OIG was taken aback by the extent of misrepresentations made by Chabad Chayil throughout the years it operated at M-DCPS school facilities, and those made during this investigation, including in its response to the draft report. The list below, while not comprehensive, shows Chabad Chayil's misrepresentations to the School District, DCF, and The Children's Trust.

- Stated that it charged no program fees, when 1) its own website listed fees on the registration forms, 2) it disclosed charging fees on its DCF license application, 3) its Children's Trust grant application stated that fees were charged, and 4) its registration on the SwitchBoard of Miami website also disclosed program fees.
- Claimed that it was exempt from DCF licensure from 2008 to 2014, when in actuality it required a DCF licensure from the beginning because the program was held in a public school.

<sup>52</sup> To be qualified to participate in the VECHS program, an organization (public, private, profit, or non-profit) must provide care, treatment, education, training, instruction, supervision, or recreation to children the elderly...or the disabled and must sign a VECHS User Agreement with FDLE. An after-school care program or summer camp does not qualify as VECHS qualified entity.

Chabad Chayil After-School Care Program

- Represented in The Children's Trust Contract No. 1510-7460 (for FY 2014-2015 funding) that it held a DCF exemption, when, in fact, Chabad Chayil had been informed days earlier that it required licensure to operate at Aventura Waterways.
- Claimed that it did not need a DCF license for VABHOE because it did not have a grant with The Children's Trust, when, in fact, it had knowledge that a DCF license was required to operate an after-school care program in a public school.

VIII. RECOMMENDATIONS & OIG REQUESTED FOLLOW-UP

1. In its response, the Administration stated that it will start requiring current participating organizations sign an affidavit confirming their continued eligibility to utilize District facilities free of charge. The Administration also pledged to strengthen the fee waiver request process by requiring that all prospective organizations seeking fee waivers for facility rentals execute an affidavit of eligibility. The OIG commends the Administration for implementing these new requirements. Because these new affidavits should strengthen internal oversight and provide a deterrence for future misrepresentations, the OIG requests that the Administration provide us with the sample Affidavits (for review and comment) prior to their implementation.
2. The OIG is encouraged with the District's overhaul of its security processes, which includes rentals of school facilities, by requiring all individuals to obtain a photo ID badge and present it at the school in order to be permitted access to the premises. We recommend that this comprehensive assessment be completed in conjunction with the above affidavit requirement, so that there is cross-check to ensure that all personnel currently on premises has gone through the ID badging process.
3. OIG is also pleased that the Administration acknowledges the role of the Office of Community Education and Before and After School Programs. As mentioned in the body of the report, this Office issued a comprehensive Weekly Briefing<sup>54</sup> that provides clear guidance on this issue. In fact, the OIG recommends that this Weekly Briefing be the standard by which all principals and assistant principals operate when approving a Temporary Use Agreement on behalf of any community-based organization or selecting an after-school care program coming in direct contact with M-DCPS students. After some procedural updating, it should be distributed annually and adopted as a School Board Policy when dealing especially with after-school care organizations. The Office of Community and Before/After School Care should be instrumental in the approval and supervision of all after-school care programs, and enrichment and supplemental programs having contact with School District Students, to ensure that the organizations are licensed, as required by law, and are following School Board Policies and Florida Statutes.

IX. CONCLUSION

Chabad Chayil was allowed to operate unlicensed after-school care programs for years in violation of School Board Policies and Florida Statutes. Allowing Chabad Chayil to operate by merely filling out the Temporary Use Agreement year after year came at the expense of the after-school care providers who appropriately participated in the RFP process, and were ultimately approved by the School Board. Through misrepresentations, Chabad Chayil acquired use of the facilities for free at an estimated cost of $1.3 million to the School District.

Most egregious is the fact that Chabad Chayil violated Florida Statutes by knowingly operating without a license and without the required Level 2 Background Screening or mandated identification badges. Even after DCF informed Chabad Chayil that it required a license to operate, it continued to operate without a license.

On the other hand, both Mr. Bello and Mr. Saperstein ran Principal-Operated After-School Care Programs and were familiar with the requirements under Florida Statutes and School Board Policies. Both did not hesitate to state to the OIG that they made sure that all M-DCPS employees assigned to their after-school care program underwent a Level 2 Background Screening prior to “setting foot” on the Aventura Waterways campus. According to both school principals, they made sure that the employees were fully certified within the specific timeframes required under the District’s guidelines. However, when it came to Chabad Chayil, both principals failed to provide the required oversight to ensure children were safe.

The violations of law and policy, the misrepresentations of fact and the inappropriate behavior as detailed throughout this Report could have had a disastrous impact on the safety of a child. The laws and rules in place are there to ensure that those dealing with children have had appropriate background clearances and are appropriately certified and licensed. No one involved bothered to ask the critical questions that would have ensured child safety. Whether this was really because each administrator blindly believed that someone else was doing the vetting or because the organization’s ties to the School Board Member’s Office meant that it was better not to ask too many questions, isn’t clear. What is clear is that no one held the after-school program accountable and, thus, the program was allowed to operate rent free, without M-DCPS oversight, and without the safeguards required by law to protect children.

Description of Fraud: School board member Dr. Martin Karp and his assistant, Gerald Bloomstein have aided a religious organization named Chabad Chayil, which they are friendly with, and participate in their programs by helping them gain access to using School Property for free under the claim that the organization does not collect any funds for its services of aftercare. In fact, the organization which is in numerous schools in the north end of the county does charge funds for its services and has been fraudulently filling out paperwork submitted and accepted by the school board indicating that it does not collect funds and so gets to use the buildings for no money at all. Also, I have heard that schools are coerced to accept this organization even though they do not want house another organization in the building. This practice has been in place for many years and anyone who handles building rentals for the school district will have knowledge of the efforts of Dr. Karp and Mr. Blumstein to help this organization because of their affiliation and friend ship with the group.

#1 rated

program happens to be run by Chabad! An educational consulting company hired by Miami-Dade to rate all county after-school programs, has rated Chabad Chayil's program one of the best. After spending two weeks observing and analyzing every aspect of Chabad's program, Cynthia Serure, president of A Gift for the Soul, Inc. concluded that program was exemplary. "This program scored at the top on virtually all analytical criteria including quality of staff, student-teacher interaction, and curriculum," said Serure. "It is a model program."

The Hebrew After-School, as its known, is more than just a once a week Talmud Torah. Its an all encompassing daily after-school program geared towards Jewish children in public schools who have no formal Jewish education. In addition to Jewish History, Holidays, Traditions & Parsha; they offer Jewish Art, Ceramics, Drama and Taekwondo. Chabad is now running the program for the third year out of the Aventura Waterways K-8 Center in Highland Lakes, Monday-Friday from 3:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Pre- and after-Hebrew school programs including homework help, tutoring and music are available from 1:30 to 3:00 & 4:30-6:00 p.m. for a nominal fee.

"This program offers a first taste of Jewish learning in a creative, joyful, hands-on and interesting way. We want to impart a sense of tradition using modern and innovative teaching techniques," says school director Layah Kievman. "This is a Hebrew School where kids can't wait to come!"

“My children Ziv and Keren are with the Hebrew school for the second year & they love it” said Mazal Yehezkely. “They have really nice teachers and a great group of staff. I can’t thank them enough”.

Chabad attracts children ages 5-13 from 7 schools and is extremely popular in the area. They have a waiting list for the younger classes and are working hard to get their own location so they can expand accordingly.

“This wonderful program has brought tremendous joy to my son” said Joanne Bendavid. “He has never been excited about school until the chabad program started. I originally signed him up for 2 days a week, but after just 2 weeks of attending the program he told me he wanted to go everyday and that he loved it so much” said the mother of 7 year old Adam. “I am so thrilled that this program is available and teaches the real values of judaism in a fun and loving environment. I hope to be a part of it for many years to come.”

“A Hebrew School is no substitute for a day-school, but for the thousands of Jewish children attending public schools, it’s their best option”. “It’s only a matter of funding, and we’ll likely have as many as 1,000 kids enrolled within the next few years” projects Kievman. Chabad seeks sponsors to subsidize the cost of this amazing program.

“We seek to ensure that every single child has access to a Jewish education,” states Rabbi Kievman who together with his wife runs Chabad of Highland Lakes. “we want them to know who they are, where they come from... and we want them to take pride in it and love it”!

To learn more about the program or to register, please visit HebrewSchool.info or contact school director Layah Kievman at (305) 770-1919 or info@HebrewSchool.info.

Dr. Karp wants to make sure Chabad Chayil has access to the school tomorrow. The region has already directed the principal to have the form filled out and sent to the region. I will have the paperwork for the fee waiver form in school operations before 11 am. Once the fee waiver form is signed, I want to make sure they will have access to the school. Please advise.

The following information represents specific guidelines on the utilization of the Temporary Use of Facilities Agreement Form-0117 and the Affiliating Agreement Form-6103 / Addendum Form-6918 as it relates to Community Based Organizations (CBO) and/or outside agency providers that have direct contact with Miami-Dade County Public School (M-DCPS) students after school.

TEMPORARY USE OF AGREEMENT FORM-0117: The Temporary Use Of Building Facilities Agreement contract is designed to give CBO's and/or outside agency providers usage of designated School Board space on a short term basis. Principals are encouraged to share the use of School Board property during non-instructional time with those outside organizations who express an interest and are qualified. Caution: This contract is not designed for after school programs that come in direct contact with M-DCPS students. This contract does not comply with the background screening requirements that are mandatory when exposing our students to outside organizations whose members are in direct contact with M-DCPS students and are on School Board property.

This contract is designed for:

Example:

- A community based theatrical group that wants to rent your school site auditorium for a one night production. The CBO can charge admission to this function.
- A community based over 55 club that would like to use your school site media center for free to discuss politics twice a week for four weeks.
- A community based sports club that would like to use your school field for free to play soccer one night a week for six weeks.

The following identifies some key points from School Board Rule 6Gx13-1D-1.01 about Temporary Use of Building Facilities Agreement. For more detailed information please read the entire rule which can be found at <http://www2.dadeschools.net/schoolboard/rules/>.

SCHOOL FACILITIES – AVAILABILITY TO QUALIFIED COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS AND COMMERCIAL ENTERPRISES.

II. Classification of Rental Organizations

- D. Repetitious Use: Is a classification used for any group requesting the use of school facilities as often as once a week for six consecutive weeks.
- E. Admission: Is a classification used for groups or commercial enterprises operating for profit, charging admission, having sales or receiving contributions as a result of the use of school facilities.

III. Specific Policies

- B. All organizations should be advised that the Board does not provide facilities over extended periods of time and that rentals are on a temporary basis. All applications for Repetitious Use of school facilities shall be renewed annually on July 1st and shall be subject to review by the School Board staff.
- E. Schools will determine neither the organization's classification nor rental charges. Classification and charges will be determined by the department of Maintenance and Plant Operations based upon Board-approved policies. All organizations should be advised that the Board does not provide facilities over extended periods of time and that rentals are on a temporary basis.
- I. Admission activities within a school building will not be permitted on a Repetitious Basis. Use of school facilities for activities classified "Admission" shall be limited to one production per producer and/or organization within a fiscal year, except for leased parking areas.
- J. All applications for Repetitious Use of school facilities shall be renewed annually on July 1st and shall be subject to review by the School Board staff.

AFFILIATING AGREEMENT FORM-6103 / ADDENDUM FORM-6918: The Affiliating Agreement contracts are designed to give CBO's and/or outside agency providers usage of designated School Board space for periods no longer than a full fiscal year. Principals may choose to use this contract with CBO's or outside agencies in order to enhance both day school and/or after school programs. This contract is specifically designed for CBO's and/or outside agencies that offer day or after school programs and that come in direct contact with M-DCPS students. It is a more detailed contract that enforces district compliance with the Jessica Lundsford Act. Caution: Principals are required to use this contract when M-DCPS students are exposed to direct contact with these outside entities.

This contract is designed for:

Example:

- A CBO that has received full funds through The Children's Trust Grant and is seeking to partner with a school site principal to implement a supplemental science program. The CBO will be in direct contact with M-DCPS students and the program will run for two days per week throughout the day school calendar year.
- A grant funded outside agency that would like to partner with or complement an existing after school care program two days a week in order to implement an arts and crafts program. The outside agency will be in direct contact with M-DCPS students. No fees will be charged.
- A fee-based CBO that would like to partner with an elementary school site principal to use the schools athletic field and to provide organized sports recreation programs directly after school between the hours of 2:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m., two days a week, for the calendar year. The CBO will charge and collect student registration fees for this specialized service and the program will be open to both M-DCPS students and children not affiliated with M-DCPS.

The following identifies some key points from School Board Rule 6Gx13-3F-1.024 about Contracts and Documents. For more detailed information please read the entire rule which can be found at <http://www2.dadeschools.net/schoolboard/rules/>.

SUBJECT: UPDATE: THE ADDITION OF NEW AGENCY SERVICE PROVIDERS FOR BEFORE AND AFTER SCHOOL PROGRAMS

Miami-Dade County Public Schools operates before and after school programs as part of community education services and through cooperative agreements with outside agencies. The school site principal chooses the delivery system that best meets the needs of their community.

The three program delivery systems for before and after school programs are as follows:

1. Community School-Operated

Community School-Operated sites are supervised by the assistant principal for Community Education (APCE) and all APCE's are under the direction of the site principal. The APCE oversees the on-campus program and he/she may also supervise the management of one or more of the neighboring elementary schools satellite programs. The community school is the fiscal manager of all site programs and retains 75% of all funds collected for fee based programs. These funds are used to provide for personnel, operational supplies and any other support critical to the safe operation of the respective site(s).

The district retains the remaining 25% of all funds collected for fee based programs. These funds are needed in order to supplement personnel fringes, program initiatives, exceptional student education, media center access and security needs. All Community School-Operated sites are allocated a full-time community school specialist position. Depending upon each satellite site(s) enrollment, permission for an additional full-time Community School Specialist or part-time hourly personnel may be granted.

2. Principal-Operated

Principal-Operated sites may be established if a minimum of 100 students are enrolled and maintained in the program. Once permission is granted, the Principal-Operated site becomes the fiscal manager and retains 75% of all funds collected for fee based programs. Additionally, a full-time community school specialist is allocated to collect monies and help facilitate the program. At the principals' discretion, a part-time program manager is selected to oversee program operations.

The district retains the remaining 25% of all funds collected for Principal-Operated fee based programs. These funds are needed in order to supplement personnel fringes, program initiatives, exceptional student education, media center access and security needs.

3. Agency-Operated

Annually, the District enters into an affiliating agreement with outside agencies that are approved by the School Board of Miami-Dade County to implement before and after school programs. Site principals have the option of selecting one of the approved agencies to operate their program. If an outside agency is being utilized, the agency becomes the fiscal manager.

The agency will keep all of the fees that are collected, however, they will be responsible for a $5.00 per registered student operational fee that will be calculated on Monday, October 15, 2007, and applied to the district account. The agency will also be responsible for hiring personnel and running the day-to-day program while adhering to all M-DCPS policies and procedures. Currently, the District's five agency providers are as follows:

- Concerned African Women, Inc. (New provider 07-08)
Contact: Latrisha Carter 305-621-3700 ($25.00 registration fee)
- Cool Kids Learn, Inc. (New provider 07-08)
Contact: Lauren Drayton 305-826-9595 (No registration fee)
- Family Christian Association of America (FCAA)
Contact: Loretta Bailey 305-685-4881 ($35.00 registration fee)

- Young Women's Christian Association (YWCA)
Contact: Patricia Williams 305-377-9922 ($30.00 registration fee)

Chabad Hebrew After School
2601 NE 211th Terrace
Miami, Florida 33180

Dear Layah Kievman,

The Department received your licensure survey describing the operations and activities of your program. Based on a review of your questionnaire, it has been determined that your afterschool program meets the definition of child care pursuant to s. 402.302(2), Florida Statutes.

The program, as described, does not meet the exclusions from licensure outlined in Chapter 65C-22.008(2)(c), Florida Administrative Code for school aged programs. Therefore, you are required to obtain a license from the Department of Children and Families for the program.

When making license determinations for school age programs, the department evaluates the program based on the exemptions outlined in rule 65C-22.008(2)(c), Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.). The following describes the process by which your program was evaluated:

1. 65C-22.008(2)(c)1, F.A.C. - Describes programs located and operated by a public/non-public school. Based on the questionnaire provided, the Chabad Hebrew After School program is located on a public school site – Aventura Waterways K-8 Center. The Department confirmed with Miami Dade County Public Schools that after-school programs in public school sites must obtain necessary licensure. Therefore, the program does not meet this criterion for exemption.
2. 65C-22.008(2)(c)2, F.A.C. - Describes programs that are strictly instructional or tutorial/academic in nature. An example of a program that meets the requirements of this rule would be a tutoring center where children are only present at the center for their set tutoring session (30mins-1hour) and no additional supervision is provided. Often times these centers require a parent to be on site or if the parent is allowed to leave they must be back within the set session time frame. This could also be the case for dance class, team sports, or karate. Based on the questionnaire provided, the Chabad Hebrew After School program offers academic instruction, arts and crafts, personal enrichment/character development, outdoor recreation/play, homework assistance, music, as well as instructional activities. The inclusion of these additional activities goes beyond activities that are "strictly instructional or tutorial/academic in nature." Therefore, the program does not meet this criterion for exemption.

Mission: Protect the Vulnerable, Promote Strong and Economically Self-Sufficient Families, and Advance Personal and Family Recovery and Resiliency

3. 65C-22.008(2)(c)3, F.A.C. - Describes programs that meet all four criteria listed within. This program type is rather unique in that the program operates for a short period of time, allows the children to enter and leave the program without adult supervision, does not provide transportation for field trips, and does not serve meals except via the USDA After School Meal Program. An example of a program that meets the requirements of this rule would be a recreational center where there is no enrollment requirement and children may arrive for example on their bikes or walking unaccompanied by an adult; play basketball, use the weight room, or play around on the computer, and then they go home unaccompanied by an adult. The program takes no direct responsibility for the supervision of the children; rather the facilities are available for use by the children randomly. Based on the questionnaire provided, the Chabad Hebrew After School Program operates at or exceeding 4 hours a day and provides transportation (directly or indirectly) for field trips. All four criteria listed in 65C-22.008 (2)(c)3, F.A.C., must be met in order to qualify for exemption. Therefore, the Chabad Hebrew After School program does not meet these criteria for exemption.

4. 65C022.008(2)(c)4, F.A.C. – Describes programs that provide afterschool care exclusively for children in grades six and above. Based on the questionnaire provide, the Chabad Hebrew After School program intends to provide after-school care to 66 children in grades kindergarten through fifth grade, thereby not meeting this requirement for exemption.

Because the Chabad Hebrew After School Program did not meet the parameters of rule outlined above, the determination was made that a license is required at this time. Please contact your local licensing office to begin the licensing process for your afterschool program. The local office has been notified of the requirement for licensure of your afterschool program. You may contact your local licensing office by calling (305) 420-3852.

If you have additional questions regarding this determination, please feel free to contact the program office at (850) 488-4900.

Thank you,

Dear Provider:

Enclosed is a PROVISIONAL license from the Department of Children and Families Child Care Licensing Office to operate a child care facility. The status of your license is being changed to Provisional license based on the following unmet condition: No Approved Fire Inspection

The Provisional license is valid until February 26, 2016. Please understand that failure to correct the violation or further violations will leave the Department no alternative but to pursue the revocation of your license. An annual license will be issued when all the above requirements have been met and maintained. This license is not transferable to another owner or any other location. If at some point in the future you discontinue operation of your facility, you must notify our Child Care Licensing office.

This is your 1st PROVISIONAL license. If you do not submit a copy of the mandatory approved director credential documentation, the Department will seek to deny and/or revoke your license. Therefore, it is important that you take this matter seriously.

Please display the Provisional license certificate in a location visible to all who may enter your child care facility and be sure to include your license number in all advertising (e.g. flyers, posters, cards, etc.). The issuance of this license represents a joint effort on your part and that of the Department of Children and Families in fulfilling the legislative intent, "to protect the health, safety and well-being of the children of the state and to promote their emotional and intellectual development and care," as stated in section 402.301, Florida Statutes.

Although the Department stands as a regulatory authority, we are here to provide the technical assistance required in assisting you to understand and implement the rules and regulations for child care facilities. Visit our website at <http://www.dcf.state.fl.us/childcare/laws.shtml>.

Please feel free to contact me, your licensing counselor or any other member of our staff, at (786) 257-5207, if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Christene "Claudette" Seymour

RE: RESPONSE TO OIG DRAFT REPORT OF INVESTIGATION – SB17-0006-SI
CHABAD CHAYIL AFTER-SCHOOL CARE PROGRAM

Dear Ms. Cagle:

Miami-Dade County Public Schools (M-DCPS) has a longstanding policy of making its school facilities available after-hours to diverse community-based organizations for activities and enrichment programs that benefit students. When programs are fee-based, a rental charge is applied, however, for programs that are free to the participants and occur during regular custodial staff work hours, rental charges are generally waived.

The following serves to clarify Initial Allegations and Identified Concerns in the OIG Draft Report of Investigation regarding Chabad Chayil's after-school care programs at Aventura Waterways K-8 Center and Virginia A. Boone Highland Oaks Elementary (Draft Report):

Response to Initial Allegation A: *Chabad Chayil's misrepresentations resulted in free use of facilities.

As stated in the Draft Report, the District's long-standing practice has been to accept each organization's attestation on their Application for Temporary Use of School Building Facilities that an activity is "free of charge" and not to routinely conduct investigations. When an issue or complaint arises regarding an organization's eligibility for a fee waiver, staff investigates and addresses any discrepancy. If it is discovered that the organization has willfully misled the District in an attempt to receive a fee waiver for which it would have otherwise not qualified, then the District terminates the existing rental agreement and the organization is no longer permitted access to operate their programs or events in District facilities.

In the case of Chabad Chayil, the organization repeatedly asserted that its events were free of charge, even after being pointedly questioned by District staff when it appeared that they may have been charging fees. After the OIG had initiated its investigation, OIG staff approached the District with initial evidence revealing that Chabad Chayil was apparently charging fees, yet, the organization again reaffirmed to District staff that no fees were being charged other than an optional snack fee. At that point, it was determined that the situation regarding Chabad Chayil would remain status quo until the OIG had finished its investigation, with the exception that the organization would begin paying custodial costs to the schools in which it was operating its program. Now that the OIG has documented its allegations and concerns in the Draft Report and investigators have concluded that parents have been charged fees, Chabad Chayil's application to rent District facilities for the 2019-2020 school year has been denied.

To ensure that there are no other ineligible organizations receiving free use of District facilities, staff is reviewing all current agreements involving fee waivers and will require the participating organizations sign an affidavit confirming their continued eligibility. Additionally, the fee waiver request process is being strengthened to require an affidavit of eligibility for all future organizations seeking fee waivers for facility rentals.

Response to Initial Allegation B: Staff felt pressure to approve the Temporary Use Agreements and Fee Waivers

M-DCPS has a longstanding policy of making its school facilities available after-hours to community-based organizations for student activities and programs. District principals understand that school campuses are public assets and as such authorizing their use for legitimate community activities is expected and encouraged. Temporary Use Agreements are routinely approved by school principals to facilitate access for community-based organizations.

With regard to fee waivers, the District's current process is straightforward and not open to outside influence. If an organization affirms to the District that it meets the qualifying criteria, then a waiver is granted; if it does not meet the qualifying criteria, then a waiver is denied. If it is later found that the organization misrepresented itself, then it is denied access to renting District facilities moving forward.

In the case of Chabad Chayil, the organization repeatedly asserted that its events were free of charge and thereby eligible for fee waivers. Based on the evidence presented by the OIG in the Draft Report that Chabad Chayil was charging fees, the organization was notified that its application to rent District facilities for the 2019-2020 school year was denied.

Additionally, although omitted from Draft Report, in Mr. Ron Steiger's interview with the OIG on this subject he told OIG staff that he never felt personally pressured by Mr. Jerold Blumstein or Dr. Martin Karp on any facility rental issue. And while he does not recall any conversation on Chabad Chayil prior to 2017 when initially approached by the OIG, he does recall at least one other instance where he explained to Mr. Blumstein why an organization in School Board District 3 could not qualify for a fee waiver.

Response to OIG Identified Concern: Temporary Use Agreement should not have been used to authorize any organization to operate an after-school care program, as this circumvented established School Board-approved procedures.

In accordance with Board Policy 7510, "District grounds and facilities shall be made available for community purposes, provided the use does not infringe on the original and necessary purpose of the property or interfere with the educational program." Temporary Use Agreements are rental agreements which enable external entities to access District grounds and facilities for non-school educational, civic, cultural, recreational, artistic, or charitable programs approved by administrative staff. School-allied organizations, including those that provide a program available to all students of the school or community on a no-charge basis may be permitted free use of the building when a custodian is regularly on duty, subject to the principal's judgement as to the number of groups that can be accommodated. In such instances, a Request for Fee Waiver for Utilization of School Facilities must be initiated by the principal and approved by the Region Superintendent and Deputy Superintendent of School Operations.

Chabad Chayil repeatedly misrepresented to District staff on the Application for Temporary Use that their program was "free of charge" and at face value, based on the above criteria, a free after-school enrichment program would have been eligible for temporary use of a school facility. Furthermore, principals have historically partnered with enhancement program providers that offer free services during out of school times using the Temporary Use Agreement.

However, a Temporary Use Agreement is not the appropriate document when processing outside agency enhancement program providers that wish to operate an official, Board approved, not-for-profit, fee-based before and after-school care program. Unlike outside agency enhancement program providers, Board approved before and after school-care providers are distinctively vetted through the Request for Proposals (RFP) selection process. This process provides school site principals with a list of qualified and approved providers that are licensed and have a history of compliance with applicable regulations. These unique providers are then required to complete an annual Affiliating Agreement with the district and their services will fall under the guidance of the Office of Community Education and Before and After School Programs. This course of action insures that the selected Board-approved before and after-care providers continue to be current with all Department of Children and Families (DCF) licensing requirements and Florida Statutes and Administrative Code. Consequently, the practice of vetting all fee-based outside agency providers through School Operations removes any obligation for the principal to verify proper licensure.

District staff concurs with the OIG conclusion that a Temporary Use Agreement is not the appropriate document to rent a District facility to an organization running a daily after care program on an ongoing basis. The District has already begun a thorough review of all current facility rentals on Temporary Use Agreements to ensure applicability.

Response to OIG Identified Concern: *Chabad Chayil operated its after-school care program from 2008-2018 without the state license required to operate a child care facility, in violation of Florida Statutes.

Doing business as a Child Care provider is the sole responsibility of the owner of the organization that provides Child Care programming services. M-DCPS qualifies because we are the local public school district and hire vetted public school employees that serve only students at each school. The District is only responsible for the oversight of the five existing Board-approved fee-based outside agency after school care providers (YMCA / YWCA / FCAA / SASCC / SFASAS).

Principals historically have not been privy to any of the comprehensive licensing requirements for Board approved, not-for-profit, fee-based outside agency before and after school providers. The onus for licensing has always fallen upon the provider and has always been assessed through DCF through their required annual site and records inspections, therefore, irrespective of the facilities rental instrument used, responsibility for compliance with all rules and regulations rests with the entity providing the service.

For many years, the District's process to ensure proper background screening clearance for organizations renting District facilities has been to make the renter sign and notarize an affidavit affirming that all individuals associated with their program or event that enter school premises while students are on campus have cleared the necessary Level 2 background screening check. Historically, this was an acceptable process; however, over the past year the District has begun to overhaul all its security processes, including those associated with facilities rentals.

The current background screening requirements for facility rentals far exceed a signed and notarized affidavit. Each organization applying to rent District facilities must pay for every individual to be fingerprinted through the District fingerprinting office. The cleared individuals then receive a photo ID badge that must be presented at the school or they will not be permitted access to the premises. This is an annual process and each individual entering a District facility must be re-fingerprinted and badged each year.

Should you require additional information, please feel free to call me at 305 995-2393.

Sincerely,

Jaime G. Torrens

RE: *OIG Draft Report of Investigation – SB17-0006-SE
Chabad Chayil After-School Care Program

Dear Ms. Cagle:

This shall serve as Dr. Martin Karp's response to the Office of the Inspector General's ("OIG") Draft Report dated June 25, 2019 (the "Draft Report"). The purpose of this response by Dr. Karp is not merely to request that it be attached to the final report by the OIG, but to request that the OIG not issue the report, or at minimum, revise its Draft Report as described in section V below.

I. Introduction

Dr. Karp is currently serving as Vice Chair on the Miami-Dade County School Board as a duly-elected representative for District 3 and its constituents, and has served as a member of the School Board for more than fourteen years. Dr. Karp's achievements include receipt of more than forty awards and accolades, and numerous policy initiatives that have benefitted the Miami-Dade community at large.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Examples of Dr. Karp's accomplishments include, but are not limited to, the implementation of interest and needs-based learning initiatives, founding and producing a weekly children's television show, WKDZ Kids' World that aired on Cable TAP's community access channels and WLRN channel 17, and supporting after-school programs benefitting School Board District 3 including, among many others, robotics enrichment programs, chess programs, the Sunflower Society, extended foreign language courses, Close Up, and debate and critical thinking skills competitions. Other recognitions include the Cervantes Outstanding Educator Award, the South Florida People, Pets and Vets Award, and the SHAPE Guardian of Youth Philanthropy Award. During his tenure on the School Board, the school district was awarded the highest honor in urban education—the Broad

Dr. Karp fully supports that Florida laws and regulations such as, but not limited to, Section 402.301 et seq., Florida Statutes, Chapter 65C-22, Florida Administrative Code and the Jessica Lunsford Act must be followed. Dr. Karp expects that principals, assistant principals and all other school administrators respect and abide by all such laws and regulations.<sup>2</sup>

II. Dr. Karp's Role as a School Board Member Includes the Making of Introductions for his District's Constituents

The Draft Report misapprehends the role, duties and responsibilities of a member of the school board. Section 9111 of the School Board of Miami-Dade County, Florida's Bylaws & Policies states, in part, that "[t]he School Board shall maintain communication with parents, members of the community, vendors, and others involved with the District." Indeed, parents and other members of the community are considered "stakeholders" in the community. As vice-chair on the Miami-Dade County School Board, Dr. Karp's photograph hangs inside of all of the schools in District 3, and parents, students and other community members are encouraged to approach Dr. Karp, who is held out as his constituents' representative on matters involving the schools in the district. Throughout his tenure, Dr. Karp has welcomed his responsibilities to listen to comments and suggestions by his constituents

Dr. Karp, and all members of the School Board, have made introductions of parents, other persons and entities to principals and other administrators. This is part and parcel of Dr. Karp's role as a liaison between the community stakeholders and the school administrators. Usually, introductions are made by Dr. Karp and other School Board members to school administrators based on their constituents' interests and requests.<sup>3</sup> However, the Draft Report improperly paints Dr. Karp's innocent behavior in a negative light.

Prize, and the National School Boards Association Award for Urban School Board Excellence

<sup>2</sup> The Draft Report focuses on Chabad Chayil and its principal, Rabbi Kievman, and makes findings against Chabad Chayil related to purported fees charged for after-school programs, licensing, background checks and badging of its personnel. We are aware that Chabad Chayil vigorously denies all claims and assertions made against it in the Draft Report.

III. Dr. Karp's Involvement with After-School Programs in District 3

Dr. Karp is an active proponent of after-school programs and constituents' lawful utilization of school facilities.

Dr. Karp has referred various after-school programs for consideration by school administrators and even allocated money from his office's budget to accommodate several of these programs; the irony is that Chabad Chayil is one of the after-school programs in his district for which Dr. Karp did not contribute funding from his budget.

Dr. Karp did not have any involvement with the subject paperwork allegedly utilized by Chabad Chayil, and importantly, Dr. Karp's office did not, and as a matter of policy, could not, approve applications and fee waivers. The power to approve Temporary Use Application and fee waivers lay entirely within the power and authority of the school administrators. Recognizing this, the Draft Report states that Mr. Bello and Mr. Saperstein approved the Temporary Use Agreement and fee waivers.<sup>4</sup>

IV. Dr. Karp Was Not Involved or Complicit in Any of the Alleged Wrongdoing

The Draft Report raises serious allegations of wrongdoing, which will affect the reputations of the subjects of this investigation. Basic considerations of due process of law as well as School Board Policy require that such allegations not be made unless there is competent and credible evidence supporting such allegations. See School Board Policy 0157(A)(11) (“[t]he OIG shall respect employees’ and contractors’ due process rights as described by state law, Board rules, and/or applicable collective bargaining agreements . . . b. The OIG shall strive to protect employees from false complaints.”).<sup>5</sup>

The Draft Report does not satisfy the guidelines’ requirement for the issuance of a report and its findings. The Principals and Standards for Offices of Inspector General (the principals of which the OIG purports to have conducted its investigation) require:

- “Due professional care should be used in conducting investigations and in preparing accompany reports.” The Principals and Standards then define “exercising due care” to include creating accurate and complete investigation documentation and investigative reports.”

- “Objectivity – Evidence should be gathered and reported in a fair, unbiased manner in an effort to determine validity of alleged improprieties or evaluate the likelihood of violations of statutes, rules, or regulations.”

- Under Guidelines, Section A. Quality Control, supervisory reviews are required “and should determine that: 1. Evidence adequately supports any referrals for possible criminal, civil, or administrative action; findings; conclusions; and recommendations. . . .”
- Under Guidelines, Section D. Evidence, “[s]ufficient, competent, and relevant evidence is to be obtained to afford a reasonable basis for the investigative findings and conclusions.” The guidelines are:
  - Evidence is sufficient if there is enough of it to support the report’s findings.
  - Evidence used to support findings is relevant if it has logical, sensible relationships to those findings.
  - Evidence is competent to the extent that it is consistent with fact (valid).”

A careful review of the Draft Report reveals that accurate and complete documentation was either not obtained or reported. Certainly, the “evidence” presented in the Draft Report as to Dr. Karp (which is all set forth below) does not amount to “sufficient, competent and relevant evidence” that is required for the OIG to conclude the way that it did. However, the innuendo and implication of the Draft Report wrongfully leads the reader to conclude to the contrary, and should be stricken from any published report.

The “evidence” set forth in the Draft Report and our comments as to Dr. Karp are as follows:

1. Interview of Luis Bello:

- a. “Mr. Bello initially met Rabbi Kievman and his wife during the summer of 2008, prior to the commencement of Aventura Waterways’ 2008-09 inaugural school year. That initial meeting took place at the behest of Dr. Karp. Dr. Karp told Mr. Bello that Chabad Chayil was an organization that ‘provided a service to the community,’ and he requested that Mr. Bello meet with Rabbi Kievman. Mr. Bello further stated that although Dr. Karp did not openly ‘twist his arm’ to accept Chabad Chayil, he felt he was expected to make it happen. It was his understanding that it was something desired by the School Board Member.”<sup>6</sup>

Response: As noted above, Dr. Karp and all of the School Board members routinely refer their constituents to principals, and rely on the principals to in turn handle the constituents’ requests in a lawful and professional manner. There is nothing wrong with making such a referral or introduction! Indeed, members of Congress routinely make similar introductions for their constituents.<sup>7</sup> In introducing Rabbi Kievman to Mr. Bello, Dr. Karp merely performed his duties as a member of the School Board in the same manner that he had introduced other constituents to school administrators on many occasions. Mr. Bello admitted that Dr. Karp did not twist his arm. There is absolutely nothing that Dr. Karp said to Mr. Bello or anyone, to the effect that Mr. Bello should disregard the law and procedures regarding after-school programs and accept Chabad Chayil. Somebody’s “feelings” are simply not evidence.<sup>8</sup> This innuendo is wholly unsubstantiated, will be harmful to Dr. Karp’s reputation if published and should be removed from the final report. We also note Mr. Bello was under a duty not only to follow the law and rules regarding after-school programs, but had Dr. Karp acted inappropriately, Mr. Bello, as a responsible principal, would have been required to contemporaneously report any such inappropriate action. Under the DCSAA Contract between Miami Date County Public Schools and Dade County School Administrators’ Association Effective July 1, 2015 through Jun 30, 2018 (the “Union Agreement”), Mr. Bello was afforded a plethora of protections to allow him to bring “complaints and grievances” that may “arise between the Union and the Employer or between the Employer and any one or more employees concerning the application or interpretation of the wages, hours, and terms and conditions of employment, as defined in this Agreement.” No such report was made by Mr. Bello, or anybody else for that matter, and not a single piece of evidence or testimony supports any allegation made in the Draft Report preceding the OIG’s investigation, in which the principals and administrators clearly had a motive to push blame on to others.

- b. “[Mr. Bello] then added that he felt ‘it was something that they [Dr. Karp and Mr. Blumstein] wanted and more than likely is was going to happen no matter what.’”<sup>9</sup>

Response: Mr. Bello approved Chabad Chayil’s applications for temporary use and fee waiver applications for nine consecutive years. He stated during his interview that during these nine years he never questioned “Mr. Blumstein’s motives or actions.” As explained above, Mr. Bello’s feelings and sentiments cannot form the basis of these serious accusations against Dr. Karp. If Mr. Bello felt that anybody was acting improperly, he was obligated to report it to the correct channels. Dr. Karp did not act improperly and no such reporting was ever done by Mr. Bello. On a separate but important note, Mr. Bello was responsible for ensuring that the proper forms were being used, and Dr. Karp was not. Obviously, the principals and administrators had a motive to blame others for their purported misfeasance alleged by the OIG.<sup>10</sup>

2. Interview of Keisha Johnson Cabrera:

- a. Following a discussion between Ms. Cabrera and Mr. Blumstein, Ms. Cabrera stated to the OIG that “Mr. Blumstein reminded her several times that Rabbi Kievmann was a constituent of Dr. Karp and Dr. Karp would not be happy.”<sup>11</sup>

<sup>10</sup> Although it is outside of the scope of the allegations made regarding Dr. Karp, Chabad Chayil’s attorney provided information and documentary evidence proving that there was no misfeasance with respect to Chabad Chayil’s utilization of Temporary Use Agreements and obtaining fee waivers.

Response: Although this allegation does not involve any action or inaction by Dr. Karp, this allegation is hearsay and not credible evidence as to Dr. Karp. Dr. Karp mandates equal treatment of all of his constituents in District 3, and that his chief of staff was trying to facilitate action on behalf of one of his constituents is not evidence of any wrongdoing. Notably, Mr. Blumstein did not request that Ms. Cabrera disobey any law or regulation.

- b. Figures 5 and 6 – emails from Jerold Blumstein to a) Keisha Johnson Cabrera and b) Luis Bello, Sally Alayon and others:

Response: Dr. Karp is not copied on either email. Further, the Draft Report misconstrues an innocent email (Figure 5) being sent to the Director of Budget/Facility Rentals in which Dr. Karp’s chief of staff is merely ensuring that Chabad Chayil will have access to the facility at the time and place that it had been approved to use it. Again, Mr. Blumstein is not asking anybody to disregard the law and applicable procedures, and there is not a single email or communication to the contrary. Miami Dade County Public Schools is a large and complicated bureaucracy, and at times, things tend to move slowly. Thus, on behalf of its constituents, Dr. Karp’s office facilitates communications, including with the paper flow between constituents and administrators, to ensure timely and accurate transmission of such papers, including applications.<sup>12</sup> Further, Figure 5 is wholly incomplete, as the entire thread of the referenced email proves that on June 20, 2016, Chabad Chayil had already been approved by Mr. Bello, and Ms. Cabrera wrote to Mr. Bello, saying “Please allow Chabad Chayil access to the grounds at your location beginning tomorrow June 21, 2016 through June 30, 2016. The hours are from 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 pm. Let me know if you have any questions.”

Towards the end of the Draft Report, the OIG recognizes that “[u]ltimately, Mr. Bello and Mr. Saperstein, as principals, were responsible for making sure that Chabad Chayil was in compliance with Florida laws before approving the Temporary Use Agreement and allowing them access to school facilities with daily contact and children.”<sup>13</sup> The only purpose of the emails set forth in Figures 5 and 6 was to move the approved process along. The email in Figure 6, region administrators are copied on the email from Mr. Blumstein, and they are responsible for ensuring that the proper forms are being used; Dr. Karp is not. Obviously, the principals and administrators had a motive to blame others for what the OIG alleges is misfeasance; the Draft Report concedes, because it must, that responsibility for approval of fee waivers lies with the principals. The Draft Report’s failure to even mention such blatant ulterior motives on behalf of the principals and administrators highlights the Draft Report’s failure both to provide credible evidence and to comply with the Principals and Standards for Offices of Inspector General.

- c. “Ms. Cabrera stated that everyone felt pressured regarding Chabad Chayil fee waivers. She clarified that although Mr. Blumstein always used Dr. Karp’s name, she never spoke to Dr. Karp.”<sup>14</sup>

Response: It is now conceded that Dr. Karp never had any communications with Ms. Cabrera. Again, there is no evidence of any wrongdoing by Dr. Karp; Dr. Karp never requested that anybody disregard the law and applicable procedures. Again, feelings of pressure are not evidence, and Ms. Cabrera never approached Dr. Karp to discuss these feelings, or even make him aware of her potential concerns.

As specified in footnote 10 of this response, there is substantial, competent evidence that there was no misfeasance with respect to Chabad Chayil’s utilization of Temporary Use Agreements and obtaining fee waivers. However, to the extent there was, which Dr. Karp does not concede, the Draft Report alleges and all but concludes that Ms. Cabrera was derelict in her duty. The Draft Report states that Ms. Cabrera repeatedly approved fee waivers even though she believed that Chabad Chayil was allegedly charging fees for its classes. Ms. Cabrera’s statements must be viewed through a lens of substantial motive to shift blame to others. Finally, Ms. Cabrera’s boss, Mr. Steiger, refuted Ms. Cabrera’s statements.<sup>15</sup> Mr. Steiger

3. Interview of Mr. Saperstein:

- a. Tellingly, Mr. Saperstein noted that “for the first several years he turned [Rabbi Kievman] down because of his prior experience and frustrations during his tenure at Aventura Waterways.”<sup>16</sup>

Response: This directly and irrefutably rebuts the OIG’s theme that Dr. Karp pressured school administrators to accept Chabad Chayil’s after-school program and disregard the law and applicable procedures. Here, Mr. Saperstein turned Chabad Chayil down and later states that he was never confronted or challenged by Dr. Karp or his office on his decision.<sup>17</sup>

- b. Mr. Saperstein stated that “he only approved Chabad Chayil’s after-school program . . . because parents started requesting the program.” In fact, more than one hundred parents requested the program. Mr. Saperstein continued that “neither [Mr. Blumstein] nor Dr. Karp ever directed him (Saperstein) to approve Chabad Chayil’s Temporary Use Agreement or fee waivers.”<sup>18</sup>

Response: Dr. Karp did not have any involvement with the subject paperwork allegedly utilized by Chabad Chayil, and importantly, Dr. Karp’s office did not, and as a matter of policy, could not, approve fee waivers. Further, Mr. Saperstein noted that “[p]rior to approving Chabad Chayil, he received verbal approval from . . . the North Region Administrative Director.” This process, as described in the Draft Report, describes the approval process which does not even include Dr. Karp or his office. Any potential blame lies here, against the region administrators, and not against Dr. Karp.

- c. In footnote 27, the OIG notes that it “interviewed various other M-DCPS administrators whose responsibilities included approval of the Temporary Use Agreements and fee waivers. These administrators also stated that they had never been approached or pressured by either Dr. Karp or Mr. Blumstein about the fee waivers or Temporary Use Agreements.”<sup>19</sup>

Response: While the Draft Report emphasizes one principal’s and one administrator’s (who never even met or spoke with Dr. Karp) “feelings” about Dr. Karp and Chabad Chayil, Mr. Saperstein and “various other M-DCPS administrators” stated to the contrary, namely that they had never been pressured by Dr. Karp or his office to approve any program.

V. Conclusion

There is no credible evidence, not one shred, that Dr. Karp asked a school principal or administrator to disregard the law or procedures; there is not one witness to testify that Dr. Karp was told that Chabad Chayil did not qualify as an after-school program but insisted that it be given this access anyway. There is not one document or email sent to or by Dr. Karp reflecting that he wanted the law disregarded. There is not one email or communication to Dr. Karp from school principals or administrators asking for clarification regarding Chabad Chayil and pointing out to Dr. Karp that Chabad Chayil did not qualify as an after-school program.

Fundamental considerations of due process and the School Board’s Policy regarding protections against false complaints<sup>20</sup> compel then that the Draft Report as written not be released, and demand is so made. If the OIG releases a version of the Draft Report, demand is made that the OIG shall include a statement prominently both at the beginning and in the conclusion of the final report absolving Dr. Karp of any and all wrongdoing, stating that there is no credible evidence of wrongdoing by Dr. Karp. Certainly, inadmissible and unreliable statements such as witnesses’ feelings should not be included.

We look forward to hearing from you regarding our comments.

<sup>20</sup> The current report stems from an anonymous complaint. The OIG should be mindful that members of the School Board are elected members of political office. Unfortunately, contested political races at times become contentious. Given the political nature of Dr. Karp’s current position, an anonymous complaint, such as the one received in connection with this Draft Report, should be carefully scrutinized and investigated prior to publishing scurrilous allegations against parties.

Re:    OIG Draft Report of Investigation – SB17-0006-SI
      Chabad Chayil After-School Care Program

Dear Ms. Cagle:

This letter is delivered on behalf of Mr. Jerold Blumstein in response to the Draft Report dated June 25, 2019 (the “Draft Report”) prepared by the Office of Inspector General (“OIG”). The Draft Report claims to have “substantiated the allegation that School Board Member Karp’s office aided Chabad Chayil in gaining free use of school facilities.” This is simply untrue. In fact, the Draft Report only establishes that Mr. Blumstein performed his job to facilitate communications between Chabad Chayil and school administrators who, consistent with School Board policy and rule, decide and approve the use of school facilities by Chabad Chayil or anyone else. Mr. Blumstein could not and did not approve Chabad Chayil’s applications and requests. Accordingly, this finding should be stricken from the Draft Report. The Draft Report also includes false and defamatory accusations against Mr. Blumstein made by two administrators charged with implementing School Board policies and rules. To cover up for their substantiated misfeasance as found by the OIG in its Draft Report, these employees now claim, years after the fact, and only upon being confronted by this OIG investigation, that Mr. Blumstein pressured them to approve Chabad Chayil’s applications and fee requests. These self-serving statements are not credible and unsubstantiated by the Draft Report, but also refuted in this response. Accordingly, these accusations should be stricken from the Draft Report or found to be unsubstantiated by the OIG.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> The Draft Report also makes findings pertaining to Chabad Chayil, including fees charged, licensing, background checks and badging of its personnel. The Draft Report is devoid of any link between Mr. Blumstein and any of these operational matters. Instead, the Draft Report properly holds School Principals responsible for compliance with these matters. As a result, Mr. Blumstein does not address those findings. Nonetheless, to avoid any ambiguity, Mr. Blumstein denies having any personal knowledge of any of these operational matters. Further, Mr. Blumstein has no affiliation with Chabad Chayil, is not a member of Chabad Chayil and is not familiar with its operations. Moreover, as set forth in the Draft Report, Mr. Blumstein made clear to any applicant for a fee waiver that such a request may only be made where no fee was charged. .

I. The Draft Report Did Not Meet Required Standards

The OIG claims that its investigation is conducted in accordance with the “Principles and Standards for Offices of Inspector General” as promulgated by the Association of Inspectors General (the “Principals and Standards”). A true and correct copy of the Principals and Standards is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. The Principals and Standards contain “Quality Standards for Investigations” to guide investigations into claims of misconduct. The Quality Standards for Investigations requires the exercise of “due professional care” which, in turn, means “creating accurate and complete investigation documentation and investigative reports.” See Principles and Standards, p. 26. Further, any evidence gathered must be “reported in a fair . . . manner in an effort to determine the validity of alleged improprieties or evaluate the likelihood of violations of statutes, rules, or regulations.” See Principles and Standards, p. 27. Third, and most importantly, the quality control for the investigation should reflect that the “[e]vidence adequately supports any . . . findings; conclusions.” See Principles and Standards, p. 28.

Basic considerations of due process of law as well as School Board Policy require that the allegations in the Draft Report involving Mr. Blumstein not be made unless there is competent and credible evidence supporting such allegations. See School Board Policy 0157(A)(11) (“[t]he OIG shall respect employees' and contractors' due process rights as described by state law, Board rules, and/or applicable collective bargaining agreements . . . b. The OIG shall strive to protect employees from false complaints.”).<sup>2</sup>

As detailed below, the instant investigation fails to meet the Quality Standards for Investigations. The OIG failed to report its investigation in a fair manner. The OIG failed to create an accurate or complete investigative report. Perhaps more fundamental, the evidence does not support any finding of any wrongdoing by Mr. Blumstein. Finally, by including references to baseless, unsubstantiated and uncorroborated allegations, the OIG fails to protect Mr. Blumstein from anonymous and false complaints.

II. The Draft Report Fails to Acknowledge that as Chief of Staff for School Board Vice-Chair Karp, Mr. Blumstein is a Liaison Between his Constituents and School Staff

The Draft Report entirely fails to consider or even mention Mr. Blumstein’s role, duties and responsibilities as Chief of Staff for School Board Vice-Chair Dr. Karp. Section 9111 of the School Board of Miami-Dade County, Florida's Bylaws & Policies provides that “[t]he School Board shall maintain communication with parents, members of the community, vendors, and others involved with the District” (emphasis added). Indeed, parents and other members of the community are considered “stakeholders” in the community. Section 9500 of the School Board of Miami-Dade County, Florida's Bylaws & Policies provides that “Communication shall be maintained with . . . institutions and organizations which provide District students with programs, training, or services not available in the District. Section 9130 of the School Board of Miami-Dade County, Florida's Bylaws & Policies provides that “[a]ny person or group interested in District operations may present a request, suggestion, or complaint concerning District personnel, the program, or District operations.” Further, School Board Rule of Miami-Dade County, Florida 6Gx13-1A-1.17 (in effect until July 1, 2011) required members of the board "individually or collectively [to] recognize and welcome their responsibilities for listening to comments and suggestions from the residents of Dade County." Mr. Blumstein, as a previous School Board Administrative Assistant and currently, as Vice-Chair Karp’s Chief of Staff, is charged with carrying out these duties on behalf of Dr. Karp.

Mr. Blumstein’s title from 2004 to 2013 was School Board Administrative Assistant. The job responsibilities listed as part of the job description state that an Administrative Assistant “[a]cts as liaison for the Board Member in personal contacts with individuals and groups on matters concerning the official responsibilities of the Board Member,” “[r]esponds to individuals, groups and officials who request information or assistance,” “[p]erforms other duties comparable to the above, as the above duties describe only the typical, primary features of the job,” and “[p]erforms other duties as stipulated by contract and/or assigned by the Board Member.” When Mr. Blumstein became the Chief of Staff to Board Member Karp in 2013, his job description included many similar responsibilities. The job description explicitly lists examples of duties for a Chief of Staff: “[s]erves as a liaison for constituents,” “[r]esponds to inquiries by seeking solutions to problems or assisting in the communication with appropriate offices,” and “[p]erforms other duties related to general administrative responsibilities of the position.” A true and correct copy of these Miami-Dade County Public Schools Job Descriptions for School Board Administrative Assistant and Chief of Staff to Board Member are attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

Mr. Blumstein’s role as a liaison for constituents is a critical part of Mr. Blumstein’s job. Miami Dade County Public Schools is a large and complicated bureaucracy, so Mr. Blumstein assists Dr. Karp’s constituents by facilitating communications, including with the paper flow between constituents and administrators, to ensure timely and accurate transmission of such papers, including applications. Mr. Blumstein has done so on behalf of many constituents, not just Chabad Chayil. Some of the organizations he has similarly served include the Boys and Girls Club, North Bay Village Optimist Club, North Beach Elementary PTA, a food truck event, North Bay Village Police Athletic League, Optimist Club of Ives Estates, Sunflower Society, and the Miami Beach Chamber of Commerce. See Composite Exhibit 3. However, the Draft Report omits any reference to Mr. Blumstein’s job duties. Instead, the OIG appears to find fault with Mr. Blumstein’s selfless service with inexplicable, negative comments contained in the Draft Report, including that he “aggressively worked” in facilitating communications between the different parties. See Draft Report, p. 2.

Dr. Karp is an active proponent of after-school programs and constituents' lawful utilization of school facilities, and Mr. Blumstein is charged with implementing Dr. Karp’s vision. In fact, during several election cycles, one of Dr. Karp's main policies was to increase utilization of these sites for taxpayers in the community. Dr. Karp has recommended various after-school programs to school administrators and even allocated money to schools from his office's budget to accommodate the programs. An example of a recent program that Dr. Karp helped secure funding for was an after-school chess program requested by an elementary school.

Mr. Blumstein's only involvement with any of the applications by Chabad Chayil for use of school facilities or fee waivers by Chabad Chayil was to deliver them from time to time on behalf of a constituent and then follow up on the status of the application with staff. Mr. Blumstein did not draft the applications; he did not sign the applications; he did not, and as a matter of policy, could not, approve the applications for use of school facilities or any fee waivers. The power to approve rested solely and exclusively with school administrators, including Principals. The Temporary Use Applications required the approvals of the Principal and the Superintendent. See Composite Exhibit 12 to the Draft Report. Similarly, Temporary Use Applications required the approval of the Principal, Region Superintendent and Deputy Superintendent. See also School Board Rule of Miami-Dade County, Florida 6Gx13-1D-1.01 Use of School Facilities (in effect until July 1, 2011) (“ . . . After providing for the regular school programs, the building facilities may be made available to qualified community organizations and the paved parking areas may be leased to commercial enterprises. The use of school facilities for these non-school functions may be approved by the administrative staff . . . ”); School Board Rule of Miami-Dade County, Florida 6Gx13-1D-1.10 Use of School Facilities (in effect until July 1, 2011) (identifying the school administrators responsible for reviewing applications for use of school space to any non-school person or organization). The Draft Report acknowledges that the applications were approved by the applicable and responsible school administrators.

To reiterate, Mr. Blumstein solely facilitated communication between constituents and school administrators, as well as followed up on their status. Such behavior is not evidence of wrongdoing. It is evidence of him doing his job, as detailed in the attached job descriptions. Dr. Karp confirmed this himself when he explained that it was normal for Mr. Blumstein to hand-deliver documents and follow-up for many organizations, not just Chabad Chayil, as a service to the District 3 constituents. This does not mean he “aided Chabad Chayil in gaining free use of school facilities.” The decisions to grant access, as well as the terms and conditions of such access, lay solely and exclusively with administrators charged with the responsibility to review applications to ensure compliance with applicable Board policy, rule and law. There is no evidence whatsoever that Mr. Blumstein commented, was asked to comment, or otherwise weighed in on those decisions, nor could he. The Draft Report fails to consider Mr. Blumstein's legitimate job functions and, therefore, incorrectly concludes that he aided Chabad Chayil in gaining free use of school facilities.

III. The Draft Report Republishes False and Defamatory Information that is Not Supported by the Evidence in Violation of the Principals and Standards and School Board Rules

The Draft Report starts by citing to an anonymous complaint accusing Mr. Blumstein of using his position to coerce school officials to accept Chabad Chayil at their campuses. Significantly, the Draft Report does not make a finding that Mr. Blumstein coerced anyone. However, it finds that Mr. Blumstein “aggressively worked” to make sure that Chabad Chayil's papers were approved each year for two schools, Aventura Waterways and VABHOE. See Draft Report, pp. 1-2. This finding is incorrect and not supported by any credible evidence.

The Draft Report highlights statements from two interviews. The first is from Keisha Johnson Cabrera, who stated that Mr. Blumstein threatened to go to her boss when she questioned

Chabad Chayil's eligibility for a fee waiver. The second is from Luis A. Bello, who stated that he felt pressured by Mr. Blumstein to approve the use applications and fee waivers and, on one occasion, was told to approve it. Neither of these statements are credible.

As an initial matter, Mr. Blumstein absolutely denies ever threatening to go to Ms. Cabrera's boss (Ron Steiger), as suggested by Ms. Cabrera. Mr. Blumstein also absolutely denies pressuring Ms. Cabrera or pressuring or directing Mr. Bello to approve any applications or fee waivers from Chabad Chayil.

Further, the Draft Report establishes the motive to fabricate these statements by Ms. Cabrera and Mr. Bello. The Draft Report concludes that it was administration, not Mr. Blumstein or School Board Vice-Chair Karp's office, who were derelict in their duties. As such, they had a very real motive to push blame for that onto others. Additionally, their interviews reveal testimony that is internally inconsistent and replete with innuendo, hearsay and speculation.

Mr. Bello, it should be noted, was the Principal of Aventura Waterways during the entire time in question. As the Principal, he served as the administrative and supervisory head of the school responsible for the enforcement of all Board regulations and Florida statutes which pertain to the office. See School Board of Miami-Dade County Bylaws & Policies, Definitions, "Principal". Mr. Bello approved Chabad Chayil's applications for temporary use and fee waiver applications for nine consecutive years. He testified that during these nine years he never questioned "Mr. Blumstein's motives or actions" even though he felt pressured by Mr. Blumstein and, on one occasion, allegedly was directed to approve a fee request. Mr. Bello's feelings are not, as a matter of law, competent evidence of any wrongdoing by Mr. Blumstein.<sup>3</sup> Feelings are not facts. It is also difficult to reconcile how Mr. Bello could fail to question Mr. Blumstein even once over a period of nine years if he indeed felt pressured by Mr. Blumstein or directed by Mr. Blumstein to take an action he did not feel comfortable with. Furthermore, Mr. Bello never once brought this issue of alleged "pressure" before any grievance process available to him as a school administrator. Under the DCSAA Contract between Miami Date County Public Schools and Dade County School Administrators' Association Effective July 1, 2015 through Jun 30, 2018 (the "Union Agreement"), Mr. Bello was afforded robust protections to allow him to bring "complaints and grievances" that may "arise between the Union and the Employer or between the Employer and any one or more employees concerning the application or interpretation of the wages, hours, and terms and conditions of employment, as defined in this Agreement." See Union Agreement, p. 78. Mr. Bello never commenced any grievance procedure or even made any claim of pressure against Mr. Blumstein until being questioned by the OIG.

Finally, Mr. Bello's testimony cannot be evaluated without considering that it was given in the context of the OIG questioning Mr. Bello as to his allegedly improper use of the "Principal Selection Form" every year, his failure to disclose on the form that Chabad Chayil was operating an after school care program on his campus, his failure to properly vet Chabad Chayil before approving their applications and his granting of access to Chabad Chayil when it was not an RFP authorized provider. Mr. Bello, quite clearly, felt the effect of being confronted with his failure to perform his function as the Principal of Aventura Waterways and, therefore, had a substantial motive to point blame to another source for his apparent misfeasance in approving Chabad Chayil for nine years. In short, Mr. Bello was a witness with a motive to blame others for his failures who told a less than credible story.

The other witness featured in the Draft Report is Ms. Cabrera. Ms. Cabrera gave the following internally contradictory testimony: Ms. Cabrera testified that her responsibilities “do not include approval of the fee waivers” when, in fact, she later admitted in her testimony to providing fee waivers. She also testified that she received fee waivers directly from Mr. Blumstein, that Mr. Blumstein “never specifically told her that it had to be approved” but that she felt pressured because Mr. Blumstein worked for a School Board Member. Feelings, of course, are not facts and they certainly are not competent evidence. Furthermore, those feelings are entirely unreasonable. Ms. Cabrera does not report to the School Board (where Mr. Karp sits as one of 9 members), and the School Board lacks any authority to fire Ms. Cabrera. See The School Board of Miami-Dade County Bylaws & Policies, Section 0132 (“Pursuant to State law, the School Board exercises its executive power through the appointment of the Superintendent, legal counsel, Chief Auditor, and Inspector General.”). Under Ms. Cabrera’s testimony, any discussions between Mr. Blumstein and a school administrator would necessarily constitute pressure or coercion simply because Mr. Blumstein works for Dr. Karp. That, of course, is nonsensical and runs counter to Mr. Blumstein’s job functions. Finally, Ms. Cabrera, like Mr. Bello, had the right and opportunity to bring a grievance against Mr. Blumstein and never did.

Ms. Cabrera’s testimony also featured sheer speculation and conjecture. Ms. Cabrera claims in the Draft Report that when Mr. Blumstein did not agree with her, he would “routinely go over her head and meet with Mr. Steiger” and that Mr. Blumstein was “the catalyst in this entire process . . .” At the same time, Ms. Cabrera admits that she was “not privy” to any conversations that might have taken place between Mr. Blumstein and Mr. Steiger. See Draft Report, p. 17. The Draft Report lists Ms. Cabrera’s accusations even though she admitted she had no idea whether Mr. Blumstein and Mr. Steiger ever discussed the matter or, if they did, what Mr. Blumstein and Mr. Steiger might have discussed since she never heard or witnessed any of their conversations. Speculation is not competent evidence.

Ms. Cabrera’s testimony is also refuted by Mr. Steiger, her boss, who testified that he told Ms. Cabrera that Mr. Blumstein could not make her do anything and that she should direct Mr. Blumstein to him in the event of a problem. Ms. Cabrera never testifies that she asked Mr. Blumstein to speak to Mr. Steiger. Mr. Steiger also testified that while he has met with Mr. Blumstein on a host of issues over the years, he could not recall meeting him regarding Chabad Chayil. See Draft Report, p. 19.

Finally, Ms. Cabrera, like Mr. Bello, was derelict in her duty. Ms. Cabrera admits that she knew Chabad Chayil was purportedly charging for its classes and that this disqualified Chabad Chayil for a fee waiver. Yet, Ms. Cabrera repeatedly and improperly approved fee waivers. Ms. Cabrera, therefore, has a strong motivation to point blame to others for her own failure to implement applicable Board policy, rule and law.

In contrast to the dubious accusations from Mr. Bello and Ms. Cabrera, a close reading of the Draft Report shows credible testimony by multiple school administrators refuting any allegation of pressure. First, Scott Saperstein refuted any allegation of coercion. Mr. Saperstein served as a teacher and counselor at Aventura Waterways from 2008 to 2009 and Assistant Principal from 2009 to 2013. From 2013 to 2017, he served as the Principal at VABHOE and approved Temporary Use Applications and fee waivers for Chabad Chayil starting in 2016. Mr. Saperstein made two critical exculpatory statements that seem to have no effect on the OIG. First, Mr. Saperstein testified that Chabad Chayil “periodically reached out to him and made a pitch for VABHOE classrooms” but that he turned them down. He only agreed to the program for the 2016 – 2017 School Year because parents started requesting the program. See Draft Report, p. 20. If Mr. Saperstein (or any other Principal or school administrator for that matter) had been subject to pressure from Mr. Blumstein and Dr. Karp, how is it possible that he would have rejected Chabad Chayil’s requests before 2016? The OIG never notes this discrepancy in its narrative against Mr. Blumstein and never asks that critical question. Second, Mr. Saperstein testified that while “Mr. Blumstein visited VABHOE on occasion, neither he nor Dr. Karp ever directed (Saperstein) to approve Chabad Chayil’s Temporary Use Agreement or fee waivers.” See Draft Report, p. 20 (emphasis added).

The Draft Report at least references Mr. Saperstein’s testimony in the body of the document (although it gives it no weight). In a disturbing pattern, the Draft Report buries the fact, in two critical footnotes, that a host of other school administrators responsible for the approvals of the Temporary Use Agreements and fees waiver refute any allegation of coercion by Mr. Blumstein. In footnote 23, the reader of the Draft Report learns that the OIG also interviewed Cheryl Nasai, former Director of Facility Rentals who served in this capacity until 2015 (or for 8 of the 11 years during which Chabad Chayil sought fee waivers in connection with classes at Aventura Waterways and/or VABHOE). Ms. Nasai preceded Ms. Cabrera as Director of Facility Rentals. She testified she “was never pressured by Dr. Karp or Mr. Blumstein to approve any organization.” See Draft Report, p. 16, FN 23 (emphasis added).

In footnote 27, the reader of the Draft Report then learns that the OIG “interviewed various other M-DCPS administrators whose responsibilities included approval of the Temporary Use Agreements and the fee waivers.” These various administrators stated “that they had never been approached or pressured by either Dr. Karp or Mr. Blumstein about the fee waivers or Temporary Use Agreement.” See Draft Report, p. 20, FN 27 (emphasis added). The Draft Report does not even name these administrators, evidencing again the OIG’s total disregard for competent, exculpatory testimony.

Finally, Mr. Bello’s accusations are directly refuted by Rosa Mayra Babani, who served from 2008 to 2013 as the secretary to Principal Bello at Aventura Waterways. The OIG never interviewed Ms. Babani and her name does not appear anywhere in the Draft Report. Ms. Babani writes, in a sworn statement, as follows:

On July 29, 2019, I spoke with Mr. Jerold Blumstein regarding an anonymous complaint he shared with me made against him alleging that he coerced Principal Bello to sign a use agreement and fee waiver allowing for Chabd Chayil to use the School for an after school program. The above accusation is not something I observed or believe to be true.

Ms. Babani further writes:

Mr. Blumstein did nothing more than assist others with the required MDCPS paperwork. Mr. Blumstein never used his position as Chief of Staff of Dr. Karp to coerce, intimidate, threaten or put pressure on me or anyone at the School, including Principal Bello, to sign any forms. . . Occasionally, Mr. Blumstein would personally deliver to the AWK8 office Center paperwork which in turn as the Principal's Secretary I would deliver to Mr. Bello the Chabad Chayil paperwork. . . . In my estimation Mr. Blumstein never used his position as Chief of Staff for Dr. Karp to coerce Principal Bello to allow Chabad Chayil free use of the School.

Ms. Babani's letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 4. Ms. Babani, it should be emphasized, worked side by side with Principal Bello, as his secretary, for a period of five years.

Although the majority of the school administrators interviewed entirely contradicted the accusations against Mr. Blumstein, the Draft Report still allows the allegations of "pressure" leveled against Mr. Blumstein to remain in the report (albeit without a finding that they are substantiated). In doing so, the Draft Report republishes false allegations that are materially harmful to the professional reputation of Mr. Blumstein and, accordingly, the Draft Report fails to comply with the mandates of the Quality Standards or the rules of the School Board. These accusations should either be stricken from the Draft Report or expressly found not to be substantiated.

IV. The Draft Report Is Clearly Incomplete

The Draft Report focuses on Figures 5 and 6, which are emails on June 20, 2016, regarding Chabad Chayil's use of school facilities. However, the Draft Report misconstrues the emails by failing to include the entire thread of email communications. The missing set of communications is attached hereto as Composite Exhibit 5 and tells a very different story in which:

1. when Mr. Blumstein followed up on the status of the fee waiver on June 20, the application was already approved by Principal Bello on June 16, 2016;
2. the only pending approval for the commencement of the program as of June 20 was the fee waiver;
3. there was a need to move quickly with the fee waiver because the program was scheduled to start the next day, June 21 (a fact that was not even mentioned or considered by the OIG);
4. Mr. Blumstein requests that Mr. Bello "Kindly let me know if you can assist with this request";
5. that other administrators (i.e., Sally Alayon) approved the fee waiver within four (4) minutes of Mr. Blumstein's email and asked Principal Bello to sign off as well; and

6. Ms. Cabrera writes to Principal Bello on June 20 saying “Please allow Chabad Chayil access to the grounds at your location beginning tomorrow June 21, 2016 through June 30, 2016. The hours are from 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 pm. Let me know if you have any questions.”

See Composite Exhibit 5.

If Ms. Cabrera was being pressured by Mr. Blumstein in this email thread, then why would she ask Mr. Bello to grant Chabad Chayil access to the school the next day and offer to answer any questions that Principal Bello may have with respect to Chabad Chayil’s use of the school’s facilities? The OIG never asks this critical question.

Reviewing these emails and other communications in their totality (something the OIG did not do) unequivocally substantiates no questionable behavior by Mr. Blumstein; rather, the emails show a School Board employee at work trying to follow up on the status of a fee waiver request. This is precisely what Mr. Blumstein did for Chabad Chayil just as he did for various other organizations, namely helping constituents navigate the bureaucratic process and “red tape,” something that should be praised, not punished. At no point did Mr. Blumstein order, coerce, or pressure Ms. Cabrera to do or approve anything she was not comfortable with, nor did he ever ask or order anybody else to disregard the applicable Board policies, rules and law. There is not a single piece of credible evidence to the contrary.

V. The Draft Report Misconstrues the Methods Organizations Could Use in Running After-School Care Programs

The Draft Report focuses on the fact that Chabad Chayil utilized what the OIG considers to be an incorrect way of running an after-school care program. The OIG claims that outside agencies are required to be preapproved by the School Board after being selected via a Request for Proposal (RFP) process prior to entering into an Affiliating Agreement for the provision of after school care services. See Draft Report, p. 2. However, this is simply incorrect and demonstrates a lack of knowledge as to legitimate processes and procedures of the school system.

A Principal has options in approving an after-school care program at a school, not just the RFP approved after-school care programs. Exhibit 12 of the Draft Report consists of a Principal Selection Form that allows the Principals of each school to select an after-school program at a school. The fact that there is an option for a “Principal-Operated Program”, which allows the school to house an after-school program that is managed and supervised by the Principal and his or her staff, clearly shows that there is an option for organizations to run such programs, separate and apart from the RFP selection process. Exhibit 12 to the Draft Report, in fact, shows additional ways in which after care programs can be delivered, including grant funded programs, city compacts and a catch all category labeled “other.” See e.g. Exhibit 12 to the Draft Report, “2013-2014 Principal Selection Form.”

The availability of school property for different after care programs beyond those authorized by RFP is further reflected by the fact that Chabad Chayil had Affiliating Agreements for Educational Services at On-Campus Locations with the Miami-Dade County Public Schools, and specifically, Aventura Waterways K-8 Center. See Affiliating Agreements For Educational Services at On Campus Locations attached as Exhibit 6. The Agreements are executed by various administrators, including the School Board attorney. The 2009 Affiliated Agreement includes the Jessica Lunsford Affidavit, the Application for Temporary Use of School Building Facilities, and the Request for Fee Waiver. If this option of using a Temporary Use Agreement and fee waiver was not appropriate, it would not make sense that so many administrators, as well as the School Board Attorney, would have approved of and signed off on the Affiliating Agreements attached hereto as Exhibit 6.

School Board Rule 6Gx13-1D-1.05 (in effect until July 1, 2011) also expressly provided for the use of school facilities in the manner utilized by Chabad Chayil. This School Board rule empowered the Associate Superintendent of School Operations to grant use of school facilities to organizations that are “School Allied” – meaning they provided a program that promoted the welfare of the school and/or its students – if the organization made the program available to all students of the school or community on a no-charge basis. The following organizations were classified as school-allied: Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, Brownies, American Red Cross Greater Miami & The Keys, 4-H Clubs G. Young Men's Christian Association, Young Women's Christian Association and Jewish Community Centers (Young Men's/Women's Hebrew Association). The rule allowed the Associate Superintendent to identify other School Allied organizations. This Board Rule allowed for the free use of the building when a custodian was regularly on duty subject to the Principal's judgment as to the number of groups that can be accommodated. The Draft Report seems to suggest that this rule never existed.

The Draft Report incorrectly concludes that the Temporary Use Agreements are not a correct vehicle to allow an organization to gain access to school facilities and should not have been used to authorize any organization to operate an after-school care program in contravention of established School Board-approved procedures. The Draft Report at page 25 focuses in on questions that were asked by potential RFP proposers in 2007 that suggest the RFP process is the exclusive method for an organization to run an after-school program on school facilities. The Draft Report, however, does not attach the entire document as an Exhibit which makes it impossible to verify whether other language in the document confirms the OIG's interpretation or refutes it. In any event, the OIG appears to work under a misunderstanding as to the role/purpose of the RFP.

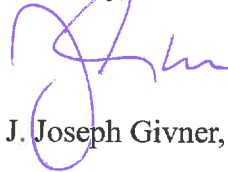

While the Request for Proposals is a process to vet organizations that would like to provide after-school care programs, it clearly is not the only method available. The fact is that there are hundreds of other organizations that have run after-care programs at Miami-Dade County Schools in the past three (3) years alone without having gone through the RFP process. See Exhibit 7 (listing all groups that have been granted the right to use school facilities since 2016) and Exhibit 8 (sampling of websites of groups that used school facilities to operate after-school care programs). This list includes, but is not limited to: Child Evangelism Fellowship; Arts for Learning; Well of Living Water Christian Fellowship & Outreach Ministries; Big Ideas Educational Services, Inc.; Abundant Living Citi Church – Citikidz After School Program; Communities In Schools of Miami; TACOLCY; Community Coalition, Inc.; B. Wright Leadership Academy; After School Film Institute; Dibia DREAM; The Church By The Sea; Dade County Sports; BBharts; Angels Reach Academy; 5000 Role Models of Excellence Project; Foundation to Fame; Empowering Youth, Inc.; Florida Karate Club; Be Strong International; Great Sports, Inc.; Alliance JJ Miami; B.O.S.S. Youth League Foundation; Career Source South Florida; Baptist Health South Florida; Artcademics Academy, Inc.; 34 Ways Foundation; 305 Hoops; Cyclone Soccer Miami; CORE Global Ministries; Miami Rowing Club; Miami Beach Police Athletic League; Amigos for Kids; Community Christian Church; Concerned African Women; Boy Scouts of America; American Youth Soccer Organization; American Dance Alliance; A Learning Day Care Center for Kids; All-Stars Kid Sports; Challenge2Change; Christ Fellowship; ALM Sports; Aventura Learning Center; Bakehouse Art Complex; Florida ASPIRA; City of North Miami Beach Parks & Recreation; City of Opa-Locka Parks & Recreation; City of South Miami Parks & Recreation; Cub Scouting; Dade County Sports; Dance Steps Miami Co.; Early Learning Coalition of Miami-Dade/Monroe; Easterseals South Florida, Inc.; enFamilia, Inc.; Evolutionary Arts Life Foundation, Inc.; Family Action Network Movement (FANM); First Serve Miami; Fit Kids of America; FIU After-School All-Stars; Key Club International; Florida Hardball, Inc.; Friends of South Point Elementary (FOSPE) Foundation; and Gang Alternative, Inc.. Clearly, school officials do not treat or consider the RFP process as the exclusive process to run after-care programs. The “correct” process was not bypassed by Chabad Chayil or any other subjects of this investigation.

VI. Conclusion

This Draft Report is fundamentally flawed and fails to meet the minimum requirements for publication in its current form. Mr. Blumstein respectfully requests that this Draft Report be revised prior to publication as follows: (i) strike any substantiation that Mr. Blumstein aided Chabad Chayil in gaining free use of school facilities; and (ii) strike the false and defamatory accusations made by Mr. Bello and Ms. Cabrera against Mr. Blumstein or, alternatively, enter a finding that their statements are contradicted and refuted by Mr. Blumstein and Principal Bello’s secretary, and are also uncorroborated and unsupported by others and thereby unsubstantiated.

Sincerely,

J. Joseph Givner, Esq.

INTRODUCTION

The Association of Inspectors General was organized on October 26, 1996. As stated in the Association's Articles of Organization, Constitution and Bylaws, the purpose of the Association is to:

foster and promote public accountability and integrity in the general areas of the prevention, examination, investigation, audit, detection, elimination and prosecution of fraud, waste and abuse through policy research and analysis; standardization of practices, policies, and ethics, encouragement of professional development by providing and sponsoring educational programs, and the establishment of professional qualifications, certification, and licensing.

On October 27, 1999, the Board of Directors of the Association voted to create a committee to establish generally accepted inspector general principles and standards. The committee prepared these principles and standards following an open procedure that allowed for due process. The committee drafted the principles and standards, basing the standards on quality standards for federal inspectors general issued by the President's Council on Integrity and Efficiency. The drafts were developed for use by the broad range of inspector general offices throughout the nation. Each of the drafts was then distributed to the federal, state, and local inspector general community for review and comment. The committee considered all comments in detail, revised the drafts as appropriate, and presented the drafts to the Board of Directors. On May 16, 2001, the Board of Directors of the Association found that the draft documents represent generally accepted principles, quality standards, and best practices generally applicable to federal, state, and local offices of inspectors general. On that date the Board formally approved the following five documents:

- Statement of Principles for Offices of Inspector General
- Quality Standards for Offices of Inspector General
- Quality Standards for Investigations
- Quality Standards for Inspections, Evaluations and Reviews
- Quality Standards for Audits

The appendix contains information about the committee and the process it followed, as well as subsequent amendments to the principles and quality standards.

The Association recommends that offices of inspector general adopt these documents for their use with the following or similar language:

The generally accepted principles and quality standards, formally approved by the Association of Inspectors General on 16 May 2001, as most recently amended in May 2014, are hereby adopted by this office insofar as they do not conflict with statute, regulation, executive order, or other policy of this office.

STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLES FOR OFFICES OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

Accountability is key to maintaining public trust in our democracy. Inspectors general at all levels of government are entrusted with fostering and promoting accountability and integrity in government. While the scope of this oversight varies among Offices of Inspectors General (OIGs), the level of public trust, and hence public expectation, embodied in these offices remains exceptionally high. The public expects OIGs to hold government officials accountable for efficient, cost-effective government operations and to prevent, detect, identify, expose and eliminate fraud, waste, corruption, illegal acts and abuse. This public expectation is best served by inspectors general when they follow the basic principles of integrity, objectivity, independence, confidentiality, professionalism, competence, courage, trust, honesty, fairness, forthrightness, public accountability and respect for others and themselves. Inspectors general are granted substantial powers to perform their duties. In exercising these powers, inspectors general regard their offices as a public trust, and their prime duty as serving the public interest.

By the nature of their work, OIGs are held to the same or higher expectations than other government officials in using prudence with public resources. Because OIGs often identify and describe wasteful use of public resources by organizations under scrutiny, they have a concomitant duty to conduct their own work in an efficient and effective manner. Office of the Inspector General (OIG) work should adhere to professional standards and include quality controls to assure that all products are of the highest possible quality. This requires an internal quality assurance program and suggests periodic external quality reviews for each OIG.

An OIG is judged by the results of its efforts and the timeliness, accuracy, objectivity, fairness, and usefulness of these results. These are the cornerstones of OIG accountability. Qualitative and quantitative performance measures should be developed measured internally, and reported to the public.

BASIS OF LEGAL AUTHORITY FOR AN OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL

An OIG should be formally created as a legal entity. The Association recommends that the OIG be established by statute or, if necessary, by executive order. The statute should establish the OIG's mandate, authority, and powers; provide for confidentiality of records and proceedings; identify qualifications for the inspector general and staff; protect the office's independence; and provide protection to whistleblowers.

- A. Mandate: The statute should state the OIGs mission and identify the operations, programs, departments, or agencies subject to the OIG's jurisdiction.

Commentary: The Association recommends that the legal authority establish a mission that encompasses prevention and detection of fraud, waste, and abuse; efficient and effective use of public resources; and promotion of public integrity.

- B. Authority: The statute should authorize the OIG to conduct specific functions, such as:

- to audit, inspect, evaluate, and investigate the activities, records and individuals affiliated with contracts and procurements undertaken by the governmental entity and any other official act or function of the governmental entity.
- to conduct criminal, civil and administrative investigations.
- to engage in prevention activities, including but not limited to: review of legislation; review of rules, regulations, policies, procedures, and transactions; training and education.
- to refer matters for further civil, criminal, and administrative action to appropriate administrative and prosecutorial agencies.
- to conduct joint investigations and projects with other oversight or law enforcement agencies.
- to issue public reports.
- to establish policies and procedures to guide functions and processes conducted by the OIG.
- to attend any meetings held by agencies.
- to recoup the cost of investigations from nongovernmental entities involved in willful misconduct.

- C. Powers: The statute should grant the OIG specific powers and identify any limits on those powers, such as:

- the power of subpoena for persons and documents, requirements for service of the subpoena, confidentiality of subpoenaed documents and testimony, and subpoena enforcement provisions.
- law enforcement authority (police powers).

- access to all records maintained by or available to any governmental entity relating in any way relate to the OIG's duties and responsibilities.
- access to the head of any public entity, when necessary for any purpose pertaining to the OIG's responsibilities.
- access to testimony or documents from any individual, firm, or nongovernmental entity relating to the duties and responsibilities of the OIG.
- require public employees to report to the OIG information regarding fraud, waste, corruption, illegal acts, and abuse.

D. Confidentiality: The statute should authorize the OIG to maintain appropriate confidentiality of records and, to the extent practicable, of the identities of individuals who provide information to the OIG, unless it is necessary to make such records or identities public in the performance of his/her duties. The statute should impose penalties for breach of confidentiality.

E. Inspector general and staff qualifications: The statute should provide requirements for the position of inspector general and staff. The inspector general should be selected without regard to political affiliation on the basis of integrity, capability for strong leadership, and demonstrated ability in accounting, auditing, financial analysis, law, management analysis, public administration, investigation, or criminal justice administration or other appropriate fields. The inspector general should hold at appointment, or be required to obtain within a time certain after appointment, certification as a Certified Inspector General®.

Commentary: The Association established the Certified Inspector General® (CIG) program in 1999 after identifying six areas of core competency. Qualified participants (inspectors general and experienced senior staff) can earn the CIG designation by attending the Inspector General Institute®. Highly qualified instructors present segments on the following six areas of core competency:

- Context of the inspector general function
- Ethics
- Public management issues
- Legal issues
- Audits, inspections, and reviews
- Investigating fraud, waste, and abuse

The staff of the OIG should collectively possess the variety of knowledge, skills, and experience needed to accomplish the OIG mission. The OIG should ensure that staff receive appropriate training and that OIG staff attain and maintain appropriate professional licensure and certification.

F. Independence: The statute should contain provisions to help establish and maintain the independence of the inspector general and the OIG. The statute should address:

- Appointment and removal - Procedures should be established for the appointment of the inspector general and for the removal of the inspector general only for cause.
- Term - The inspector general should be appointed for a fixed term.
- Organizational placement - The OIG should be placed in the governmental structure to maximize independence from operations, programs, policies, and procedures over which the OIG has authority.
- Funding - The OIG should be funded through a mechanism that will provide adequate funding to perform its mission without subjecting it to internal or external impairments on its independence.

G. Whistleblower protection - The statute should provide protections to complainants who, as a result of their complaints to the OIG, might be subject to retaliation by their employers.

QUALITY STANDARDS

OIGs should strive to deliver outstanding products that are timely, objective, accurate, balanced, and presented in such a way that appropriate officials will be able to act on the information conveyed. Conclusions and recommendations should be well thought out and adequately supported by objective evidence. In order to ensure that these characteristics of competence are routinely integrated into OIG work, the Board of Directors of the Association formally approved the following quality standards, and any further revisions:

- Quality Standards for Offices of Inspector General
- Quality Standards for Investigations
- Quality Standards for Inspections, Evaluations and Reviews
- Quality Standards for Audits

INTRODUCTION

Purpose

This document contains quality standards for the management, operation, and conduct of Offices of Inspector General (OIGs). They have been formulated and approved by the Association of Inspectors General. The standards are advisory and are not intended to impose requirements. They are for Office of the Inspector General (OIG) use to guide the conduct of official duties in a professional manner.

Scope

OIGs are established with generally similar missions, but often under differing authorities and mandates. These differences, as well as other factors, may affect the practices of various offices and, consequently, the applicability of standards to these offices.

Background

In accomplishing their missions, OIGs use a variety of approaches. For example, audits, investigations, and inspections are used as a basis for evaluating agency programs and operations, for identifying and presenting for prosecution criminal and civil wrongdoing, and addressing administrative misconduct. Reviews of allegations received through hotlines and other means help to identify high-risk areas and determine where internal controls should be strengthened. Some OIGs use a variety of techniques and titles, such as fraud control programs, inspections, operational surveys, and other special activities to focus attention on agency needs to improve operations. Reviews of legislation and regulations serve to strengthen controls and ensure that the public interest is protected without imposing unnecessary burdens. Reports to public officials, agency heads, agency management, legislative bodies, and prosecutorial authorities keep appropriate officials apprised of the results of OIG activities.

Basic Premise

Public office carries with it a responsibility to apply public resources economically, efficiently, and effectively with the integrity necessary to maintain the public trust. Because OIGs have a unique mission in government related to public office responsibility, the Association has formally approved the following general quality standards.

INDEPENDENCE

A. General Standard

The inspector general and OIG staff involved in performing or supervising any assignment should be free from personal or external impairments to independence and should constantly maintain an independent attitude and appearance.

B. Background

The inspector general is responsible for establishing and maintaining independence so that OIG opinions, conclusions, judgments, and recommendations will be impartial and viewed by others as impartial. The inspector general and OIG staff should consider not only whether they are independent and whether their own attitudes and beliefs permit them to be independent, but also whether there is anything about their situation which might lead others to question their independence. All situations deserve consideration since it is important that the OIG be as independent as possible and impartial in fact and in appearance.

The inspector general and OIG staff need to consider both personal and external impairments. If either of these affect the OIG's ability to perform its work impartially, the inspector general should decline to perform the work and report the circumstances to the appropriate official. If the inspector general cannot decline to perform the work, the impairment should be disclosed in any resulting report, along with any potential impact the impairment might have on the outcome of the report's conclusions.

C. Personal Impairments

There are circumstances in which the Inspector General and OIG staff cannot be impartial because their personal situations may create actual or perceived conflicts of interest. In such situations, the OIG staff who are affected by these circumstances should disqualify themselves from an OIG review and allow the work to continue without them. Personal impairments may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Official, professional, personal, or financial relationships that might appear to lead the OIG to limit the extent of the work, to limit disclosure, or to alter the outcome of the work.
- Preconceived ideas toward activities, individuals, groups, organizations, objectives, or particular programs that could bias the outcome of the work.

- Previous involvement, especially recent involvement, in a decision-making or management capacity that could affect the work.
- Biases that may affect the objectivity of the OIG staff member in the performance work.
- Conduct of a review by an individual who had previously performed work subject to review.

D. External Impairments

Factors external to the OIG can restrict the efforts or interfere with the OIGs ability to form independent and objective opinions and conclusions. For example, under the following conditions work could be adversely affected and the OIG would not have complete freedom to make an independent and objective judgment:

1. Interference or undue influence in the selection, appointment, and employment of OIG staff.
2. Restrictions on funds or other resources dedicated to the OIG, such as timely, independent legal counsel, that could prevent the OIG from performing essential work.
3. Interference or undue influence in the OIGs selection of what is to be examined, determination of scope and timing of work or approach to be used, the appropriate content of any resulting report, or resolution of audit findings.
4. Influences that jeopardize continued employment of the inspector general or individual OIG staff for reasons other than competency or the need for OIG services.
5. Interference with OIG access to documents or individuals necessary to perform OIG work.
6. Improper political pressures that affect the selection of areas for review, the performance of those reviews, and the objective reporting of conclusions without fear of censure.

PLANNING

A. General Standard

The OIG should maintain a planning system for assessing the nature, scope, trends, vulnerabilities, special problems, and inherent risks of agency programs and operations and for use in establishing the goals, objectives, and tasks to be accomplished by the OIG within a specific time period.

B. Background

The inspector general is responsible for ensuring that the resources available to the OIG are used as efficiently and effectively as possible. Execution of this responsibility requires a planning process designed to maximize the impact of the OIG in detecting and preventing fraud, waste, and abuse and in encouraging economy, efficiency, and effectiveness, with the commitment of resources needed to accomplish each OIG task.

C. Elements of the Planning Process

The OIG should carefully consider the universe subject to the OIG's jurisdiction. Analysis of this universe will identify the nature of programs and operations, their scope and dollar magnitude, their staffing and budgetary trends, their perceived vulnerabilities, and their inherent risks.

The OIG should develop a strategy for screening those programs and operations identified as potential subjects for review. The strategy should be designed to OIG resources effectively. Total OIG capabilities, programs, and resources, should be considered in developing this strategy, which may encompass activities such as audits, investigations, inspections, operational surveys, vulnerability assessments, internal control reviews, and fraud control studies. The OIG should also consider the plans of other organizations. Strategic planning, in this context, need not be limited to a specific time period and should be a flexible process that allows for appropriate changes.

Based on the above analysis, the OIG should set priorities and create action plans. Because resources are rarely sufficient to meet requirements, the OIG must choose among competing priorities. In making these choices, OIG considerations may include:

1. Vulnerabilities to fraud and other crimes, waste, abuse, and mismanagement.
2. Needs and priorities of the agency, legislative bodies, and other appropriate officials.

3. Benefits likely to result from OIG review, such as better internal controls; improved economy, efficiency, and effectiveness; detection and prevention of fraud, waste, abuse, and mismanagement; and cost recovery.
4. Probable cost-effectiveness of each selection, (OIG resources that would be expended compared to anticipated benefits).
5. Impacts of alternative OIG review approaches: for example, identifying major systemic problems as opposed to concentrating on individual manifestations of these systemic problems.

D. Prevention

OIG planning should incorporate a strategy to identify the causes of fraud, waste, and abuse, and a commitment to help overcome these problems. OIG prevention efforts may include:

1. A routine procedure for OIG staff to identify and report prevention opportunities identified in their work, and for OIG managers to refer these to appropriate officials.
2. Special awareness and training initiatives designed to orient public or private program personnel to systemic weaknesses in their programs and operations;
3. Reviews and comments on initial designs of new programs and operations;
4. Analyses of audit, investigation, and other OIG reports to identify trends and patterns;
5. Education and training programs to build the capacity of public officials and other to operate efficiently, effectively, and ethically; and
6. An effective means for tracking recommendations.

ORGANIZING

A. General Standard

The inspector general is responsible for organizing the OIG to assure efficient and effective deployment of the OIG's resources.

B. Background

The fact that each OIG is different and approaches its mission within widely differing contexts precludes prescription of a consistent organizational structure for OIGs. An inspector general may wish to emphasize such areas as fraud control, investigations, vulnerability assessments, internal controls, inspections, operational surveys, or computer security. The following section provides several basic organizational principles that the inspector general may apply.

C. Organizational Principles

1. Duties and responsibilities should be clearly assigned within the OIG structure. There need not be a separate organizational unit for each duty and responsibility. The inspector general should appoint staff needed to perform the OIG mission effectively.
2. The OIG organizational structure should foster coordinated, balanced, and integrated accomplishment of the OIG mission, goals, and objectives.
3. Recruiting, staffing, and training should support the OIG mission and organizational structure.
4. Quality assurance and internal evaluation functions should be kept as independent as possible of the OIG operational units. Where limited size or resources preclude such organizational independence, quality assurance and evaluation assessments should be conducted by personnel not assigned to the OIG units reviewed.

STAFF QUALIFICATIONS

A. General Standard

OIG staff should collectively possess the variety of knowledge, skills, and experience needed to accomplish the OIG mission.

B. Background

Today, in a period of rapid technological change and unprecedented management demands, special levels of staff competence are needed throughout government. Because of the unique nature of their mission, OIGs require staff capable of efficiently and effectively dealing with a multitude of different programs and activities, many of them representing extremely complex and sophisticated areas of expertise. OIG objectives cannot be achieved without OIG staff who are professionally and technically qualified to accomplish this.

C. Basic Qualifications

The qualifications noted below relate to the collective knowledge, skills and experience of an OIG, not necessarily to any one staff member. It is the inspector general's responsibility to decide which skills can be obtained through support service contractors or outside consultants, more effective use of staff members who already possess the requisite skills, staff development and training, or new recruitment.

These qualifications include the following:

1. Knowledge of OIG statutory requirements and applicable directives, rules, and regulations.
2. Working familiarity with the organizations, programs, activities, and functions within the OIG's area of responsibility.
3. Skills needed to evaluate the efficiency, economy, and effectiveness of program performance within the OIG's area of responsibility.
4. Knowledge of government policies, requirements, and guidelines related to a particular task.
5. State-of-the-art technical skills as needed such as computer auditing, detection of computer fraud, review of information technology design requirements, statistical sampling and analysis, factor analysis, trend analysis, systems and management analysis, undercover techniques, and covert surveillance.

6. Appropriate licensure and certification in the professional activities conducted by the OIG (for example, Certified Inspector General®, Certified Fraud Examiner, Certified Public Accountant, etc.).
7. Managerial skills for supervisors and team leaders.
8. Knowledge of entities, groups, and individuals that interact with government agencies and programs subject to the OIG's jurisdiction.

D. Skills Assessment and Staff Development

To ensure that the OIG staff possesses needed skills, the inspector general should assess the skills of OIG staff, determine the extent to which these skills match OIG staff requirements, and the methods by which any deficiencies can be corrected. In staff development, the inspector general should identify opportunities for staff development to meet the OIG's skill needs.

E. Continuing Professional Education/Development

OIG staff performing investigations, inspections, evaluations, reviews, or audits need to maintain their professional competence through continuing professional education (CPE). Therefore, each staff person who performs investigations, inspections, evaluations, reviews, or audits should complete, every 2 years, at least 40 hours of CPE that directly enhance the person's professional proficiency. Dependent upon the focus of the office, at least 12 of the 40 hours of CPE should be in subjects directly related to the person's responsibility (investigation, inspection, evaluation, review, or audit), the government environment, or the specific or unique environment in which the entity subject to examination operates.

DIRECTION AND CONTROL

A. General Standard

The inspector general should direct and control OIG operations to ensure that (1) all activities are adequately supervised, (2) performance is consistent with professional standards, and (3) periodic internal assessments are made of OIG activities and accomplishments.

B. Supervision

OIG supervisors at all levels should ensure that OIG staff receive effective direction, guidance, and oversight, and training. Proper supervision is required throughout project assignments. This includes making sure that personnel explicitly understand, without ambiguity, the nature, scope, content and timing of the work assigned to them, and what product is expected. It also includes sufficient interim checks to determine whether jobs are on schedule and are being executed in accordance with plans, so that necessary mid-course corrections can be made without disrupting the assignments. Supervision should be exercised at each level of the organization and for each level of task responsibility. The actual amount of supervision provided will vary, based on resources available, complexity, and sensitivity of the work, and experience of staff assigned to the assignment.

C. Quality Control

The OIG should establish procedures to ensure adequate quality control over its work. Quality control is an inherent responsibility of the OIG supervisors. Quality control and quality assurance are not synonymous. Quality assurance (discussed in a separate standard) is a formal and distinct effort intended to ensure that the entire OIGs are adhering to professional standards and the dictates of sound management. Quality control is the process by which supervisors ensure that the work of their immediate staff meets professional standards.

D. Assessing OIG Accomplishments

The OIG should periodically assess its results and accomplishments. Goals and objectives, no matter how carefully developed, are of little value unless progress toward meeting them is evaluated. The OIG should have a strategic plan that details its vision, mission, goals, objectives, strategies, and performance measures against which it expects to be held accountable. The OIG should also have a planning process to show expected performance and a management information system showing past performance and results. Realistic assessment of performance information is essential to identify shortfalls in performance, to improve future operations, to determine whether goals are reasonable and attainable, and to affix accountability for results.

The OIG should also evaluate, in terms of cost/benefit and other appropriate factors, the feasibility of different approaches to detecting fraud, waste, abuse, and mismanagement, and encouraging economy and efficiency. The OIG should be innovative in searching for and implementing new approaches to discharging its mission. Knowledge gained from these reviews may be used in various ways, such as, to improve the OIG's planning processes, to initiate more cost-effective approaches, to indicate the need to reorganize or improve OIG operations, or to identify the need for additional OIG resources and the concomitant benefits to be provided by the OIG.

COORDINATION

A. General Standard

The OIG should coordinate its activities internally and with other components of government to assure effective and efficient use of available resources.

B. Background

The inspector general is responsible for ensuring coordination of work planned and in process so that effective and efficient use made of limited resources and to avoid fragmentation or duplication of effort.

C. Elements of Coordination

1. In planning work to be performed, the OIG should coordinate with appropriate officials. The OIG should also take into consideration requests from legislative bodies, requests from other agencies and organizations, and complaints from employees and private citizens.
2. In fulfilling the responsibilities of the OIG, the OIG should also take appropriate steps to minimize unnecessarily duplicative work. In this regard, the OIG should coordinate its own work internally and with other groups performing independent evaluations of operations and programs.
3. Upon beginning a review and wherever else appropriate, the OIG should seek information concerning prior reviews of that activity or function. Data from such reviews should be utilized to the extent possible to reduce additional work by the OIG.
4. OIG staff should be alert to situations or problems that might affect other governmental organizations. When such situations arise, the OIG should coordinate with other affected organizations, as appropriate. Joint or coordinated reviews, audits, inspections, or investigations may be performed to fulfill the requirements of all parties involved.

REPORTING

A. General Standard

The OIG should keep appropriate officials and the public properly informed of the OIG's activities, findings, recommendations, and accomplishments as consistent with the OIG's mission, legal authority, organizational placement, and confidentiality requirements.

B. Background

Although OIGs typically share similar missions, there are differences among them. They vary in their legal authority, organizational placement, and confidentiality provisions vary considerably. Consequently, each OIG must determine the nature, frequency, and extent of its reporting.

C. Reports to Appropriate Officials

The OIG should inform appropriate officials through oral or written reports of important OIG undertakings, their outcomes, and any problems encountered that warrant the officials' attention. The OIG should alert them as early as possible to instances of criminal behavior or other egregious misconduct and waste that become known to the OIG, to the extent consistent with requirements imposed by confidentiality rules, the prosecutive system, and effective investigation, audit, inspection, or other review by the OIG.

D. Distribution of Final Reports

If authorized or required, final reports on the results of OIG activities should be distributed or otherwise made available to appropriate legislative bodies, interested parties, and the public to the extent consistent with the law, including requirements imposed by confidentiality rules and the prosecutive system.

E. Periodic Reports

If authorized or required, the OIG should issue periodic reports summarizing the OIG's activities, findings, recommendations, and accomplishments since the prior reporting period. The report should contain, to the extent consistent with the OIG's mission, legal authority, and confidentiality requirements:

- a description of significant problems within the OIG's jurisdiction and OIG recommendations for corrective action, including any recommendations for statutory changes;

- identification of each significant recommendation described in previous periodic OIG reports on which corrective action has not been completed;
- a summary of matters referred to prosecutive authorities and the prosecutions, convictions, recoveries and other results from such referrals;
- a summary of civil and administrative referrals and the results from such referrals;
- a list of each audit, inspection, or other report completed during the reporting period; and
- a statement of recommended amendments to the statute, regulations or procedures governing the OIG that would improve the effectiveness or the operation of the OIG.

Such periodic summary reports should be submitted to appropriate executive officials and, if authorized or required, to the appropriate legislative body and the public.

E. Reporting in Emergency Circumstances

If the OIG receives a credible allegation or other evidence of a significant and immediate danger to the health or safety of people or property, the OIG should inform appropriate individuals as soon as possible, consistent with confidentiality requirements.

F. Reporting Criminal Matters

If reasonable grounds exist to believe that there has been a violation of federal, state, or local criminal law and the matter is not subject to the jurisdiction of the OIG, the OIG should expeditiously report the allegation to the appropriate law enforcement authority.

G. Elements of Effective Reporting

All reports, whether written or oral, should 1) be appropriate to the purpose, concise, complete, objective, timely, relevant, free of jargon, and accurate; 2) comply with appropriate professional standards adopted by the OIG (including those for audits, investigations, and inspections, evaluations and reviews); and 3) conform to the OIG's established policies and procedures.

CONFIDENTIALITY

A. General Standard

The OIG should establish and follow procedures for safeguarding the identity of confidential sources and for protecting privileged and confidential information. Specifically, each OIG should ensure that:

- confidential sources who make complaints or provide information to the OIG will not have their identities disclosed without their consent unless the OIG determines that such disclosure is required by law or necessary to further the purposes of an audit, investigation, inspection, evaluation, review, or other inquiry; and
- privileged or confidential information gathered by the OIG will be protected from disclosure unless the OIG determines that such disclosure is required by law or necessary to further the purposes of an audit, investigation, inspection, evaluation, review, or other inquiry.

B. Background

OIGs are in the fact-gathering business. Many facts are gathered from employees or other individuals who might be subject to retribution or harassment if they were known to be cooperating with the OIG. Also, much of the information gathered concerns personal or proprietary matters. For these reasons, it is essential that the OIG comply with all legal mandates in order to safeguard the identities of confidential sources and protect sensitive information compiled during the course of audits, investigations, inspections, evaluations, reviews, or other inquiries. A variety of federal, state, and local government legislation govern this area of activity.

C. General Elements of the Confidentiality Standard

1. The OIG may receive and investigate complaints or information from employees concerning a possible activity constituting a violation of law, rules, or regulations, or mismanagement, waste of funds, abuse of authority or a substantial and specific danger to the public health or safety. The OIG should not, after receipt of such complaint or information, disclose the identity of the employee without the consent of the employee unless the Inspector General determines such disclosure is necessary or is required by statute.
2. OIG records containing the identities of confidential sources or other privileged and confidential information will be appropriately safeguarded.

3. Procedures for releasing OIG records to the public will be established, including the designation of those OIG staff authorized to make disclosure determinations.
4. In making determinations about the release of confidential information, applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations must be considered.

QUALITY ASSURANCE

A. General Standard

The OIG should establish and maintain a quality assurance program to ensure that work performed adheres to established OIG policies and procedures, meets established standards of performance, and is carried out economically, efficiently, and effectively.

B. Background

Because OIGs evaluate how well programs and operations are functioning, they have a special responsibility to ensure that their own operations are as effective as possible. Each OIG should implement a quality assurance program that provides reasonable assurance that the OIG is operating effectively and, specifically, that work performed by the OIG:

- is in accordance with OIG policies, procedures, and plans;
- is guided by the standards in this document and by the standards referenced herein; and,
- is carried out economically, efficiently and effectively.

Quality assurance differs from quality control. Quality control is the responsibility of line managers to ensure that their units and personnel perform work that meets the above standards. Quality assurance, on the other hand, is an evaluative effort conducted by sources external to the units/personnel being reviewed to ensure that the overall work of the OIG meets these standards. Thus, an audit supervisor ensuring that audit reports are properly referenced to working papers is an example of quality control. An independent reviewer evaluating the accuracy of the referencing process is an example of quality assurance, as is a team of external reviewers examining the extent to which the overall office investigative process is following professional standards.

Commentary: The Association recommends that OIGs periodically invite external reviewers to review the OIG's adherence to professional standards adopted by the OIG.

C. Elements of a Quality Assurance Program

1. A quality assurance program should be structured and implemented to assure an objective appraisal. The quality assurance assessments should be conducted by individuals who are not directly involved in the activity or unit being reviewed and who do not report to the immediate supervisor of that activity or unit.

2. The same professional care should be taken with quality assurance evaluations as with other OIG efforts, including quality of advance preparation, documentation of findings, supportable recommendations, and solicitation of comment from the supervisor of the activity or unit reviewed.
3. Where necessary to facilitate the quality assurance evaluations, an OIG should maintain a management information system that shows the status, progress, and results of OIG effort. Analysis of the data generated by this system should focus attention on particular deficiencies warranting review during quality assurance evaluations. Such analysis, for example, may identify inaccurate analysis, ill-defined scope of work, unclear written work, failure to follow applicable standards, apparent inconsistencies between offices, chronic delays in completing assignments, repeated requests that work be redone, abuse of leave, or failure to adopt new techniques. With such information, the quality assurance program should be able to determine the underlying causes of problems in OIG operations and develop realistic recommendations for correcting the deficiencies.
4. The Inspector General should strive for timely implementation of necessary improvements of office processes.

INTRODUCTION

Purpose

This document contains quality standards for investigations conducted by Offices of Inspector General (OIGs). They have been formulated and approved by the Association of Inspectors General. The standards are advisory and are not intended to impose requirements. They are for Office of the Inspector General (OIG) use to guide the conduct of official duties in a professional manner.

Scope

OIGs are established with generally similar missions, but often under differing authorities and mandates. These differences, as well as other factors, may affect the practices of various offices and, consequently, the applicability of standards to these offices.

Background

In accomplishing their missions, OIGs use a variety of approaches, including investigative and forensic audit techniques to gather and assess evidence related to alleged wrongdoing; potential violations of laws, rules and regulations, policies, and procedures; or other abuses that impact negatively on the ability of the organization to effectively and efficiently carry out its duties. Normally, investigations focus on obtaining sufficient factual evidence for use in determining whether criminal, civil, or administrative actions should be initiated against the specific parties for their actions or lack of actions. In the course of such investigations, the OIGs might identify high-risk areas and determine where internal controls should be strengthened. These findings are brought to the attention of appropriate officials for corrective action.

Note: Standards are presented in bold, italicized typeface and must be followed if adopted by an OIG. The balance of information in the standards section is suggested best practice, guidance, and clarification for conduct of the function.

GENERAL STANDARDS

A. Staff Qualifications

The first general standard for OIG investigative organizations is:

Individuals assigned to conduct the investigative activities should collectively possess the knowledge, skills, and experience required for the investigative work.

Guidelines

The General Standard of Staff Qualifications contained in the Quality Standards for Offices of Inspector General shall apply to investigations performed by OIG staff.

B. Independence

The second general standard for OIG investigative organizations is:

The Inspector General and OIG staff involved in performing or supervising any investigative assignment must be free from personal or external impairments to independence and should constantly maintain an independent attitude and appearance.

Guidelines

The General Standard of independence contained in the Quality Standards for Offices of Inspector General should apply to investigations performed by OIG staff.

C. Due Professional Care

The third general standard for OIG investigative organizations is:

Due professional care should be used in conducting investigations and in preparing accompanying reports.

Guidelines

Exercising due professional care means using good judgment in choosing investigation subjects and methodology as well as creating accurate and complete investigation documentation and investigative reports. Due professional care presumes a working knowledge consistent with investigation objectives.

Due professional care requires:

- Standards - OIGs and their investigators should follow the Associations professional standards and comply with applicable standards of conduct.
- Thoroughness - Investigations should be conducted in a diligent and complete manner, and reasonable steps should be taken to ensure that sufficient relevant evidence is collected; pertinent issues are sufficiently resolved; and appropriate criminal, civil, contractual, or administrative remedies are considered.
- Legal Requirements - Investigations should be initiated, conducted, and reported in accordance with (a) all applicable laws, rules, and regulations; (b) guidelines from applicable prosecutorial authorities; and (c) internal agency policies and procedures. Investigations will be conducted with due respect for rights and privacy of those involved.
- Appropriate Techniques - Methods and techniques used in each investigation should be appropriate for the circumstances and objectives.
- Objectivity - Evidence should be gathered and reported in a fair, unbiased manner in an effort to determine the validity of alleged improprieties or evaluate the likelihood of violations of statutes, rules, or regulations.
- Ethics - At all times the actions of the OIG investigators should conform with the high standards expected of OIG staff.
- Timeliness - Investigations must be conducted in a timely manner while recognizing the individual complexities of each investigation.
- Accurate and Complete Documentation - Investigative findings, conclusions, and outcomes (such as indictments, convictions, and recoveries) should be supported by adequate documentation, including investigator notes, court orders of judgment and commitment, suspension or debarment notices, settlement agreements, and other documents) in the case file.
- Coordination - Appropriate OIG staff should coordinate investigations with appropriate officials. In cases where civil or administrative actions are necessary, appropriate OIG staff should coordinate actions with prosecutors and other appropriate officials.

QUALITATIVE STANDARDS

A. Quality Control

The first qualitative standard for OIG investigative organizations is:

To ensure quality and expedite the progress of investigations, proper supervision will be exercised from the start of such work to its completion.

Guidelines

The Directing and Controlling Standard and the Quality Assurance Standard set forth in the Quality Standards for Offices of Inspector General should also be followed as applicable.

Supervision adds expert judgment to the work done by less experienced staff and provides necessary training for them. Supervisors should satisfy themselves that investigators clearly understand their assigned tasks before starting the work. Team members should work cooperatively with each other and their supervisors to understand not only what work they are to do and how they are to proceed, but why the work is to be done and what it is expected to accomplish.

Supervisory reviews should determine that:

1. Evidence adequately supports any referrals for possible criminal, civil, or administrative action; findings; conclusions; and recommendations.
2. Investigation objectives are met.
3. Investigative plans are followed, unless deviation is justified and authorized.

Each OIG should develop appropriate procedures for determining and documenting that supervision has been adequate. Each OIG should also develop appropriate internal controls to ensure that investigations conform to these Quality Standards.

B. Planning

The second qualitative standard for OIG investigative organizations is:

Investigative work is to be adequately planned.

Guidelines

The Planning Standard and the Coordinating Standard set forth in the Quality Standards for Offices of Inspector General should also be followed as applicable.

The standard for planning investigations is intended to clarify investigative issues to be addressed in advance of initiating the investigation and includes preparing a written investigative plan. Effective planning provides the basis to clearly identify the investigative issues to be addressed prior to initiating the investigation and includes preparing a written investigative plan spelling out the objectives of the investigation and specific investigative steps to be performed. In this process sufficient effort should be undertaken to assure that investigative objectives will be met within anticipated time constraints of the assignment. In addition, adequate coordination can prevent unnecessary duplication of effort.

C. Data Collection and Analysis

The third qualitative standard for OIG investigative organizations is:

Information and data gathered during an investigation should be carefully documented and organized relative to case objectives.

Guidelines

Appropriate investigative techniques should be chosen and employed to ensure that the data gathered are sufficiently reliable for making judgments regarding the matters being investigated.

Sources of investigative information should be documented in sufficient detail to provide a basis for assessing its reliability. Such documentation should address pertinent questions related to the objectives of the investigation and provide information needed to determine the facts relative to potential violations of laws, rules, regulations, policies and procedures.

Data gathered and analyzed as part of the investigation should be accurately interpreted, logically presented, and maintained in the investigative case file. The basis and support for the results of investigations should be carefully organized and described in the investigative case file.

D. Evidence

The fourth qualitative standard for OIG investigative organizations is:

Sufficient, competent, and relevant evidence is to be obtained to afford a reasonable basis for the investigative findings and conclusions.

Guidelines

- Evidence is sufficient if there is enough of it to support the report's findings.
- Evidence used to support findings is relevant if it has logical, sensible relationships to those findings.
- Evidence is competent to the extent that it is consistent with fact (valid).

E. Timeliness

The fifth qualitative standard for OIG investigative organization is:

Guidelines

Timeliness increases the value of investigations. The nature of investigations also requires that schedules be flexible in order to respond to changing priorities or unforeseen circumstances, such as the need to expand the scope of an investigation or respond to an emergent need caused by other events.

F. Reporting

The sixth qualitative standard for OIG investigative organizations is:

Where appropriate, investigative activity should result in a timely referral for criminal prosecution or written report. All reports shall present factual data accurately, fairly, and objectively, and present the results of investigation in a persuasive manner.

Guidelines

Investigative report language should be clear and concise, recognizing that some assignments deal with highly technical or sensitive material and should be written in terms that are intelligible to informed professionals.

Systemic weaknesses or management problems disclosed in an investigation should be reported to appropriate officials. Normally such disclosures will be made as part of a separate written report including recommendations as to specific corrective actions.

G . Confidentiality

The seventh qualitative standard for OIG investigative organizations is:

The OIG should establish and follow procedures for safeguarding the identity of confidential sources and for protecting privileged and confidential information.

Guidelines

The Confidentiality Standard contained in the Quality Standards for Offices of Inspector General shall apply to investigations performed by OIGs.

H . Follow-Up

The eighth qualitative standard for OIG investigative organizations is:

Appropriate follow-up to administrative or systemic issues identified by investigators should be performed to assure that any recommendations made to appropriate officials are adequately considered and properly addressed.

Guidelines

Ultimate investigative success depends on whether necessary corrective actions are taken. Therefore, each OIG should take steps as necessary to determine whether appropriate officials take timely, complete, and reasonable actions to correct problems identified in investigative reports.

QUALITY STANDARDS FOR INSPECTIONS, EVALUATIONS, AND REVIEWS

INTRODUCTION

Purpose

This document contains quality standards for inspections, evaluations, and reviews conducted by Offices of Inspector General (OIGs). They have been formulated and adopted by the Association of Inspectors General. The standards are advisory and are not intended to impose requirements. They are for Office of the Inspector General (OIG) use to guide the conduct of official duties in a professional manner.

Scope

OIGs are established with generally similar missions, but often under differing authorities and mandates. These differences, as well as other factors, may affect the practices of various offices and, consequently, the applicability of standards to these offices.

Background

In accomplishing their missions, OIGs use a variety of approaches. For example, audits, investigations, inspections, evaluations, and reviews are used as a basis for evaluating agency programs and operations and for identifying and presenting for prosecution criminal wrongdoing. Reviews of allegations, ongoing or completed investigations, and other means help to identify high-risk areas and determine where internal controls should be strengthened. Reviews of legislation and regulations serve to strengthen controls and ensure that the public interest is protected without imposing unnecessary burdens. Reports to appropriate officials and legislative bodies keep them apprised of the results of OIG activities.

OIGs may have responsibilities that go beyond audits and investigations. This additional work includes inspecting, evaluating, reviewing, studying, and/or analyzing government operations and programs for the purposes of providing information for decision-making, and of making recommendations to improve programs, policies, or procedures. The objectives of these processes include providing a source of factual and analytical information, monitoring compliance, measuring performance, and assessing the efficiency and effectiveness of operations.

Note: Standards are presented in bold, italicized typeface and must be followed if adopted by an OIG. The balance of information in the standards section is suggested best practice, guidance, and clarification for conduct of the function.

GENERAL STANDARDS

A. Staff Qualifications

The first general standard for OIG inspections, evaluations, and reviews is:

Individuals assigned to conduct inspection, evaluation, and review activities should collectively possess the knowledge, skills, and experience required for the work.

Guidelines

The General Standard of Staff Qualifications contained in the Quality Standards for Offices of Inspector General shall apply to inspections, evaluations, and reviews performed by OIG staff.

B. Independence

The second general standard for OIG inspections, evaluations, and reviews is:

The Inspector General and OIG staff involved in performing or supervising any assignment should be free from personal or external impairments to independence and should constantly maintain an independent attitude and appearance.

Guidelines

The General Standard of Independence contained in the Quality Standards for Offices of Inspector General should apply to inspections, evaluations, and reviews performed by OIG staff.

C. Due Professional Care

The third standard for OIG inspections, evaluations, and reviews by an OIG is:

Due professional care should be used in conducting inspections, evaluations, and reviews and in preparing accompanying reports.

Guidelines

Exercising due professional care means using good judgment in choosing inspection, evaluation, and review subjects and methodology; creating accurate and easily read working papers; and preparing reports. Due professional care presumes a working knowledge consistent with the objectives pertinent to the operations to be examined. Due professional care includes obtaining, to the extent possible, a mutual understanding of the inspection, evaluation or review scope, objectives, findings, and conclusions with the entity being reviewed.

Due professional care requires:

- Standards - OIGs and their staff should follow the Association's professional standards and comply with applicable standards of conduct. If issues of possible illegal behavior arise, OIG staff should promptly present such information to their supervisors for review and possible referral to the appropriate investigative office. In conducting an inspection, evaluation, or review, staff should employ the methods of inquiry most appropriate for the object of study. They may rely on the work of others to the extent feasible once they satisfy themselves of the quality of the work by appropriate tests or by other acceptable means.
- Thoroughness - Inspections, evaluations, and reviews should be conducted in a diligent and complete manner, and reasonable steps should be taken to ensure pertinent issues are sufficiently resolved and to ensure that all appropriate criminal, civil, contractual, or administrative remedies are considered.
- Legal Requirements - Inspections, evaluations, and reviews should be initiated, conducted, and reported in accordance with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations.
- Appropriate Techniques - Methods and techniques used in each inspection, evaluation, and review should be appropriate for the circumstances and objectives.
- Objectivity - Evidence should be gathered and reported in a fair, unbiased, and independent manner to convince the report user of the validity of the conclusions and recommendations made during the inspection, evaluation, or review.
- Ethics - At all times the actions of OIG staff should conform with the high standards of conduct expected from OIG staff.
- Timeliness - Work should be conducted and reported with due diligence and in a timely manner while recognizing the individual complexities of each case or project situation.

- Accurate and Complete Documentation - Report findings, conclusions, and recommendations should be supported by adequate documentation.
- Coordination - Appropriate OIG staff should coordinate the results of the inspections, evaluations, and reviews with appropriate officials.

A. Quality Control

The first qualitative standard for OIG inspections, evaluations, and reviews is:

To ensure quality and expedite the progress of an inspection, evaluation, or review, proper supervision will be exercised from the start of such work to completion of the final report.

Guidelines

The Directing and Controlling Standard and the Quality Assurance Standard set forth in Quality Standards for Offices of Inspector General should also be followed as applicable.

Supervision adds expert judgment to the work done by less experienced staff and provides necessary training for them. Supervisors should satisfy themselves that the members of the inspection, evaluation, or review team clearly understand their assigned tasks before starting the work. Team members should be informed why the work is to be done and what it is expected to accomplish.

Supervisory reviews should determine that:

1. Evidence adequately supports findings, conclusions, and recommendations.
2. Inspection, evaluation, or review objectives are met.
3. Work plans are followed, unless deviation is justified and authorized.

Each OIG should develop appropriate procedures for determining and documenting that supervision has been adequate. Each OIG should also develop appropriate internal controls to ensure that inspections, evaluations, and reviews conform to these Quality Standards.

B. Planning

The second qualitative standard for OIG inspections, evaluations, and reviews is:

Inspection, evaluation, and review work is to be adequately planned.

Guidelines

The Planning Standard and the Coordinating Standard set forth in Quality Standards for Offices of Inspector General should also be followed as applicable.

The standard for planning inspections, evaluations, and reviews is intended to ensure that the area for work is researched in order to clarify issues and adequately designed to address these issues in a written individual work plan. Research, design, and coordination should be thorough enough, within the time constraints of the assignment, to assure that work plan objectives are met and to ensure that appropriate care is given to coordinating inspection, evaluation, or review work to avoid duplication of effort. In pursuing this standard, the following guidelines should be considered:

1. Research - Inspection, evaluation, and review research includes a review, consistent with the work objectives, of existing data; applicable laws, policies and regulations; other analytic work; discussions with program and other appropriate officials; and literature research. The results of the research will be documented in the working papers and will be used to develop an individual work plan for the specific type of work to be undertaken.
2. Work Plan - A written work plan should be developed that clearly defines the purpose and scope of the inspection, evaluation or review; the areas and/or potential issues to be addressed; the methodologies to be used; and the manner in which the work will be conducted. The plan will be documented in the working papers and used as the basis for organization of documentation.
3. Coordination - Work plan development includes coordinating the planned activities with other inspection, audit, and investigative entities as well as appropriate organizations that could be affected by the activities. Such coordination is necessary to determine the existence of potential ongoing work being conducted by other agencies and to determine the effect of their activities upon the work being planned. Coordination efforts will be documented in the working papers.

C. Data Collection and Analysis

The third qualitative standard for OIG inspections, evaluations, and reviews is:

Information and data obtained about the organization, program, activity, or function being examined should be consistent with the inspection, evaluation, or review objectives, carefully documented and organized, and lead to a reasonable basis for conclusions.

Guidelines

Sources of information should be described in the supporting documentation in sufficient detail so that the adequacy of the information, as a basis for conclusions, can be assessed.

Information should be of such scope, and selected and analyzed in such ways, as to address pertinent questions about the objectives of the inspection, evaluation, or review and be responsive to the informational needs and interest of specified audiences.

The information-gathering instruments and procedures should be chosen or developed and then supplemented to ensure that the information is sufficiently reliable and valid for use in meeting the inspection, evaluation, or review objectives. Staff will use professional judgment in determining whether the information is sufficiently reliable and valid.

Qualitative and quantitative information gathered and analyzed in an inspection, evaluation, or review should be appropriately and logically presented in working papers to ensure accurate interpretations.

Data collection and analysis procedures should be appropriately controlled and supervised to protect the resulting findings and reports from distortion by the personal feelings and biases of any party to the inspection, evaluation, or review. The basis and support for findings should be carefully organized and described in supporting documentation.

D. Evidence

The fourth qualitative standard for OIG inspections, evaluations, and reviews is:

Sufficient, competent, and relevant evidence is to be obtained to afford a reasonable basis for inspection, evaluation, and review findings and conclusions.

Guidelines

- Evidence is sufficient if there is enough of it to support the report's findings.
- Evidence used to support findings is relevant if it has logical, sensible relationships to those findings.
- Evidence is competent to the extent that it is consistent with fact (valid).

E. Timeliness

The fifth qualitative standard for OIG inspections, evaluations, and reviews is:

Inspections, evaluations, and reviews should be conducted in a timely manner.

Guidelines

Timeliness increases the value of inspections, evaluations, and reviews. The nature of inspections, evaluations, and reviews also requires that schedules be flexible enough to respond to changing priorities or unforeseen circumstances, such as the need to expand the scope of an inspection, evaluation, or review, or to respond to an emergent need caused by other events.

F. Fraud and Other Illegal Acts

The sixth qualitative standard for OIG inspections, evaluations, and reviews is:

OIG staff engaged in inspections, evaluations, and reviews have a responsibility to be alert for indications of illegal activity in the course of conducting their work. If during or in connection with an inspection, evaluation, or review, staff become aware of illegal acts, or indications of such acts, they should promptly present such information to their supervisors for review and possible referral to the appropriate investigative office.

Guidelines

Staff should be alert to circumstances that come to light during inspections, evaluations, or reviews indicating fraud and other illegal acts. While the identification of illegal activities is not usually an objective of an inspection, evaluation, or review, it is necessary to have a clear understanding of the necessary action if such circumstances are discovered.

G. Reporting

The seventh qualitative standard for OIG inspections, evaluations, and reviews is:

Inspections, evaluations, or reviews should result in a timely written report to appropriate officials. All reports should present factual data accurately, fairly, and objectively, and present findings, conclusions and recommendations in a persuasive manner.

Guidelines

Written reports from OIG inspections, evaluations, and reviews should describe the work's objectives, scope, and methodology, and state that the work was done in accordance with the Quality Standards for Inspections, Evaluations, and Reviews by Offices of Inspector General. Report language should be clear and concise, recognizing that some assignments deal with highly technical material and should be written in terms intelligible to informed professionals. The OIG should solicit pertinent views and comments of appropriate officials on the content of the report.

Written reports resulting from OIG inspections, evaluations, and reviews should be distributed in a timely manner to appropriate officials responsible for taking action in response to report findings and recommendations. Further distribution will be subject to the internal policies of each OIG and fully comply with all privacy and freedom of information restrictions.

H. Confidentiality

The eighth qualitative standard for OIG inspections, evaluations, and reviews is:

The OIG should establish and follow procedures for safeguarding the identity of confidential sources and for protecting privileged and confidential information.

Guidelines

The Confidentiality Standard contained in the Quality Standards for Offices of Inspector General shall apply to inspections, evaluations, and reviews performed by OIGs.

I. Follow-Up

The ninth qualitative standard for OIG inspections, evaluations, and reviews is:

Appropriate follow-up should be performed to ensure that any recommendations are adequately considered and properly addressed.

Guidelines

Ultimate inspection, evaluation, or review success depends on whether necessary corrective actions are taken. Therefore, each OIG should take steps as necessary to determine whether appropriate officials take timely, complete, and reasonable actions to correct problems identified in reports.

Quality Standards for Audits

Audits performed by Offices of Inspectors General (OIGs) should be done in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. The Association of Inspectors General recommends that OIGs perform audits pursuant to one of the following:

- Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, or
- Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing issued by the Institute of Internal Auditors.

Each Office of the Inspector General (OIG) should adopt and follow the audit standards appropriate to the OIG's mission and authority.

APPENDIX
COMMITTEE TO ESTABLISH
GENERALLY ACCEPTED INSPECTOR GENERAL PRINCIPLES AND
GENERALLY ACCEPTED GOVERNMENT INSPECTOR GENERAL STANDARDS

In December 1999, under authorization from the Association of Inspectors General Board of Directors, President Robert A. Cerasoli appointed the following 15 members to a committee to develop generally accepted inspector general principles and standards.

Roland M. Malan, Chair Former Inspector General NY Metropolitan Transportation Authority
F. Daniel Ahern, Jr. First Assistant Inspector General for Management Massachusetts Office of the Inspector General	Leonard C. Odom Inspector General Chicago Housing Authority
Paul Balukas Inspector General New York State Welfare Office	Steven A. Pasichow Inspector General New York City Housing Authority
Thomas P. Charles Inspector General State of Ohio	Benjamin J. Redmond Inspector General City of Philadelphia
Robert DeSousa Inspector General Commonwealth of Pennsylvania	James B. Thomas, Jr., Director of Auditing Office of the Chief Inspector General State of Florida
Martin J. Dickman Inspector General U.S. Railroad Retirement Board	Roger Viadero Inspector General U.S. Department of Agriculture
Gaston L. Gianni, Jr. Inspector General Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation	Alexander Vroustouris Inspector General City of Chicago
Barbara J. Hansberry General Counsel Massachusetts Office of the Inspector General	David C. Williams Inspector General Tax Administration, U.S. Office of the Treasury
Robert A. Cerasoli, Ex-Officio Inspector General Massachusetts

All meetings of the Committee were held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The Committee assembled for the first time on March 3, 2000. The Committee concluded that there was no existing set of general principles regarding inspector general offices and identified a list of topics to be covered in statement of general principles. The Committee identified existing sets of standards for federal inspector general offices and for the separate functions of audits, inspections, and investigations. Specifically, these standards were:

- Quality Standards for Federal Offices of Inspector General issued by the President's Council on Integrity and Efficiency, January 1986.
- Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, 1994 Revision
- Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing issued by the Institute of Internal Auditors.
- Quality Standards for Investigations issued by the President's Council on Integrity and Efficiency and the Executive Council on Integrity and Efficiency, September 1997.
- Quality Standards for Inspections issued by the President's Council on Integrity and Efficiency, March 1993.

The Committee agreed: 1) to recommend that inspectors general use the Government Auditing Standards promulgated by the US General Accounting Office for audits; and 2) to use the federal PCIE standards as a basis for developing quality standards that could be applied to inspector general offices at all levels of government. The Committee organized teams to develop drafts of specific topics for discussion at future meetings.

In its second meeting, held on June 12, 2000, the Committee focused on the draft Principles for Offices of Inspector General. Additional work at that meeting was spent on draft Quality Standards for Offices of Inspector General. Substantial progress was made in discussing and revising both draft documents and subcommittees were created to develop discussion drafts of investigation and inspection standards for the membership. The Committee also decided to add to the audit standards that, in addition to the Government Auditing Standards, Offices may use the Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing issued by the Institute of Internal Auditors depending on which audit standards were appropriate to the Office's mission and authority.

The Committee met on August 21, 2000, and marked up drafts of the Principles for Offices of Inspector General, the Quality Standards for Offices of Inspector General, the Quality Standards for Investigations and the Quality Standards for Inspections. On September 22, 2000, the Committee continued its work on these documents and completed final exposure drafts of the Principles for Offices of Inspector General and the Quality Standards for Offices of Inspector General.

On October 18, 2000, the Committee Chair presented and explained the two draft documents to the Association's Board of Directors. The Board voted to authorize the Committee to circulate the draft documents among the Association's membership and the inspector general community for review and comment. Copies of the exposure drafts were distributed to all federal, state, and local offices of inspector general for comment and were posted with an invitation for comment on the Association's website, www.inspectorsgeneral.org. Reviewers were invited to submit written comments to the Committee by March 30, 2001.*

The Committee met again on December 11, 2000 and completed final exposure drafts of Quality Standards for Offices by Offices of Inspector General and Quality Standards for Inspections, Evaluations, and Reviews by Offices of Inspector General.

On December 13, 2000, the Executive Committee of the Association voted to authorize the Committee to circulate these two additional draft documents among the Association's membership and the inspector general community for review and comment. Again, copies of the exposure drafts were distributed to all federal, state, and local offices of inspector general and were posted with an invitation for comment on the Association's website. Reviewers were invited to submit written comments to the Committee by March 30, 2001.

The Committee received formal comments on proposed standards from federal, state, and local Offices of Inspector General. The following table reports the number of comments received on each exposure draft document by governmental level.

Exposure Draft Document	Comments Received			Total
	Federal	State	Local
Statement of Principles	12	3	1	16

* The initial due date for comments on the draft Statement of Principles for Offices of Inspector General and the draft Quality Standards for Offices Of Inspector General was March 16, 2001. This deadline was subsequently extended to March 30, 2001 to coincide with the due date for comments on the other draft documents.

On April 23 and 24, 2001, the Committee convened to consider in detail the comments it had received. The Committee made appropriate changes to the exposure drafts in response to the comments and produced final drafts of the documents for submission to the Association's Board of Directors. On May 16, 2001, the Board of Directors found that the draft documents represent generally accepted principles, quality standards, and best practices generally applicable to federal, state, and local offices of inspectors general. The Board voted to recommend that offices of inspector general adopt these documents for their use with the following or similar language:

The generally accepted principles and quality standards, formally approved by the Association of Inspectors General on 16 May 2001, are hereby adopted by this office insofar as they do not conflict with statute, regulation, executive order, or other policy of this office.

In May 2004 the Quality Standards for Offices of Inspectors General were amended to make minor corrections and to insert under Staff Qualifications, paragraph "E. Continuing Professional Education/Development."

In May 2014 the Board approved minor clarifying and corrective amendments to the documents.

Good Afternoon Mr. Martineau,

I am trying to assist Marjorie with using the facilities at Fienberg Fisher K8 Center. Thank you for your assistance with Marjorie as well. Whatever she is into is always positive and good for the community so I want to get her into the school asap. I need your assistance with the insurance. Please see attached. Instead of Fienber Fisher K-8 Center as Certificate Holder, The School Board of Miami Dade County needs to be the certificate holder with the address instead of Fienberg. Kindly let me know if you could assist and return the insurance form with the correct wording back to me.

Thank you,

I am trying to assist Marjorie with using the facilities at Fienberg Fisher K8 Center. Thank you for your assistance with Marjorie as well. Whatever she is into is always positive and good for the community so I want to get her into the school asap. I need your assistance with the insurance. Please see attached. Instead of Fienber Fisher K-8 Center as Certificate Holder, The School Board of Miami Dade County needs to be the certificate holder with the address instead of Fienberg. Kindly let me know if you could assist and return the insurance form with the correct wording back to me.

Do we need to pay a processing fee for the use of Fienberg Fisher for the Education Council meeting yesterday? We went to the school at their request we would just as soon hold the meeting in our Boardroom..

And for future use of school facilities – health council 5/19 and Beach High 5/29?

Just as a side note, Our Board just waived all the schools dues... for the entire feeder pattern. Please advise thanks

EXHIBIT 4

July 30, 2019

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Rosa Mayra Babani. I was employed by Miami-Dade County Public Schools (MDCPS) from 1989-2013 as a Principal Secretary. From 2008-2013, I served as the Principal's Secretary at Aventura Waterways K-8 Center from its opening with Principal Luis Bello.

On July 29, 2019, I spoke with Mr. Jerold Blumstein regarding an anonymous complaint he shared with me made against him alleging that he coerced Principal Bello to sign a use agreement and fee waiver allowing for Chabad Chayil to use the School for an after school program. The above accusation is not something I observed or believe to be true.

Mr. Blumstein did nothing more than assist others with the required MDCPS paperwork. Mr. Blumstein never used his position as Chief of Staff for Dr. Karp to coerce, intimidate, threaten or put pressure on me or anyone at the School, including Principal Bello, to sign any forms.

As Principal Bello's Secretary at the School, I routinely saw Mr. Blumstein visit the School and offer his support for whatever the School needed. Whether it was for smart board projectors for the School's new annex or for the purchase of robotics equipment for the after school robotic program that Dr. Karp's office sponsored, Mr. Blumstein was always there to support the students, parents and faculty at the School.

Occasionally, Mr. Blumstein would personally deliver to the AWK8 office Center paperwork which in turn as the Principal's Secretary I would deliver to Mr. Bello the Chabad Chayil paperwork.

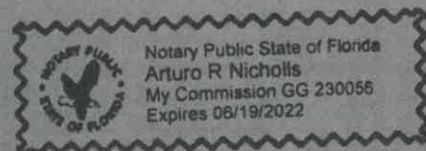

Mr. Blumstein, together with Dr. Karp, should be commended for their work for the District 3 community since 2004.

In my estimation Mr. Blumstein never used his position as Chief of Staff for Dr. Karp to coerce Principal Bello to allow Chabad Chayil free use of the School.

Thank you,

Rosa Mayra Babani

CHILD EVANGELISM FELLOWSHIP®

Every Child, Every Nation, Every Day

About

Child Evangelism Fellowship is a Bible-centered organization composed of born-again believers whose purpose is to evangelize boys and girls with the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ and to establish (disciple) them in the Word of God and in a local church for Christian living.

CEF has many different ministries for children, but the primary ones are the Good News Club and the 5-Day Club.

The Good News Club and 5-Day Club ministries take place in neighborhood settings such as homes, backyards, schools and community centers all over the world. These fast-paced, one-hour programs are designed to bring the Gospel of Christ to children on their level in their environment.

Along with these clubs, CEF also has fair, camping, open-air, and internet ministries for children. Last year through these combined ministries over 25.4 million children worldwide heard the Good News.

CEF provides classes to train their workers and other Christians who are burdened for evangelizing children.

In fact, training Christians to effectively minister to children has been core to our ministry since it was founded in 1937. Training is offered throughout the USA and around the world through seminars, conferences, and formal courses.

The Children's Ministries Institute, a modular three-month course located at CEF International Headquarters in Warrenton, Missouri, is dedicated to providing quality, practical training for those called of God to take the Gospel message to children. Similar training is offered in various locations around the world. Courses are also offered online.

CEF Press produces and distributes Bible and missionary lessons and related materials for use in teaching children to help accomplish the goals of the ministry.

Teaching materials are available to the public. Visit our web store. Many products are translated into over 89 different languages and distributed around the world.

An exciting program for teenagers is Christian Youth In Action (CYLA).

In June all across the USA thousands of young people are trained to conduct 5-Day Clubs. Throughout the summer they have many opportunities to present the Gospel to boys and girls, experiencing the joy of leading others to the Lord.

An additional summer opportunity is Summer Missions. College-age adults are trained and teach 5-Day Clubs in large urban centers and in foreign countries. This program offers challenging, often times life-changing experiences that God has used to spiritually enrich many lives. Find out more about these opportunities.

Statement of Beliefs

We believe the Bible to be the inspired, the only infallible, authoritative Word of God

We believe in the triune Godhead as eternally existent in three persons: Father, Son and the Holy Spirit.

We believe in the Deity of Jesus Christ of the Bible, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, His attesting miracles, in His vicarious and atoning death, His bodily resurrection, in His ascension, and His present priestly ministry.

We believe that that all those desiring peace and relationship with GOD THE FATHER must be Born-Again as Scripture says and that JESUS IS THE WAY OF SALVATION (John 14:6 )

We believe in sanctification and holiness of heart, and the overcoming life as God's design for the Church, which is the bride of Christ.

We believe in the Baptism of the Holy Spirit as witnessed on the day of Pentecost and in the continuing ministry of the Holy Spirit as evidenced in the gifts, manifestations, and ministry of the Holy Spirit, and in His fruit in the life of the believer.

We believe in Christ's imminent personal return in power and great glory, and in His present and everlasting dominion.

We believe in the resurrection of both the saved and the lost; they that are saved unto the resurrection to eternal life, and they that are lost unto the resurrection to eternal punishment.

We believe in specific active serving of individuals in the local fellowship, who are called by God to the offices of apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor, and teacher, as essential to the spiritual life of the fellowship to grow into mature believers.

We believe that all believers, men and women alike, are called and are free to do "the work of the ministry" in the body of Christ, and have the God given right to exercise their respective gifts and callings, under the covering of the local elders, "to the building up of the body of Christ."

We believe that The New Testament Church is more about relationship (with THE LORD and one another ) than it is about religious traditions, formalities and convenient practices ( many of which do not come from THE BIBLE or from what JESUS actually did ).

Mission Statement

We are to be the presence of the Lord in this world, as His holy people. HIS witnesses, both salt and light. According to Acts 1:8.

Ephesians 4:11 states that The Lord Jesus Christ has given some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and (some)teachers...why? For the equipping of the saints for the work of the ministry for the edifying of body of Christ. Eph. 4:12

We have come together for these purposes, Where all believers have gifts and ministries. Romans 12.

We, then, look upon our mission in three parts:

1. To spread and promote faith in and worship/praise of JESUS CHRIST as Savior and LORD ( John 3:3,16; 4:23-24 ).
2. To teach about salvation through faith in CHRIST (Eph. 2:8,9 )and the benefits of living a true New Testament Christian life.
3. To help the poor and the needy with all the resources available to us.We trust The LORD to help and to guide us by HIS PRESENCE, HIS SPIRIT and HIS WORD (THE HOLY BIBLE) and the wisdom HE has given to HIS people throughout the ages.

We know that according to Prov.14:34 that righteousness exalts a nation so, we by all honest means,openly promote true CHRISTIAN values in America ( and in all nations where we may be )in CHRIST lovingly without racial prejudice, without fear and without regret.We appreciate equal rights for all with special rights for none with belief in The Constitution Of The United States Of America, The Bill Of Rights and The Declaration Of American Independence as the rule of law ( Romans 13 ). One Nation under GOD!

We welcome your inquiries concerning any and all of our beliefs and/or activities.

Testimonies

What Ministry leaders have said

" I was deeply moved by your address on the black regiment. So well done. I plan to pass it around too."

"Your labor for the Lord, burden for souls, and earnest desire to see people brought to Christ have spread far beyond your own personal Ministry and have touched the lives of untold thousands."

"... your love for God shown by your love for the brethren (Hebrews 6:10-12) and especially for the lost."

"... my time of greatest moving and breaking during the tent revival came during your song..."

Communities In Schools of Miami does whatever it takes to help at-risk students stay in school and succeed in life. Based directly inside schools throughout Miami-Dade County, Communities In Schools connects children and their families to basic and critical educational and community-based resources, tailored to each student's specific needs. What makes CIS of Miami innovative and effective is our evidence-based Integrated Support Services Model that employs both whole school and targeted strategies to impact school and individual student outcomes. After a rigorous third party research conducted by ICF International, it was determined that the CIS Model is the only nationally proven program to decrease drop-out rates, increase on-time graduation rates, and improve math and reading performance in 4th grade students. The CIS Model places a Site Coordinator to work directly in the school to coordinate and deliver services. Typical services include mentoring, tutoring, counseling, case management, life skills development, job and career readiness, and other needed services provided from partnering social service agencies, businesses, volunteer groups, and CIS of Miami staff. This broad safety net of support forms the basis of our three current programs.

Our Story

For over 30 years Communities In Schools of Miami has been helping students achieve in school, graduate and go on to bright futures. Our mission is to surround students with a community of support, empowering them to stay in school and achieve in life.

The story of Communities In Schools began in the 1970s, when Founder Bill Milliken, then a youth advocate in New York City, came up with the idea of bringing community resources inside public schools — where they are accessible, coordinated and accountable. "It's relationships, not programs, that change children," Bill once said. "A great program simply creates the environment for healthy relationships to form between adults and children. Young people thrive when adults care about them on a one-to-one level, and when they also have a sense of belonging to a caring community." Understanding the importance of Bill's message, the Communities In Schools model was brought to Miami in 1989.

Today, Communities In Schools is the nation's largest and most effective organization dedicated to keeping kids in school and helping them succeed in life. Our unique model positions site coordinators inside schools to assess students' needs and provide resources to help them succeed in the classroom and in life. We partner with local businesses, social service agencies, health care providers and volunteers. Whether it's food, school supplies, health care, counseling, academic assistance or a positive role model, Communities In Schools is there to help.

two school-based sites. Each quality, free after-school program site provides a safe environment where students are encouraged and motivated to succeed in both their academic and enrichment activities. The program takes place Monday through Friday for four hours each day. The program focuses on six core areas – academic enrichment, sports and recreation, life skills, cultural enrichment, parental involvement and community service.

Each afternoon, students are welcomed into a general meeting place, checked in by quality after-school staff and enjoy a nutritious snack. Students then spend up to 75 minutes each day working on academics under the supervision of a certified teacher and after-school staff members.

Primary funding of the after-school programs is provided through The Children's Trust.

Who We Are

TACOLCY utilizes a strategic mix of best practice program models and services designed to support children and families. What started in a pool hall in 1966 as a way to give young people a voice in their community is now one of the largest, private non-profit youth service agencies in Miami. Housed on a gorgeous 3.5 acre City of Miami park in Liberty City, TACOLCY serves its predominantly minority community in one of the highest areas of need in Miami-Dade County. It has a long and effective history of educational, preventative, interventionary, recreational and family development initiatives that prioritize cultural and linguistic competency. A winner of numerous awards and recognitions, TACOLCY continues to be regarded as one of Miami's 'go-to' institutions for youth and families.

TACOLCY strives to help families realize their dreams by redressing points of vulnerability and providing supports during the journey from birth through adulthood. TACOLCY's holistic approach uses a system of care model to cover 7 core principles through 4 programmatic areas. Literacy, Arts and Culture, Environmental Education, Civic Leadership, Community Wellness, Violence Prevention and Leadership Development are infused into Out-of-School Time, Health and Wellness, Family Intervention and Youth Development programs. TACOLCY's evolution has allowed it to transcend a traditional service provider regimen by integrating a blended social service and social change paradigm.

What We Do

Within Miami-Dade County, data shows that Liberty City meets the definition of a high risk community based on all indicators that measure youth violence. Data reflects that Liberty City is at greater risk than many other comparable communities in the county, state and nation. Liberty City has approximately 22,749 residents and our border community of Little Haiti boasts another 28,312 residents. Of this population, approximately half are children. Currently, TACOLCY engages more than 5,000 youth and parents each year through our direct services, programs and events which include:

- After-school and summer CDF Freedom Schools literacy programs
- Care Coordination and Families Assistance with Suspension and Termination (FAST) programs
- A year-round sports program which includes championship teams in football, cheerleading, basketball, track and field, baseball and soccer
- Annual community events such as the Health Fair and Back-to-School/Anti-Bullying Rally

TACOLCY regularly provides meeting and event space to community organizations and we house other like-minded community organizations in our facilities.

Our Mission

ASFI brings renowned industry professionals into underserved inner-city schools. We provide students with unique opportunities to explore and create the projects involved in the filmmaking process under the supervision of celebrated industry mentors.

In its involvement of distinguished industry and community leaders, ASFI aims to bring together the South Florida community under a single banner with a unified goal: Offering students in underserved schools opportunities to create original works with guidance and mentorship of leading industry creatives; ultimately resulting in a pipeline between participating schools and creative industries.

The Approach

Introduce Concepts

Together with industry mentors, students explore underlying concepts essential to the art of filmmaking. Previous workshops studies have included concepts in dialogue study, directing actors, production leadership, abstractions in image composition, texture and color theory, and dialogue mixing. We help to build a complete foundation for our students to grow in this industry.

Expert Mentorship

ASFI partners with renown industry professionals to bring cutting-edge technical and artistic expertise to participating students. Previous and current program mentors include award-winning filmmakers behind such titles as Iron Man 3, the Transformers Saga, The Walking Dead, Moonrise Kingdom, the multiple Emmy and Golden Globe winning series Modern Family, as well as the Academy Award winning film Moonlight.

Expand Horizons

In addition to cutting-edge training in advanced technologies, students are challenged to confront an array of obstacles in leadership, group dynamics, accountability, team-building, logistics planning, and project management. As a result, the program aims to instill confidence, leadership, and team-building skills in each participating student. Life skills that will serve them for years to come.

Enrichments - After School

After-School Enrichments

Yoga

Our Yoga program teaches children to be energetic, expressive, and imaginative. Postures, breathing techniques and relaxation are practiced in a way that is playful, explorative, and fun! Songs, games, and storytelling teach mindfulness, balance, and encourage an open heart.

Art

Our after-school art program is offered to 3 and 4-year-old students and teaches children different strokes and techniques, as well as an understanding of the effects of colors, shades, and lighting. The children have the opportunity to have fun using what they learn as they paint on canvases and create their very own masterpieces! Each of the 4 sessions introduces new concepts for the children to learn about. After their class, they take home a fabulous piece of art that they created themselves and are more knowledgeable of the techniques and process in which the pieces were created.

Playball

Our Playball enrichment is a continuation of our PE in-school enrichment; however, it focuses more on exposing the children to one sport each week. Gross motor skills are developed in an environment that also encourages play, movement, socialization and fun!

Our Enrichment Program

Our after school enrichment program guides children through a journey of self-discovery. To achieve this, children discover their potential through 4 kinds of trainings:

PHYSICAL

These trainings will prepare children for the annual Hart Games where their skills will be put to the test in hopes of becoming: "Conquerer of the Hart Games".

VIEW SCHEDULE & TUITION

Emotional Training

Emotional training for the Hart Games is lead by "The Captain". On this Journey of Self-Discovery children will explore 12 values:

Emotional Trainings are held on Mondays from 4pm-6pm

It's important to note that Emotional Trainings are required to qualify for the Hart Games Reaping.

Artistic Training

Artistic training for the Hart Games is real fun. Children will engage in different art disciplines including:

DANCE

THEATER

They'll also participate in bi-weekly workshops lead by professionals in the following areas:

COSTUME DESIGN

MUSIC/BAND

Our Performing Arts Program

Artistic Trainings are held on Tuesdays & Thursday from 4pm-6pm

These artistic trainings are perfect for helping children discover their talents. They are also geared towards the Hart Games giving them a world of opportunity to apply their talents with purpose.

Once children discover their passion they may want to refine their talents by registering for additional classes in our Performing Arts Program (6pm-8pm).

Mental Training

Mental training involves preparing children for the "Market Place". Here they become mini-business owners, learn how to market and run a mini-business, and participate in exciting expos where they meet real world business mentors. But most importantly they experience what it means to become a visionary, the power of teamwork and the satisfaction of giving back.

All valuable skills they'll need in the Hart Games!

Mental Trainings are held on Wednesdays from 4pm-6pm

On Wednesdays schools have early dismissal at 2:00pm and we offer an extra hour of supervised homework time for children who take part in our pick-up service.

It is important to note that parents who are interested in guided homework or tutoring can request it at an extra fee.

Home All Inclusive Academy Performing Arts Academy Shows Register Here HUMAN Event

Physical Training

Physical training for the Hart Games takes what was learned in the Emotional training and incorporates it into physical challenges. Challenges that reference the values they learned in order to complete the challenges successfully.

This is probably the 2nd most important type of training because it prepares children on what to expect in the Hart Games.

Physical Trainings are held on Fridays from 4pm-6pm

It's important to note that Physical Trainings are "in- action" extensions of our Emotional Trainings taught on Mondays. Which is why the two trainings are offered together.

PROGRAM

Overview

Summary

The 5000 Role Models of Excellence Project is a dropout prevention, mentoring program committed to closing the minority male achievement (access) gap by guiding minority male students along a carefully charted path through grades K-12 and college or ensuring the attainment of other post-secondary credentials, and increasing their employability in higher wage, high skills jobs within high demand industries.

Participants and Volunteers

Presently, the program serves approximately 8,000 students in 105 schools, including 37 Elementary, 24 Middle, 33 Senior High, and 11 K-8 Centers in Miami-Dade County Public Schools (M-DCPS). The expansion program in Pinellas County Schools serves more than 500 students in 20 middle and senior high school chapters, and in 2015-2016 Duval County Public Schools opened another 10 chapters. Over 6,000 volunteers dedicate their time and resources to the 5000 Role Models of Excellence Project.

College

When students enter the program, they are guaranteed an opportunity to attend college or attain other post-secondary credentials geared toward ensuring that program participants are positioned for employment in higher wage, high skills jobs within high demand industries. Eligible students are employed in the private sector throughout high school. Mentors from the program assist students in this process.

Funds for scholarships are raised annually at the 5000 Role Models of Excellence Project Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Unity Scholarship Breakfast. Thousands of young men have been recipients of scholarships since its inception in 1993. To date, over $10 million in scholarships have been awarded to students successfully completing the program.

Incentives

The students and adult mentors wear a distinctive uniform consisting of black pants, a white dress shirt, and a 5000 Role Models of Excellence Project signature necktie. Custom-made 5000 Roles Models sneakers are awarded to program participants in recognition of academic excellence. All items are earned through benchmark accomplishments related to discipline and academics.

Mentor Training and Expectations

Mentors receive training on delivering with fidelity the 5000 Role Models of Excellence Project program curriculum to program participants during mentoring sessions. The curriculum is based on 27 distinct elements including: higher-education preparation, the criminal justice system, health-care, violence prevention, and anger management. Mentors and students meet at least once per week in-school for two hours during the school year, and at least four times per year for an extracurricular activity on weekends or 3 during the summer.

Success

Teachers have reported a drastic reduction in the number of students who have no further problems with discipline after joining the program. Over 95 percent of the students who begin the program graduate, and have no further violations of student conduct codes or the law. School personnel and parents are amazed at the students' transformation. The waiting list of applicants is staggering. At least ten schools are currently seeking to initiate 5000 Role Models of Excellence Project programs on their campuses.

F.A.M.E After School Program

Eneida M. Hartner Elementary is a Title 1 school located in the heart of the Wynwood Art District in Miami, Florida and serves students from Pre Kindergarten to Fifth Grade. Similar to other schools located in at-risk neighborhoods, Eneida Hartner needed support to supplement the current music and arts curriculum. After meeting with the Principal of Eneida and the After School Program Manager, Dr. Derick McKoy and Ms. Emily Gamboa, Foundation 2 F.A.M.E. began collaborating with the after school program midway through the 2016-2017 school year in January 2017. Our curriculum focuses on creative subjects ranging from Music Theory, Improv, Creative Writing, Dance, Art, and Science. November 2017 marks the beginning of the second year of this program, we expect to see growth from the students involved as well as expansion to support other schools in the city. Currently we are slated to begin working with Downtown Miami Charter and their Students in early 2018.

HalloWynwood Haunted House

On October 31, 2016 we held our first HalloWynwood Haunted House at Roberto Clemente Park located in the neighborhood area of Wynwood in Miami, Florida. Foundation 2 F.A.M.E collaborated with the Wynwood/Edgewater NET

Coach Gabe's success is primarily based on his admirable ability to concisely share his knowledge directly and simply, in a manner applicable to everyone. He played basketball all four years of college, but was sidelined by a slew of knee injuries in the midst of his senior season. This, however, opened the door for him to become a coach.

Baptist Health South Florida

In an effort to expand physical activity and excite students, parents, faculty and staff about healthy eating, we've joined forces with Baptist Health South Florida to design and launch the first United Way of Miami-Dade designated Healthy Eating Active Living (H.E.A.L.) initiative.

The program kicked-off with a celebration at Wesley Matthews Elementary which included a "walking school bus," where students and teachers – dressed as their favorite green veggies or healthy snacks – walked about a half mile to school. Once they arrived, they took part in a fun dance activity and parents were invited to stay for a healthy breakfast with the school's principal, Dr. Deborah Darbonne.

In 2016, we challenged local health agencies to partner with schools and help establish a school-based "culture of health and wellness" that encourages, emphasizes and enhances health and wellness among children, teachers and their families. The new initiative includes physical, mental, spiritual, emotional, social, intellectual, financial and environmental factors reducing the prevalence of toxic stress that wreaks havoc on all aspects of health.

By reaching out a caring hand to help children, parents and teachers eat healthy and stay active, we're transforming lives and building a #StrongerMiami.

Art-Cademics Academy, Inc. prides itself in having a curriculum based on infusing academics and fine arts. Scholars will participate in academic activities that familiarize them with the format and requirements of the Florida Standards Assessment. It is reported that learning gains decline during the two months children are out of school. The specialized curriculums that Art-Cademics Academy uses assures parents that meaningful instruction does not end at the ringing of the dismissal bell.

Fine arts such as, arts and crafts, dance, theatre, and music, allow scholars to express themselves through differentiated means. Self expression is important in growing children and fine arts is the vessel they need to explore those channels. Art-Cademics Academy also provides exposure to youth on entrepreneurship skills, financial literacy and culture diversity; which are important skills to learn to create a sustainable life .

Youth participating in Art-Cademics Academy will engage in:

Mission Statement

- Providing knowledge and support to advance youth to achieve through community outreach, persistence, and volunteer programs to motivate their immediate goals. Providing the conditions for positive youth development is a responsibility shared by families, schools, and communities. The conditions for healthy youth development reside in families, schools, and communities. Families promote healthy youth development when they provide support.
- 34 Ways Foundation was founded as a support organization to provide guidance and encouragement to children through football camps, activities, and programs. Our mission is to help youth by promoting sports, academics, and other mentoring programs that build character, teach discipline, and encourage good health and education.
- Our motto at 34 Ways Foundation is "Teaching, Reaching, and Educating Youth 4 Life!" This goal oriented message is a simple one in that it inspires and motivates the community to encourage the youth to attain their goals.

In what ways does the foundation contribute to the Memphis community?

34 ways Foundation participated in Memphis, Tennessee, for the 24th Anniversary of the Africa-In-April Festival, held April 15 – 18, 2010. The Republic of Nigeria was this year's featured country. This is a unique event that focuses on bringing African dignitaries, ambassadors, and culture to the Memphis Community on an annual basis. Corporate partners have worked diligently on an exciting series of training sessions, networking opportunities and marketing outlets for the venue.

With special guest from New Orleans, La. DRAGO'S charbroiled Oysters Restaurant, The ZULU tramp's Experience, a Mardi Gras float designed by The Kern's of Mardi Gras World, and last but not least the second line Band. To add a little flare to the event we also provided hot plates of signature dishes from New Orleans, La. The menu was Gumbo, Jambalaya, shrimp and Pepper Corn soup.

What are the upcoming events or annual events held in the area?

HAITI Project, "Skills to Build a new HAITI"- this project is unique as 34 WAYS Foundation has teamed with United Athlete Group Foundation of Memphis, TN., and Africa in April Foundation of Memphis, TN., to teach the people of Haiti how to begin the process of rebuilding their lives, homes, market places, and communities. After meeting with the Mayor of Memphis, TN., and of Petion Ville, Haiti and several dignitaries of Port au Prince, Haiti, we know firsthand what their needs are. 34 WAYS Foundation will be interviewing volunteers to assist with this project that will teach knowledge, skills, and abilities to the Haitian men and women as we begin the recovery process. We will continue to raise the funding needed to complete one project at a time.

What are some noted achievements the foundation can list since its establishment?

- a.) Second Harvest Food Bank- I have teamed with Rouse's Grocery Store who donates thousands of dollars and provide canned goods. For nearly 28 years, Second Harvest Food Bank has been feeding hope in South Louisiana. They are leading the fight against hunger through food distribution, advocacy, education, and disaster response.
- b.) Lake Charles, La. Charity Events- 34 WAYS Foundation selects 5 schools each year to host an Essay Writing Contest explaining why their family should be chosen to receive gifts and food baskets during the holidays. 5 top winners are selected by me and presented with a autographed framed action photo to them in front of their family, teachers, principals, peers, and last but not least the Mayor, Randy Roach.
- c.) After School Student- Athlete Mentoring Program- I chose my high school, Miami Norland High School; because I know firsthand what is needed outside of regular day to day teachings to assist our youth in furthering their education as a student athlete. After several years these students have made a tremendous improvement in their grades as well as their performance as an athlete.

the community. We believe that children need guidance and encouragement to turn their dreams into reality.

- The goal is to foster an environment that not only creates positive individuals, but also instilling pride in one's self and community.
- Give communities something to look forward to each year while leaving a lasting impression and a more positive outlook on life for all parties involved.

Goals of the Foundation

Reaching families 34 WAYS! This has always been my one and only goal. The goal is to foster an environment that not only creates positive individuals, but also instilling pride in one's self and community. While we promote health, physical fitness, community strength and hope for a brighter future, each year I challenge myself as well as the foundation team to be more creative in fundraising. This foundation must receive donations in order for it to continue to be successful. My most important goal is reach a different family, a different child, a different city, a different state. With doing so, I know my foundation will remain successful.

Who does it target and support?

34 Ways Foundation held its first camp in April 2004 in Miami, FL. During our initial camp, we have served 120 elementary and middle school children from Miami-Dade County. We have continued with this camp every April since 2004 recently serving 350 school-aged children in 2007; while also branching out into other regions in the south the past two years such as Memphis, TN and New Orleans, LA., and Lake Charles, La. We have served over 7,000 youth within the various cities. We support other foundations, communities, various charities, etc.

What brought about its establishment and when was it established?

The world is constantly changing every day. The times where it took a village to raise a child are long gone, but everyone would agree that children are the future. But we as young adults, teachers, coaches, and parents are the future because we are the ones that are supposed to set the foundation for the youth. If that's not done properly how are they supposed to lead us to greater heights in the upcoming decades! We as influencers of the next generation need to devote more of our time, effort, and energy to the youth. 34 Ways Foundation is inspired and completely dedicated to ushering this movement to reinforce the significant of the youth in our future.

What would you say are some of his proudest moments as founder of this organization?

For several years now Mr. Donald Rouse and I, Michael McKenzie “34 WAYS Foundation” has teamed- up to give thousands of toys, turkeys, chickens, all the dressings and fixings, for the youth in New Orleans, La. Aristotle tells us that we are the sum of our actions and motivation. As a mentor and motivator for youth I appreciate the premise that an individual’s cumulative actions can result in a fantastic end. At “Rouse’s Grocery store” we have taken this even further. We have taken action this year and we have done so collectively and I can only pay tribute to the outcome. Thanking all volunteers for their support and hard work in making this event a success.

On June 27, 2010 Mike McKenzie and 34 WAYS Foundation participated in the Zydeco Festivities by signing T-shirts, photos, hats, and other memorabilia. Photos with Mike McKenzie were readily available immediately after the pictures were taken with him. In Lake Charles, La. 34 WAYS Foundation will kick- off the 2010-2011 school years with the proceeds from the Trail Ride by providing Back 2 School supplies and back packs. 34WAYS Foundation joined the MLK Coalition of Southwest Louisiana in celebrating the birthday of slain civil rights leader Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., with activities ranging from prayer and song to discussion and reflection. Highlighting the celebrations is the annual Memorial Breakfast. There are many activities throughout this weekend each year.

In each city I have played football in, I have also begun an outreach program.

Why is it important to me to give back to those communities? (Miami, Memphis, New Orleans)

Participation in organized sports boosts confidence and self-esteem, family and community interaction, sportsmanship, and life skills. We at 34 Ways Foundation teach the skills needed to survive and cope with diverse situations, to reach out to as many individuals as possible, and to educate the youth about the importance of staying in school, saying ‘No’ to drugs, and taking responsibility for their actions.

We, as a foundation, provide valuable learning experiences in a positive and supportive manner to as many children as we are able to fund. These experiences will help individuals to better understand the necessary skills that life demands and empower them to realize the choices and options that are available to them. One of the things that differentiate our product and service from other charitable groups is our background in our own inner city. We at 34 Ways Foundation are a product of the same community where individuals invested their time and energy into us and it’s only right we give the same time and energy back.

Our background in the community allows us to relate to the needs of the youth and its make the assimilation of the community and youth easier for us. 34 Ways Foundation is well aware of the conditions and pressure faced by youth in the community because we were faced with similar situations. A mutual understanding and appreciation exists between our foundation and the community that makes our service invaluable.

OUR STORY

In 1991, a few friends who had been volunteering with several child welfare organizations, were asked by The Children's Home Society (CHS) to form an auxiliary volunteer group. The mission of this auxiliary would be to create awareness and obtain support from the burgeoning Hispanic community in South Florida. The auxiliary was named "Amigos of Children's Home Society."

A year later, the group branched off and formed a new, independent organization which they named, Amigos For Kids. Amigos was founded to respond to the diverse needs of South Florida's abused, neglected and less-fortunate children and their families through education, abuse prevention and community involvement.

Today, Amigos For Kids has evolved into a mainstream nonprofit and its child abuse prevention message now reaches communities across the country – no matter their ethnicity or native language.

ABOUT US

Welcome to Concerned African Women

Concerned African Women was founded in 1989 by 3 women who saw a need for children of African descent to learn more about their history and heritage. This band of 3 volunteers recruited 12 students to teach them Swahili and expose them to the arts.

The women soon discovered that most of their pupils were illiterate. They determined that if these children were going to learn their history, they would first have to learn to read. It was then Concerned African Women launched a unique cultural curriculum, anchored by a literacy acceleration program that continues to produce exceptional results.

Today 29 years later, Concerned African Women has a team of 29 professionals, including certified teachers, licensed social workers, and credentialed staff. We have partnered with county governments, foundations, and corporations to raise over $1 million for our programming.

All programs are rooted in the affirmation that self-awareness is essential to success and is the bedrock ingredient to positive self-determination. For this reason, all of our programs incorporate training in history, culture, and self-identity. Be part of the Change you want to see in the world by supporting synergistic effort of the Village.

CAW's Cultural Impact curriculum works to anchor clients, 90% of whom are from African descent, in their artistic and academic history and to steep them in the culture of success.

All CAW programs open with the kids reciting our trademark Daily Pledge and singing the South African National Anthem in Swahili. In addition, we incorporate CAW's Olde Fashioned Manners curriculum in each program to normalize the behaviors of respect for oneself and authority, as well as courtesy and positive communication.

THE VISION

---

To raise an army of minds prepared to take on the responsibility that comes with self-determination. To erect, own and operate within a state of the art facility that houses all of our administrative and programming needs primarily focused on Art, Reading & Technology responsive to the changing priorities of the children, youth and families we serve.

To unify people around the artistic, educational and social needs of children and families. Concerned African Women provides a continuum of care centered on after school and summer programming that includes: artistic exploration and academic enhancement with a primary focus on literacy, technology training for both youth and adults, family empowerment and family strengthening, life skills development, opportunities for cultural engagement, behavioral modification incentives, arts and recreational sports activities and promotion of membership in a synergistic national VILLAGE network of concerned citizens.

Scouts BSA

Scouts BSA provides young men and women with real-world leadership experiences, camping, outdoor adventures, service projects, and individual recognition.

WHAT WILL I DO IN SCOUTS BSA?

Scouts BSA is designed to take place in the outdoors. It's outside that Scouts share responsibilities and learn to live with one another. It's outside that skills and activities practiced at troop meetings come alive with purpose. Outside is the laboratory in which Scouts gain self-esteem, leadership skills, and an appreciation for the world around them.

Scouts travel to amazing places, from the mountains of New Mexico to the Florida Keys. Ride jet-skis, ATVs, horses, and climb 60-foot walls all at summer camp. Scouts can get you there.

Scouts plan their own advancement and progress at their own pace. Choose from 120 interests ranging from game development to wilderness survival. Experts in these fields are ready to provide fun, real-world experiences. A Scout is rewarded for each achievement which helps him gain self-confidence. Setting their own goals helps Scouts grow in self-reliance.

HOW OFTEN DO WE MEET?

Scouts BSA troops meet weekly. They'll also participate in a monthly troop activity like camping, bouldering, canoeing, STEM activities, and more.

WHO CAN JOIN?

Boys, ages 11-18 can join Scouts after completing the fifth grade or after earning their Arrow of Light in Cub Scouts.

Girls, ages 11-18 can join starting February 1, 2019.

ABOUT AYSO

Our mission is to develop and deliver quality youth soccer programs throughout the country which promote a fun, family environment built on the foundation of our Six Philosophies.

SIX PHILOSOPHIES   VOLUNTEER   STRUCTURE

THE AYSO SIX PHILOSOPHIES

AYSO's Six Philosophies are principles that separate AYSO from other sports organizations. These tenets were created to provide a positive, fair and fun soccer experience for all our players.

Everyone Plays®

AYSO's goal is for kids and adults to play soccer, so we mandate that every player on every team must play at least 50 percent of every game.

VOLUNTEER POWER

AYSO runs on volunteer power

This means registered volunteers run the local AYSO programs all over the country. Additionally, our National Board of Directors, National President, as well as every coach, referee, and Regional Commissioner – the list goes on – is a volunteer.

Due to the thousands of volunteers throughout the U.S. donating their time every season, AYSO is as successful and far-reaching as it is today. To learn more about the different AYSO volunteer options, click here.

American Dance Alliance

American Dance Alliance was established in 1995 by Susan Gordon, President of Algy Costumes and designs, as an Auxiliary summer camp. She hired 3 directors to head up the 3 divisions; Rosanna Karpiak for dance, Tony Florio for Color Guard, and Mike Dressman for Drum majors and band officers. This was a one stop camp for Band directors to bring their Band and auxiliary groups to learn new choreography and leadership skills.

After 5 successful years of summer camp, some of the directors moved on into other professions so with these changes in the directorship, Susan Gordon sold the company to Rosanna Karpiak who fashioned the camp into a dance and leadership camp and added the dance team competition component.

In 2001 American Dance Alliance, under dance teacher and director Rosanna Karpiak, flourished and became a premier dance authority and presence in Florida. Regional and State dance contest were established in Melbourne and Miami. Dance and Leadership camps were established in Orlando, Ft. Lauderdale and Miami. The company staff of choreographers and teachers was exceptional. Some of the best professionals in the dance community were part of the American Dance Alliance family. Teachers, Coaches and directors brought their students to camp and contest from all over Florida.

In 2013, Mrs. Rosanna Karpiak turned the company over to her daughter Kelsie Karpiak, American Dance Alliance was now present in social media and growing strong. On July 4th, 2014, a boating accident took the life of the young president of ADA.

In 2015 American Dance Alliance was sold to ADA Family Jimmy Arguello, Natalia Gonzalez & Arianne Diaz, who combined have been with ADA for over 12 years.

Our team of dedicated professionals will inspire your beginner and elite dancers with our undeniable style, marked precision and never ending enthusiasm.

WHO WE ARE

Our mission is to empower our youth with a positive individual self-image and with a raised level of awareness of their community.

Challenge2Change has the following basic platforms: Summer Youth Camp, Sports Fitness Fun Day, Community Sports Fitness Fun Day, and Educator Professional Development.

By offering young people platforms with clear and positive pathways to discover and develop their own skills and gifts, we hope to provide them opportunities for better, safer, and healthier futures.

WHY WE DO IT

- BECAUSE WE CARE AND WE WANT TO MOTIVATE OTHERS TO DO THE SAME
- TO PROVIDE PLATFORMS FOR SAFER, HEALTHIER, AND BETTER FUTURES FOR YOUTHS
- TO FIGHT CHILDHOOD OBESITY
- TO EMPHASIZE AND TEACH THE IMPORTANCE AND VALUE OF COMMUNITY

EMPOWERMENT & ENRICHMENT

PROACTIVE DEVELOPMENT... COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT AND MENTORSHIP

The E.P.I.C (Every Person Is Creative) after school summer component is C2C's Creative and Performing Arts platform which is our process of molding a positive mindset and developing a vision for success.

E.P.I.C includes: Entrepreneurship Focus Program, Championship Mentoring, Weekly Mindfulness Sessions.. Weekly interactive seminars with Guest Presenters : (Drone Videographer from Brazil, Poet from Puerto Rico, Custom Jewelry Maker from the D.R, Head of I.T company from Haiti, African Dance / Miami Dance team, Mindfulness Coach from Columbia, R&B Singer / Songwriter, Disc Jockey classes, Talent Show production, Sketch Artist, Police and Firemen, local Athletes and more ! )

The S.A.V.E. (Standing Against Violent Environments) afterschool sports component and the C2C Fitness Fun Day events are health based initiatives that are structured to combat the epidemic of Obesity. According to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Center for Disease Control and Prevention: Obesity is increasing rapidly in America and is affecting children, adolescents, and adults of all races, ethnicities, and income levels. Since 1980, the percentage of obese children aged 6-11 has doubled, and the percentage of obese adolescents aged 12-19 has tripled. Obesity now ranks as one of the top three causes of preventable death in America.

These platforms chiefly target students 11-17 but also are structured to include the participants family members, school teachers and staff. Studies have proven that most effective approach to combating this epidemic is through community engagement programs and by focusing on developing a healthy mindset at the youth level. Preventing obesity by educating our youth and their caretakers (parents, family members, teacher, and school staff) and getting the kids active is far more effective than attempting to reverse the effects of poor health conditions.

YOUTH & COMMUNITY SPORTS FITNESS FUN DAYS

Fitness is something that is desired for every human being. It is one of the essential tools that can help children and students to achieve their full potential and it is a highly important aspect of their lives.

It is however shameful that a vast majority of schools around don't have adequate resources that will help these students to discover and explore the full extent of their potential. We have seen that fact and we are filled with a mandate to bring change to that.

The Youth Fitness Fun Day is an initiative that was developed by we at Challenge 2 Change. We are using it as a means of filling that void that has been left by a lack of adequate resources.

Furthermore, a healthy lifestyle is something that should be inculcated not only by schools, but by the entire community. Inasmuch as various institutions can try to adopt this lifestyle, it takes the collective effort of everyone to be able to effectively pull it off. Consequently, we brought about the Community Fitness Day as a way to raise awareness to the whole community on the long-term benefits that good health and a healthy lifestyle can bring.

We have entered into enduring partnerships with various institutions in order to bring this program to life and we will be hoping to reach out to as many people and communities as possible.

Program Objective

Aventura Learning Center (ALC) provides a developmentally appropriate program, with the philosophy that children have a right to high quality education. An education which feeds into the inquisitiveness and curiosity, and playfulness each child brings. ALC sees play as a tool that children use as they explore and attempt to make sense of their world. When children play, they test their ideas, solve problems and find joy in their activities. ALC encourages students to actively participate and convey their knowledge in a collaborative, structured, yet fun, loving, nurturing and happy educational learning environment. Collaboration between teachers, parents and the children is an integral part of the educational experience we offer at ALC. We extend this connection to our community of parents. Our educator's' role is to enhance each child's level of learning, challenging them to develop and foster the child in ways that encourage the development of new talents and new-found abilities to allow the child to prosper in life with these new skills and confidence. Children will build their learning and development with determination and enthusiasm while learning how to discover knowledge and improve their communication skills as they plan. Our goal is to help them become prepared to excel successfully in their lives throughout their educational years and beyond in their future.

About the Bakehouse Art Complex

Bakehouse envisions a world that supports and values artists and recognizes their ability to shape, reflect, and transform our world. Its mission is to address the need for affordable live, live-work, and work spaces for artists in Miami's urban core.

Founded in 1985 by artists and for artists in a former industrial Art-Deco-era bakery, Bakehouse Art Complex provides studio residencies, infrastructure, and community to enable the highest level of artistic creativity, development, and collaboration for the most promising talent.

The Bakehouse is comprised of approximately 100 resident and associate artists, deriving from a rich diversity of backgrounds. Their work represents a broad range of media and practices, from painting to performance, from traditional to experimental.

Bakehouse is one of the oldest artist-serving organizations in Miami, with studios of varying sizes, two galleries, a classroom, print room, photography lab, ceramics facilities, and woodworking and welding areas. These spaces, unavailable outside of university campuses, has and continues to enable artists to work, make, discover, learn, and share their practices and work with each other and the broader community.

Bakehouse now is positioned for its next stage of development, seeking to play a more critical role in the collective efforts to build a strong and sustainable ecosystem in Miami in which artists and the arts can thrive. A master plan is currently underway to determine the highest and best use of its impressive 2.3-acre campus to better serve the needs of Miami's cultural community.

GANG ALTERNATIVE, INC.

"Building Character that Lasts"

What Our Name Means: When we talk about "Gang Alternative" we are referring to the "gang mentality" that enslaves individuals and families in our communities, keeping them dependent, delinquent and destitute, preventing them from being the best that they can be. GA exists to provide alternatives to change this mindset.

Gang Alternative, Inc. was incorporated as a 501c3 in 2005 as a result of the need to create community-focused outreach and resource development approaches to address the high crime and high violence in Miami-Dade County. It was founded in faith and evolved with the understanding that there is more to ministry work than just teaching "Bible stuff." GA is a community-based organization that is grounded in faith with the continuing purpose of preventing violence and delinquency while promoting self-sufficiency. GA operates under five service pillars:

- Positive Youth Development
- Family Strengthening

- Workforce Development
- Community Upliftment and Partnerships
- Health and Wellness

Mission :

To build character that lasts in children and families through positive alternatives to crime, violence, dependency, and delinquency by offering a holistic approach to their academic, physical, social, economic, and spiritual development.

Vision :

A global community-based organization connecting youth and adults to holistic services and tools to develop their full potential and good character to become self-sufficient community stewards.

Values:

Organizational Values guide decisions and tells the world how GA will interact with those it serves.

- Putting God first
- Being Servant Leaders
- Treating others with respect
- Good moral character
- Building and transforming communities
- Positive family life styles
- Positive community change

Target Communities Our Target Communities are comprised of some of the most underserved in Miami-Dade County, extending from North Miami to Homestead. A significant number of our programs have targeted the Little Haiti, New River, Liberty City and North Miami communities for several years. More recently, however, Gang Alternative has expanded its outreach to other disadvantaged communities, including Little Havana, through its community coalition initiatives. GA also provides coalition mentoring to a drug-free coalition in Puerto Rico.

Our Leadership includes a Board of Directors with representatives from the public and Private sectors. The Chief Executive Officer, with the assistance of the Executive and Management teams, oversees a staff of approximately 80 employees, as a well as a cadre of interns and volunteers. Staff members are fluent in English, French, Haitian Creole, and Spanish, and have a wealth of experience i services. In addition, the staff is deeply rooted in the community and intimately familiar v

YOUTH EXCELLENCE PROGRAM (YEP)

YEP is a comprehensive evidence-based program that teaches LifeSkills to middle and high school students.

This program is designed to prevent and deter current use of controlled substances and under-age drinking by teaching, promoting and developing positive and healthy decision-making skills.

YEP is supported by the Department of Children and Families (DCF) and South Florida Behavioral Network. It is presently being implemented in several Miami-Dade County public schools, namely: North Miami Middle School, North Miami Senior High School, Brownsville Middle School, Allapatah Middle School, Edison Senior High School, Horace Mann Middle School, Miami Jackson Senior High School and Booker T. Chabad Chayil's and Rabbi Moishe Kievman's Response to OIG Draft
Report of Investigation – SB17-0006SI

I. Introduction

The Office of Inspector General received a false complaint about Chabad Chayil's use of Miami-Dade Public Schools. Instead of fully investigating the complaint and concluding the complaint was baseless, the OIG drafted a report that built on these false allegations. The OIG Report contains allegations that are not supported by any evidence, contrary to the School Board Policies and contrary to the standards the OIG is required to follow in its investigations. The Report includes false accusations against Dr. Martin Karp that he pressured MDCPS staff to approve Chabad Chayil's use of MDCPS facilities, even though the OIG could not find one MDCPS employee that could say Dr. Karp pressured them. The Report includes false accusations against Mr. Jerold Blumstein that are purely based on two MDCPS employees' feelings about Mr. Blumstein's actions. The Report includes these allegations despite all other MDCPS employees denying that they were pressured. Finally, the OIG Report includes false allegations against Chabad Chayil that the OIG could have refuted had the OIG bothered to ask basic questions of Chabad Chayil. The OIG failed to ask these basic questions, ignored documents within its possession, and failed to find other documents all of which would have negated the concerns raised by the false complaint. The OIG unnecessarily prolonged its investigation for two and a half years, which was calculated to discredit the CHAP Program. The OIG did all this at the expense of abandoning all standards of investigatory conduct.

a. Purpose of OIG Investigation

The Miami-Dade County Inspector General serves as the Miami-Dade School Board Inspector General pursuant to Amendment No. 3 to the December 2007 Interlocal Agreement. The Interlocal Agreement provides that the MDCIG was hired to “conduct[] independent audits and investigations into school district practices and operations in order to prevent and detect fraud, waste, financial mismanagement, or other abuses, and promote accountability, integrity, economy, and efficiency in government.” The Interlocal Agreement is governed by School Board Policy 0157, particularly the Reporting Procedures contained in section (A)(12)(a), which requires that “OIG reports shall be objective, clear, concise, constructive, and timely....” The School Board OIG also is required to respect an investigated party’s due process rights.<sup>1</sup>

Generally, the purpose of an inspector general is to promote accountability and integrity in government.<sup>2</sup> The purpose of “OIGs [is] to hold government officials accountable for efficient, cost-effective government operations and to prevent, detect, identify, expose and eliminate fraud, waste, corruption, illegal acts and abuse.”<sup>3</sup> To meet these goals it is important for OIGs to “follow the basic principles of integrity, objectivity, independence, confidentiality, professionalism, competence, courage, trust, honesty, fairness, forthrightness, public accountability and respect for others and themselves.” The OIG’s Report addressed in this response meets none of these stated goals.

Of particular concern, in this case, is the OIG’s failure to comply with the Quality Standards for Investigations as promulgated by the Association of Inspectors General. The Standards require that an IG use due professional care.<sup>4</sup> According to the guidelines, an IG must use good judgment in creating an accurate and complete investigation.<sup>5</sup> Particularly relevant to this Report is the thoroughness, objectivity, and accurate and complete documentation requirements.

Thoroughness ensures that an investigation is conducted in “a diligent and complete manner,” “sufficient relevant evidence is collected,” and “pertinent issues are sufficiently resolved.”<sup>6</sup> A report or investigation is objective when the evidence gathered is reported in a fair, and unbiased manner to determine the validity of any alleged improprieties or likely violations of statutes, rules, or regulations.<sup>7</sup> A report is accurate and complete if the report’s conclusions are supported by adequate documentation.<sup>8</sup>

Here, the OIG failed to ask basic questions, find documentation, or discuss documentation provided to it by Chabad Chayil that would address and fully refute the allegations supposedly substantiated in the Report. Further, the OIG ignored evidence that would have resolved its alleged concerns. The Report is not objective because even when overwhelming evidence exists that supports a narrative contrary to the Report's, it, at the most, vaguely refers to such information in a passing footnote. Lastly, the OIG did not find documents, such as Affiliating Agreements between Chabad Chayil and MDCPS, that entirely negate significant portions of the OIG's Report. Had the OIG provided such documentation to the interviewed MDCPS principals and staff, their answers would likely have been different. Because of these investigative failures, any conclusions reached in the Report are fatally flawed.

b. CHAP Program

Chabad Chayil is a non-profit organization that serves the Highland Lakes and North-Dade Communities. Chabad Chayil operates a synagogue with classes and programs for all ages, including the CHAP Program. Chabad Chayil is part of the Chabad movement, which seeks to help Jewish people connect with their faith with joy according to the teachings of the Lubavitcher Rebbe OBM. Notwithstanding having fully committed itself to community service, Chabad Chayil welcomes people of all faiths, creeds, heritages, and races.

Chabad Chayil launched the CHAP Program after seeing a need in the North-Dade community for Hebrew and Jewish cultural programming for children. After Chabad Chayil realized the need for such programming, it determined that the best way to provide this service to the community was through an afterschool program. As part of its service to the community, Chabad Chayil conceived of a program that would be available to all students regardless of their faith or heritage.

Chabad Chayil reached out to its local School Board member, Dr. Martin Karp, to find out what it needed to do to operate such a program. Dr. Karp directed Chabad Chayil to speak to the principal of Aventura Waterways K-8, Mr. Bello, which was opening the following school year. Chabad Chayil explained what it wanted to do, and Mr. Bello agreed that the CHAP Program would add significantly to the culture and language of the school and be of great benefit to the community at large.

In its first year, the 2008-09 school year, CHAP started with seven students and ended the year with twenty-seven students. CHAP offered the students an opportunity to learn Hebrew and about Jewish culture in a warm loving environment. CHAP was available to all interested students, whether they were students at Aventura Waterways or at other schools, and with no regard to any child's race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, or gender.<sup>9</sup> CHAP also provides children an opportunity to take part in martial arts and music instruction, and an opportunity to do art projects.

Most of the children who take part in CHAP have learning disabilities, including autism, ADD/ADHD, anxiety, and depression, as well as various other learning disabilities. These children benefit greatly from a warm environment and encouragement, where they can get help with their homework and learn Hebrew and about Jewish culture, without the pressures associated with regular school classes.<sup>10</sup>

Chabad Chayil never turned away any student for any reason from its

<sup>9</sup> Over the years, CHAP had numerous non-Jewish students who enjoyed the program. See Letter from Angel Peralta, Exhibit 1.

programming, regardless of their parent's ability to pay for the program, including from programming at Chabad Chayil's location across the street from Aventura Waterways, even if Chabad Chayil usually charged for programming held at its location.

CHAP serves families in the North-Dade community who do not have the ability to pay the fees required to attend the MDCPS-operated afterschool program. Should CHAP not be able to continue its operations as a result of the OIG's faulty and slanted investigation, over two-hundred students will have no place to go after school ends, and their parents will be forced to either curtail their employment to watch their children after school, leave their children to their own devices, or expend funds they do not have on day-care services to warehouse their children. To these families, the loss of CHAP will cause a substantial detrimental economic effect, as well as a substantial reduction in the quality of life and education these families' students now enjoy thanks to Chabad Chayil's selfless and important efforts. See Composite Exhibit 2, Letters from CHAP parents.

II. Response to OIG Report

The Draft OIG Report ignores or failed to investigate information that exculpates, mitigates, removes, or negates many of the concerns relating to Chabad Chayil's Community Hebrew Afterschool Care Program ("CHAP"). CHAP, from its inception, was routinely inspected by the Children's Trust as part of its grant and contract to support CHAP. CHAP always complied with the Jessica Lunsford Act and all its employees had Level 2 background checks, whether or not verified by MDCPS.

The false finding by the OIG that CHAP “knowingly operating without a license and...Level 2 background screening...,” which could have been readily ascertained as untrue in the course of the OIG’s two and a half-year investigation, was remarkably found by the OIG to be the “[m]ost egregious” of CHAP’s violations that “could have had a disastrous impact on the safety of a child.” Yet, the OIG failed to make any inquiry of anyone associated with CHAP about the OIG’s supposedly gravest of concerns. Had the OIG simply asked CHAP, the OIG would have learned that CHAP had DCF exemptions from the licensing requirements or a DCF license for all material times and that all CHAP employees were all properly screened with Level 2 Background checks.

Until 2014, many Children’s Trust programs operated with DCF exemptions from licensing. CHAP was one of those programs. When DCF changed its interpretation of the relevant statutes and regulations and started requiring previously-exempt programs to get licenses, CHAP did so. Lastly, any monies collected by CHAP were not in connection with activities or programming that happened on MDCPS property. In fact, CHAP charged for some of its programming at the specific request of MDCPS personnel.

Chabad Chayil is a non-profit organization that serves the Miami-Dade community, particularly north-east Miami-Dade County. As part of its service to the community, it runs the CHAP program to help parents in the local community and enrich children’s experiences. Chabad Chayil runs CHAP strictly as a not-for-profit organization, whose operations are funded by grants and donations, which never turned a child away because they could not pay for books, snacks, activities, and services on or off MDCPS property. The Draft Report entirely ignores the very significant benefit to the community that Chabad Chayil provides through CHAP that comes at no cost to MDCPS or Miami-Dade County.

A. Alleged Misrepresentations by Chabad Chayil “result[ing] in free use of school facilities”

The Draft Report falsely accuses Chabad Chayil and Rabbi Kievman of making misrepresentations on its Temporary Use Agreements to be able to use Aventura Waterways classrooms free of charge. The entire premise of the original complaint and report is that to get a fee waiver “the meeting or program [must] be open to the public and free of charge.”<sup>11</sup> But glaringly the OIG failed to cite any policy, rule, or regulation that requires a program to be open to the public and free of charge for rental fees to be waived. All the OIG Report says is “[s]chool administrators confirmed that fee waivers are only approved if an organization is not charging any fees to the public when using school facilities.”<sup>12</sup> And “[e]very School District Administrator interviewed by the OIG, stated that if the organization charges anything, it would be required to pay for the use of facilities.”<sup>13</sup> The OIG has not and cannot point to any particular formal policy that requires MDCPS to charge usage fees. Because there is no policy, rule, or regulation allowing fee waivers only if an organization charges no fees and is open to the public, the idea that Chabad Chayil

made any misrepresentations to use MDCPS facilities is false and libelous. Mr. Bello was fully aware of Chabad Chayil's "donations accepted" policy for the CHAP Program. Mr. Bello added "donations accepted" on Chabad Chayil's January 2011 Temporary Use Agreement. See Exhibit 3.

Moreover, Chabad Chayil did not charge any fees "when using school facilities."<sup>14</sup> Chabad Chayil did charge those who could afford it for its Story Hour and homework help, both of which programs were not conducted in school facilities but rather in Chabad Chayil's own facilities. Chabad Chayil listed a charge for its story hour at the specific request of MDCPS employees so that the Story Hour did not present a business conflict with Aventura Waterway's Story Hour Program. Additionally, Mr. Bello did not permit Chabad Chayil to go onto school property until 3:00 p.m., so Chabad Chayil could not hold its story hour on school premises. Further, Chabad Chayil had a homework help program that it ran in its facilities for which it listed a charge of $120. For both the Story Hour and homework help program, although Chabad Chayil listed a charge, the programs are available to any student free of charge. A parent's inability to pay is not a barrier to any child participating in either of those programs.

It is important to note that the complaint alleged that Chabad Chayil was operating in "numerous schools in the north end of the county,"<sup>15</sup> yet, the OIG Report

<sup>14</sup> Many of the school-allied organizations listed in School Board Policy 7510(D)(1) that use MDCPS facilities free of charge do charge membership dues, and other fees.

<sup>15</sup> The OIG Report does not use the language contained in the complaint. The Report says that the complaint stated that Chabad Chayil was at "various school sites throughout the north end of Miami-Dade County." OIG Report p. 1. The Report misrepresents what the complaint stated to create the only addresses two of the schools in which Chabad Chayil runs programming. The Report conveniently ignores the remaining schools, where there could be no question about whether Chabad Chayil charges for any programming. The Report only discusses Aventura Waterways and VABHOE, which are in close proximity to Chabad Chayil's location, where Chabad Chayil can include students from those schools in programming held entirely off MDCPS property, for which Chabad Chayil can charge, even under the OIG's improper assumptions. The Report fails to include relevant evidence showing that Chabad Chayil does not charge for programming at MDCPS, and, thus, the Report is not thorough, objective, accurate, or complete as required by the relevant School Board Policies and Quality Standards for Investigations.

Chabad Chayil clearly posted the schedule for its afterschool programming, which plainly shows that Chabad Chayil does not and did not charge for programming at Aventura Waterways. Pre-Hebrew School Option and After Hebrew School Option both state that “[t]here is a charge for this option.” Composite Exhibit 4. Year after year, Chabad Chayil made it abundantly lucid that there was no charge for the programming at MDCPS schools. CHAP is open to boys and girls of any religion or ethnicity and Chabad Chayil never turned away a child interested in its programs for any reason.

The OIG report focuses, with an inordinate emphasis that Chabad Chayil impression that the Report fully addresses the complaint. The Report gives the false impression that the complaint was fully substantiated, when the OIG could not substantiate the allegations regarding Chabad Chayil's presence in other MDCPS schools.

represented on its applications to the Children’s Trust that it charges registration fees of $100 and a weekly fee “beginning at $0 up to $159.<sup>16</sup> First of all, what Chabad Chayil actually wrote on its application is “Registration and book fee is $0-$100. We charge $0-$159 per month based on what parents can afford. Most parents pay in the $50 range.” The OIG Report misrepresents that the program fee is a weekly fee, as opposed to a monthly fee.

Secondly, nothing in Chabad Chayil’s Children’s Trust application contradicts the fact that the CHAP program was open to the public and free of charge. Any student could attend all Chabad Chayil’s programs free of charge.

Thirdly, the OIG Report infers that Chabad Chayil was lying about its funding for the CHAP program because it did not have any Children’s Trust grants before 2015. That inference is simply false. The OIG’s deficient “investigation” failed to uncover what was before it in plain sight, that from 2008 through 2014 the CHAP program was run by Chabad Chayil as a sub-contractor for the Neytz Hachochma school, which was the entity that contracted with the Children’s Trust.

Lastly, the only reason why fees were listed on its form in the first place is that Chabad Chayil believed that the Children’s Trust required it to list fees on its application. The OIG Report attempts to rebut this by saying “The OIG interviewed The Children’s Trust Contract Manager in response to Rabbi Kievman’s statement to such effect. He was asked if anyone at The Children’s Trust had instructed Rabbi Kievman or any representative of Chabad Chayil to use the words ‘fees’ or ‘tuition’ on the application.”<sup>17</sup> The Contract Manager responded that “these terms are not required, and the Children’s Trust does not dictate words to be used for submission of an application. Applicants are free to write down whatever they choose, and they do not have to charge anything or can just use ‘$0’ entry on the application.”<sup>18</sup> Notably, the response the Contract Manager gave does not answer the question asked by the OIG, and it can reasonably be inferred that the Contract Manager could not answer that no one at the Children’s Trust told Rabbi Kievman to include “fees” or “tuition” or what Rabbi Kievman’s understanding was of what he was required to include on the application. The OIG Report recklessly defames Rabbi Kievman by asserting by implication that he was found to have lied about what he was advised by the Children’s Trust without any evidence to support such contention.

The OIG Report relies on a March 31, 2011, article in Miami’s Community Newspapers which “states Chabad Chayil charges a ‘nominal fee’” for the proposition that it charges for its program. This quotation is a refutation of the OIG Report’s entire premise. The article says, “Pre- and after-Hebrew school programs including homework help, tutoring and music are available from 1:30 to 3:00 & 4:30-6:00 p.m. for a nominal fee.” All those programs were only held at Chabad Chayil’s property next to Aventura Waterways and none of those fees were for any program that used school facilities. The OIG Report also excerpts a testimonial that references how the parent’s child is enjoying the program, including story hour, and that the program is affordable. The testimonial does not prove or show that Chabad Chayil charged any fees for programs using school property. These citations, if they prove anything at all, demonstrates the true objective of the OIG Report is, to cast false aspersions on Chabad Chayil.

The OIG Report points out that Rabbi Kievman’s email signature says, “as low as $39 per month.”<sup>19</sup> Rabbi Kievman’s email does not show that there was any charge for any programming using school facilities, and, in fact, shows that Rabbi Kievman was not misrepresenting anything to MDCPS.

The OIG Report notes that the OIG found registration forms for the CHAP Program for 08-09, 09-10, 14-15, and 18-19 years which listed fees or tuition on them.<sup>20</sup> Because, the OIG cannot show how any funds were charged for any activities or programming using school facilities, and because the CHAP Programs take place Chabad Chayil’s and on school property, the OIG’s “findings” are virtually meaningless.

Lastly, the OIG had the Director of Budget/Facilities Rentals, Ms. Cabrera, prepare an estimate of the fees they allege Chabad Chayil should have been charged absent fee waivers. Ms. Cabrera provided an unprincipled estimate that, at best, vastly overestimates the fees that possibly could have been charged to Chabad Chayil. Moreover, the estimate fails to reference any rental transaction of school property of any kind or any reference to any demand by any third party for use of the school property for any period it was used by Chabad Chayil. The Estimate fails to differentiate between the size of the program in 2008 and its current size and assumes that the same number of classrooms was used when the CHAP Program had seven kids, as it did in the most recent year. The Estimate also fails to reflect that Chabad Chayil paid an MDCPS custodian for several hours of work for about 180 school-days per year, which amount should have been deducted from the Estimate. See, e.g., Exhibit 6, Payroll records. The only purpose the overestimate serves is to justify the OIG Report and to recite a false narrative to vastly overstate the matter at issue and does not accurately reflect what MDCPS would have charged Chabad Chayil for its actual use of school facilities absent a fee waiver.

It is important to note that Chabad Chayil collected minimal amounts of fees even for the programs it charged for that were held on Chabad Chayil's property. For example, Chabad Chayil's 2015 Financial Statement, prepared by an independent auditor as required by its contract with the Children's Trust, shows that Chabad Chayil collected only $13,245.00 in "[t]uition and fees" across all its programming, and Chabad Chayil's 2016 Financial Statement does not reflect any tuition or fees collected during 2016. See Composite Exhibit 7. Both Financial Statements were provided to the OIG on October 27, 2017. Yet, the OIG failed to include or address this documentation in the Report.

There is no written policy or rule that requires a program to be open to the public and free of charge, so Chabad Chayil had no reason to misrepresent anything on its Temporary Use Agreements. Chabad Chayil did not charge any fees for programming or activities that used school facilities, so even according to the OIG Report's own allegations, Chabad Chayil qualified for fee waivers. The estimate prepared by MDCPS does not reflect reality and is not a reliable gauge of what Chabad Chayil would have paid if it was not entitled to fee waivers.

B. Alleged Pressure to Approve Waivers

If MDCPS staff felt pressured to approve its Temporary Use Agreements, such "pressure" is not apparent in Chabad Chayil's interactions with the people referenced in the report.

In 2008, Chabad Chayil sought out Mr. Bello after being informed by Dr. Karp that the appropriate person to speak to about setting up a program at a school was the principal. Rabbi Kievman met with Mr. Bello while the School was still under construction. Rabbi Kievman explained to Mr. Bello what CHAP offered to the school and the community. Mr. Bello recognized the value that CHAP offered and welcomed Chabad Chayil's presence at Aventura Waterways. Mr. Bello offered to get Chabad Chayil the appropriate paperwork and ultimately had Chabad Chayil fill out a Temporary Use Agreement, after asking Facility Rentals for the appropriate form. Chabad Chayil never asked for a Temporary Use Agreement and only used that Agreement because MDCPS Staff provided that form to Chabad Chayil. Further, the OIG failed to find that Chabad Chayil and MDCPS entered into an Affiliating Agreement Form 6103 in both 2008 and 2009. Composite Exhibit 8. While the OIG Report chastises Chabad Chayil for filling out the wrong form, it is shocking that such a charge is leveled at Chabad Chayil when it took instruction from MDCPS and filled out the forms as instructed by MDCPS.

Contrary to the assertions that Mr. Bello was forced to approve Chabad Chayil's Temporary Use Agreements, Mr. Bello required a new Temporary Use Agreement from Chabad Chayil at different intervals throughout the year. Some years Chabad Chayil executed two Temporary Use Agreements and some years Mr. Bello would require Chabad Chayil to execute a new Temporary Use Agreement every few months. Mr. Bello would threaten to not approve future Temporary Use Agreements unless Chabad Chayil changed in a particular way, or, on occasion, paid for advertising or for staff breakfasts and provided t-shirts for the staff league. See Exhibit 9, Statement of Shmuel Ben Yaeesh. Further, Mr. Bello did not regularly assign classrooms to Chabad Chayil. Mr. Bello would routinely change Chabad Chayil's assigned classrooms at his discretion. Mr. Bello would often comment to Chabad Chayil staff that Chabad Chayil was a guest in the school. This hardly the behavior of an individual who feels pressured. Rather, if there were any indicia of pressure it was pressure on Chabad Chayil by Mr. Bello and MDCPS staff.

Regarding the allegation that Rabbi Kievman "terminat[ed]" a conversation with Ms. Cabrera, "terminate" just means "to bring to an end."<sup>21</sup> Further, Rabbi

Kievman has no recollection of such a call ever happening. Rabbi Kievman never ended a call after getting upset with any MDCPS employee, and certainly not Ms. Cabrera. Rabbi Kievman has had many interactions with Ms. Cabrera since and before and always has had pleasant interactions with her.

It is also important to note that the fact that Ms. Cabrera's predecessor who held her position until 2015, Ms. Nasai's statement that she "never was pressured by Dr. Karp or Mr. Blumstein to approve any organization" was included in a footnote.<sup>22</sup> This statement undermines the OIG Report's premise that Dr. Karp or Mr. Blumstein pressured anybody to approve anything. Mr. Saperstein also said how he resisted Chabad Chayil's request to start the CHAP Program for the first several years he was principal at VABHOE, and that Dr. Karp and Mr. Blumstein never directed him to approve any Chabad Chayil Temporary Use Agreements or fee waivers. This also shows that there was no pressure campaign to approve Chabad Chayil's requests. Further, although the OIG interviewed Ms. Sally Ayalon, the former Administrative Director of MDCPS's North Region Office, the OIG Report does not include any statements by Ms. Ayalon about this alleged pressuring of MDCPS staff by Mr. Blumstein. The lack of any statement from Ms. Ayalon is particularly glaring because Ms. Ayalon, along with the school principals, was responsible for signing off on Chabad Chayil's Temporary Use Agreements and fee-waiver requests before they were sent to the Facilities Rentals department.

The OIG's interviews of Mr. Steiger, Dr. Karp, and Mr. Blumstein also

demonstrate that no one pressured any MDCPS staff on behalf of Chabad Chayil. Mr. Steiger could not remember any specific meetings with Mr. Blumstein about Chabad Chayil. Mr. Steiger did remember Ms. Cabrera complaining about Mr. Blumstein generally, but that is not proof of misconduct as far as Chabad Chayil is concerned. Mr. Blumstein explained that he would drop off forms on behalf of organizations, including possibly Chabad Chayil. But Mr. Blumstein felt that dropping off forms was part of his constituent services duties for Dr. Karp. Dr. Karp stated that he only ever called MDCPS site administrators to give them a heads-up. He also said he never requested of anyone to allow Chabad Chayil to use MDCPS facilities and that he never would make such a request. Dr. Karp also said that he was not familiar with what forms were required for renting MDCPS facilities. The only MDCPS staff with record statements corroborating claims of pressuring are those responsible for “improperly” approving Chabad Chayil’s Temporary Use Agreements and fee waivers. Ms. Cabrera and Mr. Bello have a vested interest in shifting the “blame” from themselves onto Chabad Chayil, Dr. Karp, and Mr. Blumstein.

C. Alleged Circumvention of School Board Procedures by Use of Temporary Use Agreements

This portion of the OIG Report is falsely premised on the 2007 and 2009 RFPs being the sole way an afterschool program could be operated at MDCPS facilities, and Chabad Chayil’s Temporary Use Agreements circumvented those RFPs. But the RFPs were for fee-based before and after school programs and not for free programs, such as CHAP. The Report entirely fails to take into account that MDCPS executive personnel advised Chabad Chayil to apply to MDCPS with Temporary Use Agreements and takes exception to Chabad Chayil following MDCPS's directions. Further, no MDCPS personnel ever informed Chabad Chayil about the RFPs, so Chabad Chayil could not have been using Temporary Use Agreements to "circumvent" the RFP process it did not know about.

The 2007 RFP specifically contemplated the proposers would charge fees as one of the requirements for the RFP was to "[d]escribe your hourly, monthly, and yearly-fee structure...."<sup>23</sup> Thus, it does not apply to the CHAP Program that did not charge any fees for programming that used MDCPS facilities.

The 2010 RFP restricts proposals to fee-based before or afterschool programs. The Title of the RFP is "Eligibility for Offering On-Site and Fee-Based Before and/or After School Child-Care Services for Elementary Schools...." The Title specifically limits proposals to fee-based programs. CHAP was not such a program. The RFP's purpose section also limits the RFP to fee-based services by stating "the purpose of this [RFP] is to solicit proposals from...agencies qualified to provide on-site and fee-based before and/or after-school child-care services...."<sup>24</sup> Like the 2007 RFP, the 2010 RFP also requested a proposer to describe their fees and informed potential proposers that "[a]ll rates must match M-DCPS...."<sup>25</sup>

Through June 8, 2010, Chabad Chayil did not use Temporary Use Agreements as its sole authority for its presence at Aventura Waterways. Rather, Chabad Chayil had Affiliating Agreements for Educational Services for the 2008-09 and 2009-10 school years. Accordingly, the 2007 RFP is not applicable to any of the issues in the OIG Report, as the 2010 RFP was already the operative document relative to afterschool programs at MDCPS schools.

Notably, the answers to the RFP questions quoted in the OIG Report do not show that Chabad Chayil could not offer an afterschool program at an MDCPS facility as the OIG contends. The first question asks if the provider of afterschool programs for MDCPS that are grant-funded would be allowed to continue as the MDCPS afterschool provider as a result of the RFP. The response states that “only providers approved as a qualified provider...will be authorized to offer services to the School Board. The primary Before/After School Care provider must be one of the five selected.”<sup>26</sup> Chabad Chayil was not providing services to the School Board and was not the primary afterschool provider at Aventura Waterways. The second answer also says that “[t]he primary Before/After School Care provider must be one of the five selected.” So, even if the 2007 RFP applied to Chabad Chayil, the RFP did not restrict Chabad Chayil from operating an afterschool program that was not provided to the School Board and was not the primary afterschool program at the school. The R. R. Moton Elementary School has a similar arrangement. The principal selected After School Programs, Inc. as its primary afterschool care provider, but the Thomas Armour Youth Ballet operates an afterschool program. See, e.g., Exhibit 10, 28, 32; <http://taybballet.org/after-school-program/#toggle-id-5>. Thomas Armour Youth Ballet has this language on its website:

We are currently accepting students for our after school program across Miami-Dade County. If your child has an interest in dance, please submit the form below to be contacted regarding registration. This program is only $75 for the entire school year.... Our after school program is free of charge and includes a free dance uniform and shoes.<sup>27</sup>

Thomas Armour Youth Ballet offers a program free of charge but also charges a registration fee, just like CHAP. Rather than find out what MDCPS's actual policy is about afterschool programs at MDCPS schools, the OIG made assumptions to impugn Chabad Chayil.

The OIG Report faults Chabad Chayil for not participating in the RFP process and not being authorized to offer afterschool services at MDCPS facilities. There is no reason why Chabad Chayil would have known to participate in an RFP process that was specifically for fee-based programs when it did not charge fees for its programs at MDCPS facilities. The 2010 RFP was specifically requesting proposals from providers that would charge for their services. Chabad Chayil did not match that description because it did not charge for CHAP.

The OIG Report references a memo that instructed principals to use Affiliating Agreements with CBOs operating at their schools.<sup>28</sup> Chabad Chayil had Affiliating Agreements for the 2008-09 and 2009-10 school years. See Composite Exhibit 8. By failing to disclose these agreements to Mr. Bello during its interview, the OIG did not get a full understanding of what Mr. Bello did to determine which forms to give Chabad Chayil each year. The OIG Report is based on incomplete information and recollections. Further, Chabad Chayil's use of MDCPS facilities was always temporary and qualified for a Temporary Use Agreement. As Mr. Bello stated, Chabad Chayil was required to renew every few months, and this enabled Mr. Bello to exert control over how Chabad Chayil ran the program and to demand donations, staff breakfasts, and t-shirts from Chabad Chayil.

The OIG Report is particularly troubled by Chabad Chayil not being licensed, as would have been required. But, as will be more fully discussed below, Chabad Chayil had an exemption from licensing issued by DCF for every year until DCF informed Chabad Chayil that it needed to get a license.

D. Alleged Operating Without a License

The OIG Report accuses Chabad Chayil of committing a crime by operating an unlicensed child-care facility without first determining whether Chabad Chayil needed to have a license in the first place. The OIG investigated Chabad Chayil's licensing status by contacting DCF but never asked Chabad Chayil for any explanation or reasons for how it operated without a license. Had the OIG done so, it would have learned that from 2008 through 2013 Chabad Chayil operated as a sub-contractor for a school for developmentally challenged children called Neytz Hachochma. Neytz and Chabad Chayil had an exemption from DCF for each year they operated, until October 2014. See Exhibit 11, March 2014 Exemption Letter.

After the DCF decided that Chabad Chayil did not qualify for a licensing exemption, Chabad Chayil applied for a child-care facility license. The OIG Report claims that Chabad Chayil "failed" its initial DCF inspection because it failed its fire safety inspection, Chabad Chayil's director needed to finish getting her director's credential, Chabad Chayil did not have a staff member with a current CPR certificate, and the OIG Report misstated that Chabad Chayil did not have a staff member with a current first-aid certification as Chabad Chayil had an expired first-aid kit. Chabad Chayil did not fail the inspection and was issued a provisional license based on the supposedly failed inspection. See p. 6 of Exhibit 15 of the OIG Report.<sup>29</sup> Further, the inspection was a pre-inspection conducted by a Tallahassee-based DCF Inspection Team to help Chabad Chayil, along with all the other previously-exempt afterschool programs that were now required to get DCF licenses based on the changed DCF requirements. The OIG Report omitted the fact that the "failed inspection" happened before the school year when the CHAP Program was not active. This especially important because Chabad Chayil holds its annual first-aid and CPR the Sunday before school starts. Accordingly, non-active first-aid and CPR certifications and the lack of a director's credential did not affect any students, and the DCF Inspection Report specifically gave Chabad Chayil until February 12, 2016, to obtain the required credential. Far more astoundingly is the OIG Report faulting Chabad Chayil for Aventura Waterways' own fire safety failures and accusing Chabad Chayil of "previously fail[ing] a fire safety inspection by the local fire authority," when it was

<sup>29</sup> The OIG's false claim that Chabad Chayil failed its initial DCF inspection, when the Inspection Report, which the OIG attached to its Report, says that DCF issued a license to Chabad Chayil is just another example of how the entire Report is based off a non-diligent, non-thorough, and incomplete investigation, contrary to the requirements imposed by the Quality Standards for Investigations.

the MDCPS school that failed inspection.<sup>30</sup> Chabad Chayil was then forced to urgently request that the school bring itself up to code or provide proof to Chabad Chayil that it was in compliance so that it could be passed on to DCF. When the school was unable to provide Chabad Chayil the proper documentation, Chabad Chayil arranged for a fire safety inspection of just the rooms that it would use, and Chabad Chayil passed that inspection. Chabad Chayil brought the CHAP Program into full compliance within two weeks of its initial inspection and DCF issued a provisional license.

As far as Chabad Chayil operating without a license after a DCF letter, Chabad Chayil was led to believe based on discussions with the Children's Trust that the CHAP Program did not need to get a license until the 2015-16 school year, which it did. Through the 2014-15 school year, Chabad Chayil was operating under an exemption from DCF. In the middle of the 2014-15 school year, Chabad Chayil's contract manager at the Children's Trust informed Chabad Chayil of a rumor that DCF was going to start requiring previously exempt Children's Trust afterschool programs to get a DCF license. Chabad Chayil proactively sent a questionnaire into DCF to start the process for the 2015-16 school year. Thus, the DCF response letter informing Chabad Chayil that its programming needed a license only applied to the 2015-16 school year and Chabad Chayil's exemption continued through the remainder of the 2014-15 school year. It was also Chabad Chayil's well-considered belief that the only reason DCF was requiring the CHAP Program to get DCF licensing was in connection with its Children's Trust contracts. Chabad Chayil did not have a contract with the Children's Trust for the CHAP Program at VABHOE until this upcoming school year, and Chabad Chayil obtained DCF licensing for CHAP at VABHOE well in anticipation of its Children's Trust contract.

The OIG failed to ask Chabad Chayil any questions that would have assuaged its concerns about the "outrageous" and allegedly criminal actions of operating an afterschool program without a license when Chabad Chayil had a DCF exemption or the required license.

The OIG Report does not meet the objectivity standards required by School Board Policy 0157(A)(12)(a) or the Due Professional Care Standard required by Principle and Standards of Offices of Inspector General, Quality Standards for Investigation. Policy 0157(A)(12)(a) which requires that OIG reports be objective. This OIG Report fails that standard because the OIG did not attempt to find out from Chabad Chayil, among other things, why it may not have had a DCF license and instead accuses Chabad Chayil of committing a crime without submitting any evidence that Chabad Chayil knowingly failed to get DCF licensing, nor could it.

The Quality Standards for Investigations require that OIGs use due professional care. This requires that "[i]nvestigations should be conducted in a diligent and complete manner, and reasonable steps should be taken to ensure that sufficient relevant evidence is collected; pertinent issues are sufficiently resolved...." This investigation was not diligent or complete and the OIG did not take reasonable steps to ensure that it had "sufficient relevant evidence" before it accused Chabad Chayil of committing a crime. Due professional care also requires that OIGs be objective and “[e]vidence should be gathered and reported in a fair, unbiased manner in an effort to determine the validity of alleged improprieties or evaluate the likelihood of violations of statutes, rules, or regulations.” The OIG did not have all the pertinent available evidence that would have allowed it to report the evidence fairly, and the OIG failed to fully determine the likelihood of any statutory violations. Due professional care also requires that OIG reports be supported by accurate and complete documentation. But the OIG failed to find DCF’s licensure exemption letter or to ask Chabad Chayil for any explanation. The OIG’s failure is further compounded by the full access it had to all of Chabad Chayil’s records. A fact not mentioned in the Report is that Chabad Chayil extended its full cooperation to the OIG and allowed the OIG full access to its records and was always available to answer any questions. Yet, the OIG failed to ask basic questions of Chabad Chayil that would have fully satisfied much of its concerns as it relates to licensing. Moreover, the fact that the OIG expended over two and a half years to prepare a factually inaccurate Report based upon readily available sources of information, all of which was provided voluntarily, demonstrates that the OIG is anything but diligent. The OIG’s indolence and dereliction of its duties caused its fatally flawed investigation and its attendant specter of uncertainty to loom over Chabad Chayil during the course of the OIG’s investigation.

The OIG Report’s accusations of criminally operating an unlicensed child-care facility are not supported by the actual evidence and can only be supported by innuendo and the incomplete documentation the OIG included in the Report.

E. Alleged Failure to Conduct Background Checks

Chabad Chayil does not want to downplay MDCPS's failures to verify the background check status of the CHAP Program staff. But at no time did Chabad Chayil have any staff that did not have Jessica Lunsford Act required Level 2 Background checks.<sup>31</sup> From 2008 through 2015 Chabad Chayil ran its background checks through the VECHS system before starting to use the DCF system in 2015.<sup>32</sup>

Further, even though Chabad Chayil would have voluntarily done background checks on its employees, from 2008 forward Chabad Chayil was required to conduct background checks pursuant to its contracts with the Children's Trust. See, e.g., Exhibit 12. Additionally, the Children's Trust imposed additional and more stringent standards on Chabad Chayil that far exceed those required to get DCF licensing or with regard to any background checks. Chabad Chayil did background checks on each employee, and the Children's Trust inspected and verified Chabad Chayil for compliance with its contract requirements, which included a requirement that Chabad Chayil complies with all statutes and regulations. Year after year Chabad Chayil passed the Children's Trust's audits and inspections.

Chabad Chayil went even above and beyond the bare statutory requirement of Level 2 background checks. Chabad Chayil did extensive interviews and investigations of all potential employees. Chabad Chayil called references and past employers for each potential employee and investigated each potential employee's social media and internet histories and backgrounds.

Chabad Chayil issued badges to its employees only after they passed the statutorily required Level 2 background checks and Chabad Chayil's additional rigorous vetting process. Chabad Chayil used its own badges, as opposed to going through MDCPS and getting MDCPS issued badges for its employees at the instructions of MDCPS staff. Had MDCPS instructed Chabad Chayil to use MDCPS badges, it would have required its employees to go through the MDCPS credentialing process. The OIG Report claims that as of April 2019 the principals at Aventura Waterways and VABHOE did not receive a list of CHAP Program staff. That is only because such information was never requested from Chabad Chayil. When the OIG finally did request the information on April 11, 2019, it was provided almost immediately. See Exhibit 14, Transmittal Letter dated May 2, 2019.<sup>33</sup>

While MDCPS staff failed to verify the background-check status of Chabad Chayil's employees, Chabad Chayil fully complied with the Jessica Lunsford Act and had all its employees undergo Level 2 background checks and went beyond all legal requirements.

Conclusion

The initial complaint that led to the OIG's investigation was premised on the false idea that Chabad Chayil was not entitled to fee waivers for its use of MDCPS facilities, even though there is no written rule or policy allowing fee waivers only for programs that are open to the public and free of charge.<sup>34</sup> Further, Chabad Chayil did not charge any fees for any programming that used MDCPS facilities, and, thus, was entitled to fee waivers under the complaint's false premise.

The OIG validates its investigation by including an arbitrary grossly exaggerated estimate of the value of the use of school facilities that has no basis in reality and is unsupported by any objective criteria. The estimate failed to account for Chabad Chayil's actual use each year, such as a maximum of two classrooms for two hours per week in 2008, or that Chabad Chayil paid for a custodian, which amount should have been reduced from any estimate.

The OIG failed to fully investigate, uncover documents in MDCPS custody, or ask basic questions that would have allowed it to avoid making simple and fundamental mistakes about Chabad Chayil's licensing status or background checks of its employees. The Report falsely accuses Chabad Chayil of "egregious" behavior of criminally operating the CHAP Program without a license and not doing background checks on its employees. What is egregious is the OIG falsely accusing an organization that provides an immense benefit to the communities in which it operates the CHAP Program, and where its programming is specifically requested by MDCPS parents, by investigating and issuing a false report that does not comply with

<sup>34</sup> The complaint alleged that Chabad Chayil was operating in "numerous schools in the north end of the county." Yet, the OIG conspicuously ignored discussing Chabad Chayil's use of other MDCPS facilities. Had the OIG discussed those schools in the Report, it would have been apparent that Chabad Chayil does not charge for programming using MDCPS facilities.

the School Board Policies or OIG Quality Standards for Investigations, or any reasonable standard which would provide a fair, accurate, and timely analysis of what the OIG was supposedly investigating. In short, the OIG Report is a shameful example of, at best, incompetence, and most likely a calculated effort to falsely malign Chabad Chayil in furtherance of a hidden agenda that itself cries out an investigation. The reasons that could possibly motivate such a Machiavellian investigation must be fully exposed.

RE: CHAP after school program.

To whom it may concern,

My name is Angel Peralta, both my children [REDACTED] currently attend Aventura Waterways K-8 and both are enrolled in the dual language (English and Spanish) program offered by some of the Miami-Dade Schools my wife Lucy Peralta as well as my parents are Hispanics. So dual language works out well for our family.

My wife and I have always been very interested in our kids joining an after-school program for continuous education and social development.

2016 was the first time my children attended CHAP. 2018-2019 school year was the second time we had enrolled our children at CHAP.

As for many you may find it hard to believe that my family is not Jewish and truly had no reason to inquire for the CHAP program. But I was set to find out more. One of the first things that impressed me was the diversity within the staff followed by the students attending the program.

Growing up in unincorporated Miami -Dade county (Carol City/Miami Gardens) I wanted to make sure my children had the best but safe opportunity to experience diversity during their informative years. We are living in the greatest times of all of history! Gender equality, religious outlooks, political affiliations and race all have a major role in our society. My wife and I taught who better to teach our children how to coexist other than the Israeli Nation, so we inquired on the CHAP program.

As soon as we walked through the doors we were greeted with open arms, asked to fill out the application and informed of a possible waiting list. We notice 5 things that affirmed that we were making the right decision 1.) no proselytization on program nor permitted 2.) race was not an issue 3.) social status didn't have its privileges. 4.) Didn't have to leave to school property 5.) check out with security.

I am grateful to the Miami-Dade County school board, CHAP, my wife for making the opportunity possible for my children to have a program which provides a safe zone full of excitement, learning and quality time to interact with others within our ever-growing diversified community.

Very grateful,

Angel Peralta

I am writing this letter to support and show my gratitude to Chabad Chayil and everyone from CHAP afterschool program. My kids were blessed to have such an amazing opportunity to participate in such a fantastic afterschool program. The most caring staff, great family atmosphere, and knowledgeable teachers gave our kids a lot. The kids were always happy to go right after school to the program. I was surprised how fast they learned Hebrew, all the traditions and how much their personalities developed in a positive direction.

I hope that this amazing program will be available for years to come, because in this place no one will ever discriminate nor turn anyone down due to financial reasons. Rather, they will give, teach, and support. Kids deserve the best, CHAP gives them the best. I cannot name a more wholesome and grounded program to bring your kids to, as I would have not chosen anything else. I have been to a lot of places and Chabad Chayil was the only setting at which genuine happiness and memories could be made for not only my kids but my family as a whole.

The importance of after care in public school

It has been brought to my attention, that there is a new legislation that wants to prevent from private after school programs to exist in public schools.

As a mother, who has a kid in one of these programs. I would like to comment on that.

Without the after care program, there is no way I would have been able to work and run my business. School finish at 3 pm, and since my job is 45 min from school, that means I would have to leave work at 2. That is impossible in my line of business.

My daughter has been in Chabad after care, Chabad chail of highland lakes. The MAIN reason I moved to Aventura was so my daughter will attend a good public school, but will also get the Jewish education I wanted her to get. I can't afford private Jewish school, that's why this was the perfect solution.

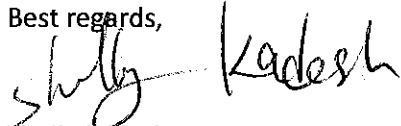

She acquired many skills in the after care program. Other than learning about her religion, she learned how to be nice to other kids, patient, a team player, she learned how to except other opinions, how to help other kids when need to .

The employees and staff are great, very patient, responsible, helping with homework, always understanding, and always polite and nice.

Again, this is a HUGE help, especially for working parents, who can't pick up the kids right after school.

Please take all this into considerations.

Best regards,

Shelly kadosh

Dear Layah,

It is really admiring the work you do every day at Chabad Chayil's After School program. For us, is very important to have access to Jewish education for our kids, we are not able to afford a private Jewish school for our kids, and the program you are running at Aventura Waterways K-8 Center, is the best alternative we could ever imagine.

Our son, since 2017, is taking advance of a wonderful program that completes his education. You have an amazing staff and the program is filled with a variety of activities that are the perfect complement for his formal academic education. You have done a remarkable work and we are very happy and blessed for having the opportunity of taking advantage of it.

We hope we can continue to benefit of it, for many more years to come.

Best Regards,

To Whom It My Concern,

As proud parents of a biracial son attending Chabad Chayil CHAP After School Program, we are very happy and excited to have found such an inclusive program. Our son has benefited greatly from CHAP, including but not limited to the great values of caring, kindness and respect that are continuously exemplified by their staff daily. He looks forward to going to CHAP. We enjoy the variety of activities being provided, they range from creative to self-awareness, inspiring and fun academics. The teachers at CHAP are very Knowledgeable and caring professionals who teach Reading, Math, provide Homework assistance, Yoga, Art, Music, Dance, Hebrew Language, Social Skills Building, and Physical Education. As a Certified State of Florida Teacher, I am in charge of and is the teacher of record for the Reading-Literacy program at CHAP. My wife is also a Certified Teacher, and LCSW providing Social Skills Building and counseling services to our CHAP family.

Amongst the many positive ways CHAP mends our community here are a few examples; they never turn away a family due to financial insecurities, they are inclusive, they service families from diverse cultural backgrounds and Students with Special Needs. This after school program is unlike any other in our community. It is a very safe and enriching place for our son to be while we are working. It gives us great comfort knowing that our son is being taken care by the wonderful staff at CHAP. Being at CHAP is being part of a great family, that gives so much more to the community. Their caring staff provide families from the community with free workshop to help assist families in need. In conclusion, we are very grateful for all the ways our son has benefited from all the exciting activities that this program has to offer. As parents we are proud and humbled to be able to give back to our community through the efforts and hard work of the CHAP family. Our communities need more CHAPs!

Sincerely,

Mr. John and Cynthia Blanc

Dear Rabbi Moishe and Layah Kievman,

It is almost impossible to describe the immense benefits our daughter [REDACTED] received by attending CHAPS After school program.

For more than 2 years [REDACTED] attended your program which resulted in [REDACTED] becoming the amazing person she is today.

It was a proud moment for our family when she graduated and she remains close friends with her graduating class and their teacher with whom they meet for a reunion several times a year.

Our community would not be the same without the CHAPS after school program. I personally know several families who, among other reasons, chose the city of Aventura because of the CHAPS after school program. Your non-discriminatory and non-judgmental approach is well known throughout our city and your acceptance of children regardless of their ability to pay is greatly appreciated by so many families.

Thank you for the unique service your program provides to our community.

With kindest regards, I remain,

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern,

I am a very concerned mother and professional counselor. First, I am a mother who searched for a safe, warm, and enriching after school program to send her 7-year-old son to. I found CHAP Chabad Chayil and I was able to finally sleep and stop crying with worry about my son's well being and care. I am confident my son is being taken care of with love, guidance, and support that I as a mother approve of. Furthermore, I believe in their integrity and worthiness of their programs and activities—Yoga, Art, Reading, Homework Assistance, Hebrew language etc. I was contracted by Nova South Eastern University to provide behavior support monitoring and guidance to after school providers. I worked throughout Dade County and taught over 25 agencies how to do PBS, Positive Behavior Support. When it came time to review CHAP, they astounded me with their scores. Who knew years later I would have the opportunity to enroll my own son at their program!

To add to my delight, I was offered the opportunity to work at CHAP. I jumped at the chance to provide Social Skills Building lessons to the students and continue to foster their PBS strategies. Hence, as a professional, I support CHAP's enriching and caring outreach it provides families and the community. We work beyond after school hours speaking to families and providing them guidance, counseling, and resources. We serve Special Needs students and their families, and we even have families that come for after school for free! We are a home away from home. I have the best of both worlds since I am fulfilled here as a mother and as a professional. I have my son in an after-school program that nourishes his mind, body, and soul. I whole heartedly advocate and support CHAP Chabad Cahyil.

Respectfully,

Cynthia Serure, LCSW

Hello. My name is [REDACTED] I am currently 16 years old and attended Chabad Chayil Afterschool program throughout my primary school days. When I found out that sudden legislature was threatening a program, I grew up knowing and loving, I was utterly devastated. Such greed should not be permitted when so many children have been nurtured and set on the right path in times of darkness, as was I when I attended CHAP. Chabad Chayil is a very important landmark in the story of my life having been there for me in the most pressing and drastic moments of my childhood when I had no one to turn to but found guidance in the composure of the Morehs as well as the Rabbis.

During my attendance at Chabad, I earned more than to just read Hebrew. Being an immigrant, it was hard for a Jewish girl with a Russian accent to appear likeable and approachable. I wasn't the most popular at recess nor anywhere at school for that matter. Though, I could always look forward to afterschool evenings with CHAP. Something bright, new, and exciting was always waiting ins tore for me and I couldn't wait to learn. I was able to make genuine friends and have grounding interactions which meant more than frivolous recess talk I was never a part of in school. I felt welcomed and like I belonged, and I was given a second family at Chabad. Thinking this program would be shut down one day truly breaks my heart. Rabbi Kievman and Moreh Layah are more than just good people. They worry about making their own ends meet for the betterment of the program in order for not only the Jewish populous of Aventura to congregate in wholesome activities, but any person who is willing to join and have fun or learn. Chabad Chayil defines the term non-discriminatory as they guided my friend through conversion as she was getting ready to graduate high school and taught her Hebrew to ease her way into Judaism. They did not hold anything against her and were instead excited to welcome her and share kindness. Moreover, Chabad's doors are always open for the less fortunate, which is uncommon in a cosmopolitan center such as Aventura. Kindness withers in scarcity as our Earth ages, but Chabad Chayil has maintained their courage and perseverance in being a guiding light to children, teens, and adults. I would not have traded my experience at Chabad, good or bad, for anything else because I grew wholeheartedly from attending.

To continue, I built strong, long-lasting relationships with the staff and with my Hebrew school classmates. To this day, I have deeper bonds with my Hebrew school friends than people I've encountered along the way because CHAP was able to bring us together. Seeing this golden era of primary schooling threatened is disheartening to say the least. I wish all children could have the fun I had while I was at CHAP and the lessons, both religious and not I gained from attending. From the staff which perpetually look out for anybody in presence, to the welcoming and nonprejudiced arms of each person there, to the smiles and something new at every corner. Even in dire times, CHAP put the children first (not many can do that nowadays). They did not give up then, and they will certainly not back down now. This program means something and isn't just another enterprise extraordinaire. I strongly uphold the presence of this beautiful organization. I support CHAP.

To Whom It May Concern-

My daughter attends Aventura Waterways K-8 and is entering the third grade this coming school year.

She has attended aftercare at CHAP since kindergarten. As a single mother, this is extremely important to me. CHAP has been a great resource for my daughter. She is helped with her homework by a knowledgeable staff. She enjoys the program tremendously.

The staff at CHAP is professional and friendly. I can even call before coming to collect my daughter and they will have her packed up and ready to go. This allows me to continue working AND to have quality time with my daughter after school and work.

I have noticed that my daughter is more confident now that she has participated in the CHAP program at Aventura Waterways; as a matter of fact, she has made great friends while participating in the program.

It would be a terrible thing if this program was not available to my daughter. It would take away her happiness and her friends. As for me, it would eliminate a trustworthy organization that watches over my daughter afterschool.

Please do NOT eliminate the ability for my daughter to have quality aftercare through CHAP at Aventura Waterways School.

Respectfully,

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter on the behalf of Chabad Chayil CHAP After School Program. Our program also offers fun and creative activities such as Art, Dance, and Yoga. Then there is Homework Assistance and Reading and Tutoring. Our students get small group academic instruction and even 1:1 help. Teachers are skilled, professional and caring. We go the extra mile and truly care about all our children and their families. We have birthday celebrations every month for them with clowns, magician, cake and more. We provide families with extra family counseling and support. CHAP is their home away from home and it is greatly needed.

Sincerely Yours,

To Whom it May Concern

We want to address here how Chabad Chayil's program has benefitted our family, our child, and in general our community during the past years.

Our son has attended a public school -Aventura Waterways K-8- for the past 7 years, and throughout all this time, we have had the privilege to have him attend Chabad Chayil's Afterschool Program.

Not only did they provide a safe environment for our children to spend their afternoons, but also gave them valuable instruction, important values, even helped them with their homework and played sports -the school has no sports program, which we believe is so important-.

We knew we could always count on Chabad Chayil for the care, extramural education and well being of our kid, even when we were going through a rough financial patch, they opened their doors to us, and allowed us to get back on our feet without absolutely any pressure.

In general, we can say that Chabad Chayil is a pillar for the community, giving children of any economic condition or background the possibility of growth in a safe environment, with professional personnel of unparalleled human quality. It is what they offer what keeps our children from the streets and makes them overall better citizens. We could no be more thankful to them for all they have done for us and our community.

I don't want to extend myself any more but will gladly talk to anyone that would want to ask me about them, and again, all I can feel for them is gratitude and respect.

Sincerely,

To whom it may concern

I would like to take this opportunity to explain what Chabbad Chayil means for our family and how special for our kids. Both of our kids have been attending the Chabbad Chayil after school program for the past 9 year, my son in 8th grade and my daughter 1st grade. I don't have enough words to express what this place does for our kids. The education they receive is beyond what school can provide. It feels like a 2nd home, knowing that while we're at work, our kids are happy, safe, learning, and with amazing people that make them feel like family.

Rabbi Kievman and his wife Layah, go above and beyond for our families.

My kids are attending Aventura Waterways KS center, and the only Jewish education I can give them is thanks to Rabbi Kievman and his amazing program.

I appreciate you taking the time to receive this letter and we hope it gives a little insight for the importance of keeping this program open as always to everyone.

To Whom It May Concern,

The value of Chabad Hebrew After-school Program is essential in our community. Teaching and working with the children at CHAP, I have personally seen the tremendous benefits that this program provides to the children and families in our community. While allowing parents to hold jobs that support their families, the staff at CHAP is focused on personal growth and development of each child, working with every child to develop and expand essential life skills that build success and confidence. Every child is valued and cared for, and the needs of every child are attended to on a personal level.

This program is incredible and unique. It is one of a kind, and its continuous success will undoubtedly assist in building the foundation for a stronger and successful future for the children in our community.

To Whom It May Concern:

This past school year was my daughter's year as a kindergartner at Highland Oaks. Our daughter was coming out of a Jewish Pre School environment where she was learning about Jewish values and holidays, and as a Jewish family, part of what we worried about when choosing the school for our daughter was how to keep teaching Jewish values and holidays to our daughter in a public school environment. We worried she would lose connection to her Jewish roots and although there are private Jewish schools around, that was not an option for our family.

The CHAP program at VABHOE this past year has been amazing. The morots (teachers) were incredibly nurturing and caring and my daughter learned so much. CHAP is an amazing, caring, enriching and invaluable educational program. I am so grateful for this program and I wish it continued for many years to come.

They have amazing professional staff, includes educational activities, teaching our children and helping them in Hebrew language physical education provide homework assistance dance music art yoga building social skills.

It gives our children safe and enriching environment. My child loves being there – benefit her in many ways not to mention that they never turn down any child due to financial reason. RE: CHABAD CHAYIL – CHAP PROGRAM

To Whom It May Concern:

Our daughter was enrolled in the CHAP Kinder Aftercare Program through CHABAD CHAYIL at VABHOE and is enrolled again for this upcoming school year. She has benefited immensely from the program and has been able to continue her Jewish Education while attending a public elementary school. To Whom it May Concern,

The CHAP after-school program is unique and indispensable, especially in their inclusion and acceptance of children with special needs. I saw how certain students, who in other programs, would have been taunted and bullied were made to feel welcome. The other children helped them participate in activities and this in itself helped their development and positive growth.

It is the ideology of CHAP and its teachers to treat special needs students equally and to teach the other students to do the same.

Please continue this wonderful and special program.

To whom it concern,

Please do not let Afterschool programs like CHAP be shut down. They have a great influence on our children. They have great staff that are so loving and nurturing. They enrich our children's lives with a sense of community and promoting works of charity. The activities are very diverse including art, baking, exercise, reading, writing, trips to food banks, etc. This program is a benefit to parents, the children, and the entire neighborhood. It is so nice that it is available in the Public School that my daughter goes to now and that my son will go to in a few years. They never turn anyone down and encourage more community involvement.

Please ensure that Afterschool programs like CHAP continue.

Thank you,

To Whom it may concern,

My daughter has being going to CHAP for 6 years now and my son will be joining this year. I wanted to let you know the benefit that my daughter got over the years. I was born in Israel but grow up in the USA. When I was a kid there was no program like this around to give you the Jewish value, holidays and to giving the tools that you want to keep the Jewish religion in after school program. I was lost as a kid and when I grow up I understood the meaning of being Jewish. The fact that CHAP and give this to our kids and make friends and really learn about the holidays and the Jewish religion is amazing.

There is no other after school program that offer this is in a public school is the best part. The fact that they help out to family's that do not have the financial means or discriminated anyone is something to stand by. The love and care that the kids get is priceless.

It will be a great lost for the kids if CHAP will not be around and get the benefit that they offer our kids.

The fact that is takes place in a public school with such a great infrastructure and safety for the kids, give us a huge peace of mind. No matter what the family's financial situation is, they take the kids. They are all treated equally. They socialize, play, learn and study in a safe and proper environment.

Our son has been going to CHAP after school Program for 3 years and our daughter will be starting her first year. We have recently learned that this wonderful program's Presence is at risk due to legislation.

The CHAP program has always provided a safe, loving, and nurturing environment. They have always taught an overall message to be a good person who does good deeds.

Allowing this program to remain on campus eliminates transportation risks and gives working parents reprieve knowing their children are happy and exercising their minds and hearts.

Community sponsored after school programs religious or otherwise provide a low cost aftercare option for working families.

CHAP runs on donations and goodwill, accepts all, and is yet another reason to allow for their continued presence as after school programs which can often feel institutional or unaffordable.

Please do not take these types of programs that help build the community and help working families away. Feel free to call us if we can be of further assistance.

To Whom It May Concern,

In 2016 while house hunting, we had to consider several factors when choosing a community. At the top of the list was education – as our eldest daughter would be entering Kindergarten soon thereafter. We considered several schools, including a charter school in Broward County. That was until we learned of the Community Hebrew Afterschool Program, CHAP, which operates in Virginia A. Boone Highland Oaks Elementary school in Miami, FL.

It was CHAP that brought us to the Highland Lakes community, and it is CHAP that keeps us here. We now have two children that participate in the CHAP program and could not be happier. I know personally, as well as through friends, that the reason many children in our area attend local public schools instead of private schools is because they have access to CHAP afterschool, some in their very own school.

Having CHAP take place in their own school gives my children a feeling a pride. They look forward all day long to CHAP – sometimes even asking if they could attend an all-day CHAP program. The staff is so caring and loving – and take the time to get to know each child – their strengths and weaknesses.

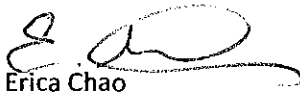

If it weren't for CHAP my children would not know how important Judaism is as a way of life. It is through the CHAP program that my children now know the Hebrew Alphabet, the customs, the holidays and so much more. It is through my children that I am learning about Judaism. My children want to learn Hebrew, visit Israel and be good Jewish citizens in their community all thanks to the teachings of CHAP.

The administrators always put the needs of the children first. Without the CHAP program in place, I wouldn't be able to afford a qualified afterschool program. It is because of CHAP that my husband and I have peace of mind during afterschool hours. Our entire family benefits tremendously from CHAP.

Although our family is interfaith, CHAP has welcomed us with open and loving arms. We truly appreciate all that our CHAP family has done for us and would be lost without them. I have never seen a program like CHAP in all my life – it is one of a kind. I hope that my children will be able to continue to grow up with CHAP in their life all through school.

Warm regards,

Erica Chao

Hello Leah,

I wanted to reach out personally to inform you of my son's [REDACTED] progress.

He commenced Kindergarten in the end of August, and back then, we had no suspicions that there were any behavioral issues. His transition to adapt to VABHOE became exacerbated, he would not socialize whatsoever and presented negative remarks when speaking about his school.

Although he has been very unhappy at VABHOE, the factor that has made him want to go to school is Chap. Through his after school sessions at Chap, he has truly learned how to socialize and how to be happy. His only friends are at Chap and he is thriving. I wanted to thank you from the bottom of my heart, your program and attention to every child is exceptional.

With all my gratitude, I can say that Chap has been the solution for [REDACTED] during this transition.

Best regards,

Mordechai Grinstein and family

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing on behalf of my two young children and the wonderful staff at CHAP afterschool. I have had the fortunate opportunity of seeing firsthand how this program has aided my children and other students to learn about the Jewish program and form strong relationships with the staff members and other children. My husband and myself have always tried to find ways to assimilate our children in the Jewish community to understand the importance of who they are and where they come from. We are extremely grateful for CHAP in helping us to make that happen. CHAP has been with us through every step of the way and treats all families with consideration, respect and understanding regardless of their religious observance, race, and ethnicity, social economic status etc.... My children are always excited when going to CHAP and have taken the lessons they learn from CHAP and incorporate them into our household such as praying every night, kissing the mezuzah, and having a Shabbat meal. They have created such a diverse and enriched experience for all the students there and also help my children and students, academically as well which is what makes CHAP a dynamic afterschool program. I ask your support in keeping and creating more afterschool programs for future students to benefit from. Programs like this will only help our children become better-modeled citizens and leaders for tomorrow. IF programs like this will cease to exist, then what world or message are we sending to our children?

Best Regards,

Lisa Kalantarova

To whom it may concern

My son participated in the Chap program in 2017.

I can only express the best words about this program.

We are not capable of paying for a private jewish school so we've tried to find the best option to provide my kids with a great education and complement with a great program on jewish education.

My son learned so much and enjoyed the time in the program. The teachers are caring, prepared, and willing to give their best to each student.

Closing this kind of programs will destroy the opportunity to many families that cant afford private jewish school to provide their kids with a great education.

We've decided to change my son to a charter school so we are not able to attend this program anymore, but I do recommend it to every one that will attend Highland Oaks or Waterways school, even to many families that are looking for an after school jewish program and their school dont offer it.

Hopefully this opportunity will continue to be available for all those kids that are looking forward to maintain their jewish roots ailve from generation to generation

Regards

Adriana Forelle

Re: Chabad Chayil

Dear Inspector Gonzalez:

Pursuant to our various communications enclosed herewith please find our client's addendum to its registration form for your review and consideration. As you may be aware, I have placed several calls to you in order to determine when, if at all, we could expect a final report of your findings. To date, my client has extended every possible effort to assist you regarding any matters which you would care to investigate irrespective of the fact that neither you nor your agency has enumerated, with any particularity, what in fact it was investigating or who the subject of your investigation is. As you have been advised, these ongoing proceedings have caused our client to experience substantial difficulty in accommodating well in excess of 500 children in the north-east Miami-Dade community that our client services with a rewarding and enjoyable after school educational experience. Anything that you could do to expedite the conclusion of your investigation would be greatly appreciated.

Thanking you in advance for your kind and thoughtful cooperation, I remain,

Sincerely,

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors of
Chabad Chayil, Inc.
North Miami Beach, Florida

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Chabad Chayil, Inc. (the "Organization") (a nonprofit corporation) which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2015, and the related statement of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Organization as of December 31, 2015, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matter

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The schedule of functional expenses on page 10 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated June 30, 2016 on our consideration of the Organization's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Organization's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION

---------------	-------------------------

The accompanying notes are an integral part of these financial statements.

Nature of Activities

Chabad Chayil, Inc. (the "Organization"), a Florida not-for-profit corporation, was incorporated on January 24, 2005 as a not for profit in the State of Florida and is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Organization operates a Hebrew after school program, Synagogue and an outreach center that provides various social and religious services.

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements of the Organization have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America ("GAAP"). Presented below is a summary of significant accounting principles followed in the preparation of the accompanying financial statements.

Basis of presentation

The financial statements are presented in accordance with FASB ASC. Under this interpretation, the Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.

Unrestricted

Unrestricted net assets are free of donor-imposed restrictions and include all revenues, gains, expenses and losses that are not changes in permanently or temporarily restricted net assets.

Temporarily Restricted

Temporarily restricted net assets are those net assets whose use by the Organization is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that either expires by the passage of time or that can be fulfilled or otherwise removed by actions of the Organization pursuant to those stipulations. As December 31, 2015, temporarily restricted assets totaled $361,000 (see Note 6).

Permanently Restricted

Permanently restricted net assets are those net assets whose use by the Organization is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that neither expire by the passage of time nor can be fulfilled or otherwise removed by actions of the Organization. As of December 31, 2015 there were no permanently restricted net assets.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, amounts due from banks and investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Council to concentration of credit risk consist principally of cash equivalents. At times, cash balances may exceed the levels of insurance provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Coverage (FDIC).

Grants receivable

Grants receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect from balances outstanding. Management closely monitors outstanding balances throughout the year, and writes off all balances that are considered uncollectible.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues are recognized when earned and costs and expenses when incurred. Accordingly, tuition and fees collected in advance are deferred and reported as income in the month in which the services are rendered. Also, contributions received, including unconditional promises, are recognized as revenues when the donor's commitment is received. Conditional promises are recognized as revenue when the donor's stipulations are substantially met.

Functional Expenses

The costs of providing Organization programs and support have been summarized on a functional basis on the accompanying statement of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated to the various functions to the extent possible.

Contributions

All contributions are available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor. All pledges receivable and amounts received that are donor restricted for future periods or donor restricted for specific purposes are reported as temporarily or permanently restricted, depending upon the nature of the restriction. Temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and are reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restriction when the donor stipulated time restriction ends or the purpose restriction is accomplished by the Organization. All gifts granted to the Organization are recorded at fair value at the time of receipt.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Organization's management evaluates the recoverability of the investment in long-lived assets on an ongoing basis and recognizes any impairment in the year of determination. Long-lived assets were tested for impairment as of December 31, 2015, and in the opinion of management, there was no impairment.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the useful lives of the asset, which range from 5 to 40 years. The cost of repairs and maintenance is expense as incurred; major replacements and improvements are capitalized. When assets are retired or disposed of the cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts, and any resulting gains or losses are included in changes in net assets in the year of disposition.

Income Taxes

The Organization is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, no provision for federal or state income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements.

The Organization recognizes and measures tax positions taken or expected to be taken in its tax return based on their technical merit and assesses the likelihood that the positions will be sustained upon examination based on the facts, circumstances and information available at the end of each period. Interest and penalties on tax liabilities, if any, would be recorded in interest expense and other non-interest expense, respectively.

The U.S. Federal jurisdiction and Florida are the major tax jurisdictions where the Organization files tax returns. The Organization is generally no longer subject to U.S. Federal or State examinations by tax authorities for years before 2012.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of these financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair Value Measurement

Assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value use valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs by requiring that the observable inputs be used when available. Fair value estimates involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgment.

Subsequent Events

The Organization has evaluated subsequent events through June 30, 2016, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTE 2 – GRANTS RECEIVABLE

Grants receivable consist of the following as of December 31, 2015:

The Children's Trust	$ 45,666
Total	$ 45,666

Management believes that all grants receivable are collectible and that no reserve is necessary at December 31, 2015.

NOTE 3 – PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT, NET

Property and equipment consist of the following as of December 31, 2015:

Property and equipment, net	$ 1,033,780

Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2015 was $57,881.

NOTE 4 – CONCENTRATION OF REVENUE SOURCES

A portion of the Organization's revenue is derived from one local grant which are renewed annually. Approximately 75% of the Organization's revenue, excluding in-kind revenues, were derived from private donors for the year ended December 31, 2015. A significant reduction in the level of this funding, if this is to occur, would have an effect on the Organization's ability to carry out its programs and activities.

NOTE 5 – MORTGAGE PAYABLE

The Organization has a mortgage payable with EEL, Incorporated, a corporation, of $250,000 with annual interest of 5% paid monthly. The mortgage is secured by two properties owned by the Organization and matures on March 15, 2018. The mortgage payable as of December 31, 2015 was $242,000 and interest paid on the note for the year ended December 31, 2015 was $15,036.

Future minimum payments are as follows:

Total	$ 242,000

NOTE 6 – TEMPORARILY RESTRICTED NET ASSETS

At December 31, 2015, temporarily restricted net assets consist of the following:

Beginning Temporarily Restricted	$ -
Additions:
Contributions	375,000
Release of restrictions	(14,000)
Ending Temporarily Restricted	$ 361,000

For the year ended December 31, 2015, the Organization spent $14,000 in funds provided by a donor and the balance as of December 31, 2015 remains in cash.

NOTE 7 – RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Organization entered into a related party transaction with King David Academy, Inc. (the "Academy"), an organization owned by the Organization's director. The Academy loaned funds to the Organization at no interest and are payable on demand. As of December 31, 2015, the amount owed to the Academy was $14,550.

During 2015, the Organization advanced funds to its Director and the Organization has an outstanding balance due from its Director of $43,962. There are no explicit terms for repayment, however management deems the amount collectable.

NOTE 8 – IN-KIND CONTRIBUTIONS

The Organization records donated materials at their estimated fair value at the date of contribution. A school adjacent to the Organization permits the Organization to use, the facility where the primary program services are performed. Total estimated fair value of the use of the facility for the years ended December 31, 2015 was $121,500. The estimated fair value is included in both support, and revenue and expenses in the Statement of Activities.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS BASED ON
IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

Chabad Chayil, Inc.

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of Chabad Chayil, Inc. (the "Organization") (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2015, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated June 30, 2016.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered the Organization's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) to determine the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the Organization's financial statements are free from material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the organization's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the organization's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Chabad Chayil, Inc.
North Miami Beach, Florida

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Chabad Chayil, Inc. (the "Organization") (a nonprofit corporation) which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2016, and the related statement of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Organization as of December 31, 2016, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matter

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The schedule of functional expenses on page 10 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated June 25, 2017 on our consideration of the Organization's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Organization's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

---

Nature of Activities

Chabad Chayil, Inc. (the "Organization"), a Florida not-for-profit corporation, was incorporated on January 24, 2005 as a not for profit in the State of Florida and is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Organization operates a Hebrew after school program, Synagogue and an outreach center that provides various social and religious services.

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements of the Organization have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America ("GAAP"). Presented below is a summary of significant accounting principles followed in the preparation of the accompanying financial statements.

Basis of presentation

The financial statements are presented in accordance with FASB ASC. Under this interpretation, the Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.

Unrestricted

Unrestricted net assets are free of donor-imposed restrictions and include all revenues, gains, expenses and losses that are not changes in permanently or temporarily restricted net assets.

Temporarily Restricted

Temporarily restricted net assets are those net assets whose use by the Organization is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that either expires by the passage of time or that can be fulfilled or otherwise removed by actions of the Organization pursuant to those stipulations. As December 31, 2016, temporarily restricted assets totaled $361,000 (see Note 5).

Permanently Restricted

Permanently restricted net assets are those net assets whose use by the Organization is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that neither expire by the passage of time nor can be fulfilled or otherwise removed by actions of the Organization. As of December 31, 2016 there were no permanently restricted net assets.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, amounts due from banks and investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Council to concentration of credit risk consist principally of cash equivalents. At times, cash balances may exceed the levels of insurance provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Coverage (FDIC).

Grants receivable

Grants receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect from balances outstanding. Management closely monitors outstanding balances throughout the year, and writes off all balances that are considered uncollectible.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues are recognized when earned and costs and expenses when incurred. Accordingly, tuition and fees collected in advance are deferred and reported as income in the month in which the services are rendered. Also, contributions received, including unconditional promises, are recognized as revenues when the donor's commitment is received. Conditional promises are recognized as revenue when the donor's stipulations are substantially met.

Functional Expenses

The costs of providing Organization programs and support have been summarized on a functional basis on the accompanying statement of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated to the various functions to the extent possible.

CHABAD CHAYIL, INC.

---

Contributions

All contributions are available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor. All pledges receivable and amounts received that are donor restricted for future periods or donor restricted for specific purposes are reported as temporarily or permanently restricted, depending upon the nature of the restriction. Temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and are reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restriction when the donor stipulated time restriction ends or the purpose restriction is accomplished by the Organization. All gifts granted to the Organization are recorded at fair value at the time of receipt.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Organization's management evaluates the recoverability of the investment in long-lived assets on an ongoing basis and recognizes any impairment in the year of determination. Long-lived assets were tested for impairment as of December 31, 2016, and in the opinion of management, there was no impairment.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the useful lives of the asset, which range from 5 to 40 years. The cost of repairs and maintenance is expense as incurred; major replacements and improvements are capitalized. When assets are retired or disposed of the cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts, and any resulting gains or losses are included in changes in net assets in the year of disposition.

Income Taxes

The Organization is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, no provision for federal or state income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements.

The Organization recognizes and measures tax positions taken or expected to be taken in its tax return based on their technical merit and assesses the likelihood that the positions will be sustained upon examination based on the facts, circumstances and information available at the end of each period. Interest and penalties on tax liabilities, if any, would be recorded in interest expense and other non-interest expense, respectively.

The U.S. Federal jurisdiction and Florida are the major tax jurisdictions where the Organization files tax returns. The Organization is generally no longer subject to U.S. Federal or State examinations by tax authorities for years before 2013.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of these financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair Value Measurement

Assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value use valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs by requiring that the observable inputs be used when available. Fair value estimates involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgment.

Subsequent Events

The Organization has evaluated subsequent events through June 25, 2017, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTE 2 – GRANTS RECEIVABLE

Grants receivable consist of the following as of December 31, 2016:

The Children's Trust	$ 23,233
Total	$ 23,233

Management believes that all grants receivable are collectible and that no reserve is necessary at December 31, 2016.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS BASED ON

Chabad Chayil, Inc.

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of Chabad Chayil, Inc. (the "Organization") (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2016, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated June 25, 2017.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered the Organization's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) to determine the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the Organization's financial statements are free from material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the organization's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the organization's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

To whom it may concern:

This letter is to confirm that I remember that Rabbi Kievman called me with an urgent request to customize tshirts in different colors for a staff game at Awk-8 center.

It was a very last-minute request and the Rabbi explained to me that the principal had just called him and said that " Rabbi I know it's last minute but with your contacts I'm sure you can get it done."

It was impossible even for me who understood the urgency in the Rabbis voice so I offered to personally deliver the correct colors requested although I could not personalize them.

Sincerely,

Gilda P. Ferradaz
Regional Managing Director

Dear Ms. Klevman,

The Department received your licensure survey describing the operation of your program on March 14, 2014 for Chabad Hebrew After School. Based on a review of the survey, it has been determined that your program does not meet the definition of child care pursuant to s. 402.302(2), Florida Statutes. Therefore, licensure by the Department of Children and Families is not required. However, if the operation of your program changes in the future, please contact the Department to determine if licensure would be required based on the changes.

It appears from the description of your program, the center may be considered a non-public school. If you have not done so, we urge you to contact the Florida Department of Education to ensure completion of the requirements for operation of a private elementary school. You may reach the Department of Education at 1-800-447-1636 or visit their website: http://www.floridaschoolchoice.org/Information/Private Schools/opening a private school.asp.

We hope this information is helpful. If you have additional questions, please feel free to contact the program office or your local licensing office at (305) 377-7418.

Thank you,

The Children's Trust must be shown on the evidence of property coverage as a Loss Payee. The Children's Trust may require Provider to furnish additional and different insurance coverage, or both, as may be required from time to time under applicable federal or state laws or The Children's Trust requirements. Provision of insurance by Provider, in no instance, shall be deemed to be a release, limitation, or waiver of any claim, cause of action or assessment that The Children's Trust may have against Provider for any liability of any nature related to performance under this Contract or otherwise.

All such records will be retained by Provider for not less than five years beyond the last date that all applicable terms of this contract have been complied with, final payment has been received and appropriate audits have been submitted to and accepted by The Children's Trust. However, if any audit, claim, litigation, negotiation or other action involving this contract or modification hereto has commenced before the expiration of the retention period, then the records shall be retained until completion of the action and resolution of all issues which arise from it, or until the end of the regular retention period, whichever is later.

3. Program Specific Audit

Within 180 days of the close of its fiscal year, Providers that are contracted for a combined total of $100,000 or more from The Children's Trust are required to have their CPA firm submit a program specific audit related to The Children's Trust contracts, electronically, in addition to the annual financial statement audit. Approved extension requests allow for the continuation of payment until such time that the extension expires.

The annual financial statement audit and other financial information will be used in the evaluation of Provider's performance and overall fiscal health.

In the event that either the annual financial statement audit or the program specific audit is not received in a timely manner and in accordance with the previously stated due dates; and an audit extension has not been approved, then The Children's Trust shall withhold all payments to Provider until the documents are received and determined to be acceptable by The Children's Trust.

OTHER FISCAL REQUIREMENTS, BUDGET and METHOD OF PAYMENT

Advance payment requests

The Children's Trust offers advance payments of up to 15% of the total contract value. Advance requests shall be limited to governmental entities and not-for-profit corporations, in accordance with subsection 216.181 (16) (b), F.S. The advance request must include the amount requested and a justification for the request. Advance requests must be submitted using the designated form and must be approved in writing by The Children's Trust Contract Manager and Chief Financial Officer or their designee.

Advance repayment

Advance repayment is due within 60 calendar days of receipt of the advance. Provider shall report the amount of the advance repayment in SAMIS using the "advances/adjustments" button on the SAMIS reimbursement screen. If a provider does not use SAMIS, then they are required to deduct their advance repayment from each invoice, consecutively, until the advance is repaid in full.

Budget amendments/revisions

Budget amendments/revisions require written approval from the Contract Manager and The Children's Trust's Chief Financial Officer or their designee. Request for budget amendments/revisions must be submitted to a Contract Manager using SAMIS, or the appropriate form, as designated by The Children's Trust. All budget amendments/revisions are subject to final approval by The Children's Trust. Budget amendments/revisions cannot be used to increase the total contract amount or to modify the Scope of Services. No more than two (2) budget amendments/revisions may be approved during the contract term. Budget amendment/revision requests must be submitted sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of contract. Budget amendments/revisions will be incorporated into the contract.

Indirect Administrative Costs

In no event shall The Children's Trust fund indirect administrative costs in excess of ten (10%) percent of the total contract amount.

List of Approved Certified Public Accountants or Certified Public Accounting Firms

To receive reimbursement for the preparation of the program specific audit, as defined, provider must choose from a list of approved independent Certified Public Accounting (CPA) firms, which are posted on The Children's Trust website. Inclusion in this pre-approved vendor pool requires that a CPA firm meet the following three (3) criteria:

- (a) participation in either the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) or the Florida Institute of Certified Public Accountants (FICPA) peer review program as evidenced by submitting their triennial System Review Report with a passing score to The Children's Trust; and
- (b) providing documentation that a CPA firm, or one of its associates, has adequate experience in governmental accounting and/or nonprofit accounting with the application of Government Auditing Standards; and
- (c) completion of an annual CPA training session sponsored by The Children's Trust finance department.

Cost Reimbursement Method of Payment

The parties agree that this is a cost reimbursement method of payment contract; Provider shall be paid in accordance with the approved budget and/or approved budget amendments/revisions as set forth in this attachment. Provider also agrees to pay its subcontractors, vendors and employees for the fulfillment of services provided in this contract, on a timely basis.

Invoice Requirements

Provider shall submit on original request for payment, using the format prescribed by The Children's Trust and in accordance with the approved budget or budget amendments/revisions. The Children's Trust will notify Provider if the request for payment should be submitted electronically using SAMIS or by using a paper invoice. The request for payment is due on or before the fifteenth (15th) day of the month following the month in which expenditures were incurred (exclusive of legal holidays or weekends). The Children's Trust agrees to reimburse Provider on a monthly billing basis for costs paid during the previous month. Every request by Provider for payment for services, work performed or costs paid pursuant to this contract, except for any advanced payments by The Trust, shall be accompanied by a Request for Payment in the format that is prescribed by The Children's Trust. The Children's Trust reserves the right to request any supporting documentation related to this contract.

If there are subcontractors to this contract, then the Form D: Attestation of Payment must be either uploaded to the SAMIS Document Repository or included in the Request for Payment no later than 30 days after payment to subcontractor. Upon the close of this contract, Provider is required to complete Form E: Close-out Attestation of Payment, which must be either uploaded to the SAMIS Document Repository or included in the Request for Payment no later than 30 days after payment to subcontractor. These forms may be downloaded from The Children's Trust's website. For the purpose of payment only, a subcontractor is defined as an independent agency that has entered into agreement with Provider to perform services pertaining to The Children's Trust funded programs identified in this contract.

A final request for payment (last monthly invoice of the contract term) from Provider will be accepted by The Children's Trust up to forty-five (45) days after the expiration of this contract. If Provider fails to comply, then all rights to payment shall be forfeited.

If The Children's Trust determines that Provider has been paid funds, which are not in accordance with this contract, and to which it is not entitled, then Provider shall return such funds to The Children's Trust or submit appropriate documentation to support the payment within thirty (30) days of notification by The Children's Trust. After thirty (30) days, The Children's Trust may recapture amounts due to The Children's Trust, from this or any contract by reducing amounts requested to be reimbursed less the amount owed to The Children's Trust. The Children's Trust shall have the sole discretion in determining if Provider is entitled to such funds in accordance with this contract, and The Children's Trust's decision on this matter shall be binding.

In the event that Provider, its independent CPA firm or The Children's Trust discovers that an overpayment has been made, Provider shall repay the overpayment within thirty (30) calendar days without prior notification from The Children's Trust.

If Provider fails to serve the number of participants and/or fails to utilize the funds in accordance with the contract, then The Children's Trust may amend the contract to reduce the amount of dollars. Any delay in amendment by The Children's Trust is not deemed a waiver of The Children's Trust's right to amend or seek reimbursement for under-serving participants in accordance with the contract.

A request for payment will be deemed proper as defined by the Florida Prompt Payment Act, if the request complies with the requirements set forth in this contract and is submitted on the forms prescribed by The Children's Trust. Requests for payment and/or documentation returned to Provider for corrections may be cause for delay in receipt of payment. Late submission may result in delay in receipt of payment. The Children's Trust shall pay Provider within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of Provider's properly submitted Request for Payment and/or other required documentation.

The Children's Trust may retain any payments due until all required reports, deliverables or monies owed to The Children's Trust are submitted and accepted by The Children's Trust.

Supporting Documentation Requirements

Provider shall maintain original records documenting actual expenditures and services provided according to the approved budget and scope of services as required. Supporting documentation shall be made available and provided to The Children's Trust upon request.

Provider shall keep accurate and complete records of any fees collected, reimbursement or compensation of any kind received from any client or other third party, for any service covered by this contract, and shall make all such records available to The Children's Trust upon request. Provider shall maintain a cost allocation methodology that is used to allocate its costs to ensure that The Children's Trust is paying only its fair share of costs for services, overhead and staffing devoted to the program funded by this contract. Such methodology shall be made available to The Children's Trust upon request.

  - A child of a military family (i.e., member of the child's family who he/she lives with or knows and who is either: 1) an active duty member of the uniformed services; 2) a member of the national guard or reserves; 3) a member or veteran who was severely injured and medically discharged or retired; or 4) a member killed in the line of duty)

Children with Disabilities - The Children's Trust expects all programs to serve children with disabilities, regardless of disability type or level, provided they can be safely and reasonably accommodated in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

Providers who may need assistance in determining whether they can safely and reasonably accommodate children with disabilities must contact their assigned Inclusion Specialist from the All Children Together (ACT) Resource Network. All children must be admitted into programs unless the assigned Inclusion Specialist determines that reasonable accommodations cannot be made.

Other information to be obtained for all CHILD participants and included in the participant files:

- Medical History and Authorization (including special needs and conditions)
- Emergency Contact Information
- Transportation, Walk Home, and Pick-up Authorizations
- Confidentiality of Client Information
- Signed release of information to The Children's Trust and authorization to participate
- Consent to Release Educational Records (if applicable)

PERFORMANCE MEASURES

All contractual performance measures are specified within Attachment A (Scope of Services), along with the specific targets to be achieved (i.e., target numbers and percentages). Below are key definitions related to how the contract's performance will be analyzed.

How much are you doing?

- Recruitment/Enrollment - Reflects the average number of contracted slots/seats that are filled daily. The Children's Trust recognizes that not all children will attend their out-of-school program every day. However, material compliance with this contract requires that a minimum of 85% of contracted slots for participating children will be occupied on a daily basis. Attendance cannot be entered for a given participant until her/his demographic information has been completed. During the school year, only children attending After School days may participate in programming for School Year Full Days and/or Saturdays.

- Days of Service - Refers to the number of days contracted to be delivered by providers during the school year and/or summer.
- Matched Sets Compliance - Tracks number of children receiving at least two tests within a review period. Two testing points are necessary in order to evaluate whether a child has made progress. Only children with long-term program enrollment will be included in a review of matched sets data. This is defined as any child with 90+ calendar days of program enrollment for afterschool and 30+ calendar days of program enrollment for summer. At the end of the school year, 95% of children are required to have matched sets. By the end of summer camp, 90% of children are required to have matched sets.
  - Testing Guidelines ensure that all assessments are given at the appropriate time intervals. The Trust recommends that tests are administered during specific windows of time, and assessments for all contracted outcomes should be given based on these time frames. All children with at least one day of attendance during a test administration timeframe should receive an assessment. Additionally, children leaving the program before its completion should be post-tested, if prior notice is given.
    - School Year Pre-test: Test children within 30 calendar days of each child's first day of attendance.
    - School Year Mid-test: Administer tests between December 1st and January 15th.
    - School Year Post-test: Administer tests between May 1st and June 6th.
    - Summer Pre-test: Test within 14 calendar days of each child's first day of attendance. Providers may also opt to use school year post-test results as summer pre-tests for returning children. This is permissible only if the school year post-test was administered within two weeks of the child's start date in summer camp. If provider chooses this option re-entering testing information for each participant is required.
    - Summer Post-test: Test during the final 14 calendar days of summer camp. Furthermore, children leaving the program before its completion should be post-tested, if prior notice is given.

How well are you doing?

- Engagement - Refers to the percentage of after school days each child has attended based on the child's first day of attendance through an end date. Only children enrolled in the program for at least 30 calendar days will be included in the school year engagement calculation.
- Satisfaction surveys must be administered to all children, youth, and their parents once during the school year in March and once during the summer. Providers must administer the satisfaction surveys from The Children's Trust (which can be found at The Children's Trust website). Providers are required to submit a summary of their school year and summer camp survey results through a web-based reporting system.

Is anyone better off?

The purpose of evaluation is to promote improvements in outcome achievement and to facilitate changes in program practices that result in improved outcome achievement. To that end, we expect that all children will be evaluated and that all children (and programs) can improve as a result.

- Outcomes Achievement - All children attending OOS programs will be tested using the Oral Reading Fluency (ORF) assessment and the Progressive Aerobic Cardiovascular Endurance Run (PACER). Results for ORF and PACER, as well as additional assessments, must be reported in The Trust's web-based data reporting system. Providers should meet the performance measures and targets required by the specific contract terms found in Attachment A (Scope of Services).
  - The original format of ORF and PACER may not be appropriate for all children. In these cases, providers must review approved adaptation options for the ORF and/or PACER assessments. Alternate assessments are conducted for children who are not able to respond to the original or adapted ORF and/or PACER assessment methods. Alternate assessments to ORF and PACER are reserved for children with disabilities. The Children's Trust website contains additional information regarding ORF/PACER adaptations, as well as the process for selecting alternate assessments. The Children's Trust research staff and Project RISE are also resources for identifying adaptations and alternate assessments.

CONTRACT PERFORMANCE REVIEWS

A minimum of two performance reviews are conducted annually by Trust staff: an interim review and an annual full review. The interim review process is completed at or prior to the first six months to assess whether the following areas are "on track" or "off track": staffing, activities, recruitment, retention/engagement and participant testing. The interim review is used for the purpose of contract renewal and may also be used for funding determinations, in conjunction with the end of the year score from the previous contract year (if applicable). A full annual performance review is completed following the end of the contract year using three review tools (On-Site Monitoring, Results and Accountability, and Fiscal) to measure success and ensure compliance with the terms of the contract. The overall performance is a measure of three areas: procedural compliance (15% of the score), fiscal compliance (25% of the score), and quality and quantity of services (60% of the score), and it generates a performance score.

QUARTERLY PROGRAM NARRATIVE REPORT

The Program Narrative Report captures a brief report of the program's successes, challenges, and support needed on a quarterly basis (up to five reports total over the contract period for year-round, four reports for afterschool only and one report for summer only). The report will be submitted to The Trust via the web-based reporting system.

TRAINING AND QUALITY IMPROVEMENT

The Children's Trust offers a variety of trainings on important topics to improve service delivery and contract compliance, enhance administrative capacity, and support program and employee development. Provider is required to ensure attendance by appropriate agency and/or program staff at the following trainings or re-certifications annually: Oral Reading Fluency, Progressive Aerobic Cardiovascular Endurance, New and Renewal Contract Development and Contract Management trainings, Quarterly Provider Meetings, and other topical trainings offered throughout the contract year. In addition, full participation is required with Project RISE (Research, Inspiration, Support, and Evaluation), the All Children Together (ACT) Resource Network, and other Trust initiatives that may be appropriate.

- Project RISE (<http://cps.nova.edu/projectrise/>)
The Children's Trust requires that Trust-funded out-of-school providers fully participate with Project RISE, a quality improvement initiative offered to support and improve the services available to Miami-Dade children and youth. Providers (including all staff involved in test administration) are required to become recertified in ORF and PACER administration annually.
- All Children Together Resource Network (http://ccdih.org/act/about\_act/)
The Children's Trust requires that providers attend trainings to become educated about the inclusion of and services for children with disabilities annually. Inclusion of children with disabilities requires that programs be appropriately adapted to meet the needs of all participating children. The All Children Together (ACT) Resource Network is a resource available to providers for technical assistance, mentoring, training and consultation regarding provision of services to children with disabilities.
- Injury Prevention Education and Resources (<http://thechildrenstrust.org/injury-prevention>)
The Children's Trust requires all funded providers to fully participate in childhood injury prevention capacity-building efforts facilitated by The Public Health Trust's Injury Free Coalition for Kids of Miami®, including annual participation in at least one training session relevant to the population being served, and distribution of parent education materials on home, water, car and bicycle safety.

- The Village Youth Services

The Children's Trust requires that Trust-funded out-of-school providers fully participate with The Village Youth Services, Inc., the OOS Food and Nutrition Provider that will be responsible to provide nutritious food (snacks and meals), beverages and food administration support services (monitoring, nutrition education training, etc.). Appropriate provider staff will be required to attend nutrition education and food safety training annually.

Program Specific Audit Requirements

The Program Specific Audit must encompass an audit of The Children's Trust contracts in accordance with section O3: Program Specific Audit of this contract. The comprehensive nature of auditing performed in accordance with the standards set forth below places on the independent certified public accounting firm (CPA) the responsibility for ensuring that (1) the audit is conducted by personnel who have the necessary skills; and (2) independence is maintained; and (3) applicable standards are followed in planning and conducting audits and reporting the results; and (4) the organization has an appropriate internal quality control system in place; and (5) the organization undergoes an external quality control review.

Program Specific Audits must be conducted in compliance with AU-C 935 and are required to include performing tests of controls over compliance.

An auditor's risk assessment must include an expectation of the operating effectiveness of controls over compliance; and in doing so; the assessed control risk must be assessed at low during the planning stage. If the auditor determines a lack of controls and identifies risk of material noncompliance that demonstrates internal controls do not exist or are not effective regarding the compliance requirement, a response to such risks should be developed, and a finding (significant deficiency or material weakness) should be reported.

The auditor's test work and sample size of each compliance requirement should be the result of the assessed level of inherent risk and control risk as it relates to each compliance requirement as stated in The Children's Trust contracts.

The Program Specific Audit requires the following components (a sample format may be found on The Children's Trust website):

- a. Independent Auditor's Report on the Schedule of Expenditures of The Children's Trust Contracts; and
- b. Schedule of Expenditures of The Children's Trust Contracts; and
- c. Notes to Schedule; and
- d. Independent Auditor's Report on Compliance for each of The Children's Trust Contracts and Report on Internal Control over Compliance; and
- e. Schedule of Findings and Questioned Costs.

At a minimum, the auditor must include the following tests in their audit program to ensure that the compliance requirements set forth in The Children's Trust compliance supplement are met. They are:

An auditor's risk assessment must include an expectation of the operating effectiveness of controls over compliance; and in doing so; the assessed control risk must be assessed at low during the planning stage. If the auditor determines a lack of controls and identifies	A). Controls tested during the financial statement audit may not consider compliance as it relates to the Children's Trust contracts. Overall control risk must consider each compliance requirement tested during the program specific audit. Separate risk assessment

b). Budget vs. Actual Expenditures	1). The approved budget is to include the original approved contract as well as any approved budget amendments/revisions.	A). Testwork should include a schedule identifying each contract and its original/amended budget, monthly billings, contract utilization and any analytical expectations that may identify any overbillings. i. SAMIS does not allow providers to overbill any budgeted line item or contract allocation, however, if contract utilization is greater or less than expected, this could indicate that a budgeted salary rate is not the employee's actual rate. Provider must compensate employees at the rate stated on the budget. Any difference in rate would warrant a finding in the Program Specific Audit Report.

Professional services are billed within regular salaries and wages.</li> <li>4. Capital purchases disguised as repairs.</li> <li>5. Sales taxes and tips.</li> <li>6. Fuel</li> <li>7. If the contractual budget, lists a Program Coordinator's position, with dedicated time charged to The Children's Trust program of 25%, then does the provider keep records of an employee's time to substantiate that 25% of time was in fact earned and charged to The Children's Trust program? D). If 3 contracts list a Program Coordinator's total budgeted salary as $100,000 and each contract will reimburse $35,000 (35%), then a possible overbilling of $5,000 may have occurred (<math>\$35,000 \times 3 = \$105,000</math> or <math>35\% \times 3 = 105\%</math> Children's Trust salary allocation). E). If an invoice is submitted to The Children's Trust that includes food charges for end of the year parties and celebrations, is that cost allowable per The Children's Trust budget guidelines? Food costs for end of year celebrations are NOT allowable

If a provider, prior to applying to participate in the contracted program, had committed to purchase 10 new computers for another program, then the provider must purchase those 10 computers in addition to any computers requested for the Children's Trust program.
d). Cash Management	1). With the exception of the last month of the contract period, do monthly invoices represent cost actually paid during the contract period (cash basis), rather than costs incurred or accrued.	A). If payroll is paid on 3/31, is it included in March's reimbursement? B). If payroll is paid on 4/1, but represents time charged in March, is it included in April's reimbursement?

If the active contract period extends from 8/1/14 through 7/31/15, and Provider expenses $250.00 for office supplies on 9/30/14, does that expenditure apply to the active contract period? B). f). Special Provisions	1). Eligibility requirements related to contract expectations such as type of participants served, number of participants served and background checks should NOT be tested as part of The Children's Trust program specific audit. The program specific audit is meant to test the fiscal viability of the provider. Therefore, certain core contract provisions that support the fiscal viability of the provider should be tested.	Each of the following special provisions must be tested: A). Insurance requirements (further description in Section K of Core Contract) i. Auditor should determine if all applicable insurance policies were carried during the fiscal year. B). Proof of tax status (further description in Section L) ii. Auditor should vouch to applicable documents verifying that all incurred payroll and unemployment taxes have been paid. C). Data security obligation (further description in Section 0.12 of the Core Contract) i. Auditor should obtain and/or understand the Provider's data security policy. D). Subcontractor agreements (if applicable) i. Auditor should obtain and understand any agreements made with subcontracted parties. Additionally, the auditor should obtain an understanding of any Provider monitoring procedures. E). Matching Funds i. In some cases, a required match is contracted. This will be

The independent auditor's report shall state that the audit was conducted in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, and the Program Specific Audit requirements listed in The Children's Trust contract.

URGENT MESSAGE FROM THE FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF LAW ENFORCEMENT REGARDING THE DELETION OF YOUR SCHOOL'S EMPLOYEES' FINGERPRINTS

This e-mail is being sent to you because your Qualified Entity (Private School) was mailed an invoice on June 1, 2015, for the annual fees associated with retained fingerprints for some of your employees. As of this date, the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) has not received payment for this invoice. If payment is not received by August 1, 2015 FDLE will be required to delete the retained fingerprints associated with the delinquent invoice from our Applicant Fingerprint Retention Notification Program (AFRNP). Once the fingerprints are deleted from the AFRNP, they cannot be retrieved by FDLE and your school will no longer receive arrest hit notifications for the associated employees. To be in compliance with the law, your school employees will have to again submit their fingerprints for state and national background checks and for retention; and pay the full processing fee.

It is important to note that FDLE does not require your private school to retain fingerprints for your employees. Florida Statutes require this participation because your private school receives McKay and/or CTC scholarship funds. The Florida Department of Education (FDOE) monitors your participation in the AFRNP. However, by rule, FDLE is required to charge a fee for providing this service.

If you have any additional questions regarding this e-mail, please contact FDLE's Volunteer and Employee Criminal History System (VECHS) section at \(850\) 410-8161.
